What The Annals Contain,

During the session of the legislature at Topeka in 1897 I was clerk of Senator Harris's Committee on Railroads. A good part of my leisure time was spent in the rooms of the State Historical Society. There I found a file of Sol Miller's Kansas Chief from its earliest number. In looking it over I found that it contained many items of interest about the early settlement of Brown county. In fact, it was more of a Brown county newspaper than it was a Doniphan county paper. I knew that Capt. Lacoek had kept a complete file of all the papers published at Hiawatha, and it occurred to me that from these two sources the material could be gathered for an interesting history of Brown county, and I determined to commence the work.

The plan followed has been that of Wilder's Annals of Kansas. I have endeavored to note every Brown county happening of interest with the names of its participants and the principal work done. In brief, these are the things it contains:

1. Every election table in the history of the county, giving vote by precincts in state, county, township and city elections.
2. A complete writeup of every county convention, political and otherwise, giving committees appointed, list of delegates in full, resolutions adopted, ballots taken and candidates nominated.
3. A notation of every state or national convention where a Brown county man figured in any way.
4. An account of the organization of each school district in the county with the names of those who composed the first board.
5. The chartering by the state of every semi-public corporation, such as churches, lodges, etc., with the date of charter and list of incorporators.
6. The organization of every lodge, church, grange, alliance or other society, with the list of charter members.
7. The advent of each newspaper, its change of ownership or its untimely death.
8. The meetings of the county fair and the farmers' institute, with the programs and the list of officers.
9. A complete roster, alphabetically arranged, of the Brown county boys who enlisted in the war of the rebellion, giving company and regiment.

10. A complete roster of the Brown county boys who enlisted in the Spanish-American war.

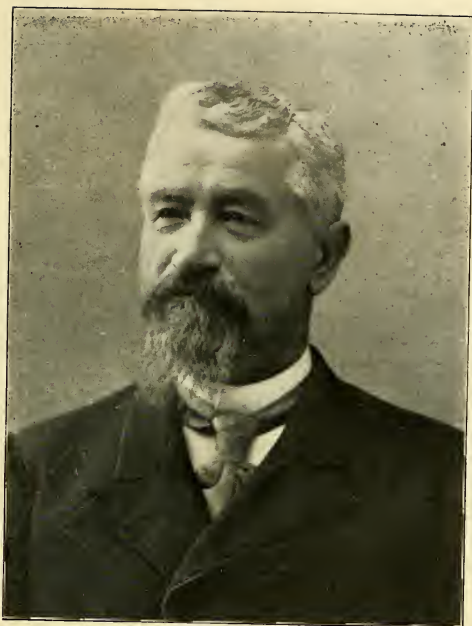

11. An account of the laying of cornerstones of churches and other public buildings.

12. A thorough index.

Part II consists of Biographies. The first chapter is entitled the Bench and the Bar and contains sketches of practically all the lawyers of the county past and present. The second chapter tells the same story for the newspaper boys. Then comes a chapter on the pioneers, who came to the county before the war. This is followed by several chapters telling of the leading citizens of the county who have contributed towards making it the best county in Kansas.

The matter has run from week to week as a sort of continued story in the Democrat and put in book form afterwards. Every effort has been made to get dates, names and initials right but some errors have of necessity crept in. These I would be glad to have corrected and will gladly welcome any information and incorporate it in future editions of the book.

Oregon Street, Hiawatha, 1873.

The first house in picture is Dr. Graves residence. The Graham clothing store now takes its place. In the next building J. N. Davis ran a little cigar factory. The ground is now occupied by Mrs. Miner's fine two-story brick. Next door was Hodge's Hardware store. Jas. Falloon had a law office in the front room upstairs, while the rear was occupied by the Odd Fellows' lodge rooms. The Noble building now occupies this ground. The old building has been moved across the track and is now occupied by Lawrence & Culp for a blacksmith shop. Next came the billiard Hall. This was the headquarters for the Hiawatha Social Club and the seat of the beer war two years later. Pottenger's brick now occupies the ground. Eli Allendorf's old stand will be readily recognized. On the corner is the Barnett & Morrill bank building, just completed and the only brick building in the town. Across the street is a little frame shack where W. B. Barnett used to keep store and where Geo. Adams' fine building now stands—Kansas Democrat, Jan. 25, 1900.

ANNALS OF BROWN COUNTY.

"The California trail crossed Brown county. It entered the county on the eastern border, nearly midway north and south, and wound along on the divides, avoiding all streams on account of the difficulties in crossing; passing on the north of Drummond's Branch, crossing the western part of the present site of Hiawatha, then following the divide between the headwaters of the Wolf and Walnut; left the county near the present site of Sabetha. Hundreds of teams and thousands of persons had probably passed over the trail—Morrill's History of Brown County.

APRIL 10. Wm. Gentry and H. C. Gragg settled in Powhattan township. D. M. Lochnane came with them and settled just across the line in Nemaha county.

MAY 11. Thurston Chase and Jas. Gibbons marked claims on Wolf River.

MAY — Wm. and Jas. Metts settled in Hamlin township.

MAY 30. President Pierce signed the Act organizing the territories of Kansas and Nebraska.

JULY 17. Treaty proclaimed with the Kickapoos by which they are to be given 150,000 acres of land between the Delaware reservation and the Great Nemaha. The selection is to be made within six months.

—Treaty proclaimed locating the Sacs and Foxes on the Great Nemaha.

NOVEMBER 2. J. P. Johnson (now a resident of Highland) contracts to survey the base line between Kansas and Nebraska for 108 miles west. The government paid $1,006.32 for this survey. Hon. C. W. Johnson, of Hiawatha, gives the following account of the work:

"J. P. Johnson and C. W. Johnson, William Sugg and a Swiss left St. Louis on the steamer "Polar Star" or "White Cloud" and landed at Fort Leavenworth the 7th of October and camped there two weeks "outfitting," then crossed over to Missouri at Weston and marched to St. Joseph, a small town boasting of 5,000 inhabitants. Kansas City was known as Westport Landing and consisted mostly of a long warehouse and bales of hemp and hogsheads of tobacco and a dash of whiskey, sugar, coffee, salt, etc. Leavenworth had been staked off, perhaps surveyed, three or four weeks before. I remember they were roofing the first real hotel, a two story frame. Shanties, tents and brush camps were abundant. Our party liked the town site, but the commandant at the Fort swore he would wipe them all off in a few days and so we did not invest. After staying a week or two in Oregon, Holt County, we camped on the Missouri side just below the mouth of the Nemaha. An officer from Washington established the line and on November 10th chaining and lining commenced. The line was run across eighteen ranges to the Sixth meridian where Township One of Range One, east and west, lie side by side. The work averaged six miles per day and was concluded on the 29th, and the returning party reached the Missouri river at Iowa Point December 5th. I was official "corner marker" and had two assistants and should have had a team to haul corner stones. I was required to keep a note book with the bearings of each section and township corner, but this amounted to little, as buffalo chips were about the only permanent objects in sight after leaving the Nemaha, Turkey creek and the two Blues. On the return march we camped upon the creek passing John Walters' farm, where the old California Trail crossed it, with little suspicion that a city would grow up within two miles of us. Kansas was then one universal mass of black. The prairies were burned almost entirely and charcoal and cinders and ashes filled the air in high winds and setbled in the deep ravines like snow drifts. The party was deceived as to the quality of the land. Fifty miles from the Missouri river the fire had burned a glaze over the surface that crackled under our feet as if we had been walking on empty egg shells. From Marysville west the land, except in the bottoms, was reported poor and nearly barren. A fault in the very starting of the contracts caused Calhoun to condemn this line. It was run too with Burt's Solar Compass and the work verified by a transit in charge of the late Ira H. Smith. The line was doubly chained and a discrepancy of two inches caused the re-chaining back to the point of last concurrence. Deer were common and turkeys were plenty at the timber belts, where there must have been something to eat, for there was nothing on the black ridges."

NOVEMBER 8. The territory is divided into sixteen election districts by Gov. Reeder. The territory now known as Brown county was in the 14th district.

DECEMBER. During the fall of this year Isaac Swaim and Robert Rhea settled in Walnut township near Carson school house; Jacob Englehart settled in Hiawatha township on the farm now owned by B. F. Partch.

FEBRUARY. The Territorial Legislature creates the county of Browne, named after O. H. Browne, a member of that body, and attaches it to the county of Doniphan. It is bounded as follows: Beginning at the southwest corner of Doniphan county, thence west twenty-four miles, thence south thirty miles, thence east to the west line of Atchison county, thence north to the northwest corner of Atchison County, thence east with said north line of Atchison county to the northwest corner of Doniphan county, thence north with said west line of Doniphan county to the beginning. The mistake in the description is apparent.

—Among the special acts passed by this legislature is one providing for the laying out and establishing of a territorial road from St. Joseph to the town of Marysville. Also to locate and establish a territorial road from Atchison to Marysville. Both these roads lay across Browne county.

MARCH 13. Sol McCall and L. Ashby settle in Irving township.

APRIL 3. E. R. Cornelison settles on Walnut creek in Padonia township.

DECEMBER. Among the settlers this year are A. B. Anderson, supposed to be the first settler in Washington township, and Wm. Nash and Moses Proctor, supposed to be the first settlers in Mission township. Nash died sometime in the fall, probably the first settler to die in the county.

—Religious services were held this year by Rev. Allspaugh, of the M. E. church, in the grove near John Belks. These were undoubtedly the first services of the kind ever held in the county.

Breastworks were thrown up at Plymouth and a small fort of hewn logs was erected at Lexington.

SEPTEMBER 16. The commissioners of Doniphan create two townships of Browne county. Ranges 15 and 16 form Walnut township and ranges 17 and 18 Mission township. NOVEMBER 17. John W. Smith is allowed $46.00 for assessing Browne county.

DECEMBER 1. E. M. Hubbard, superintendent of the Kickapoo Mission, opens a school for the Indians in the new mission building near Kennekuk. This was the first school taught in the county. Under the treaty with the Kickapoes they were to have a school. The Protestant Board of Foreign Missions made them a proposition to build one, but the proposition was rejected. The board proceeded to build the mission, however, without further consultation with the Indians. The building was to have been completed by July 15, but it was late in the fall before the work was done. The government set aside $3000 from the Indian funds to support the school. The Indians did not take kindly to the arrangements and very few children were allowed to attend. In June, 1859, the board abandoned the school. In 1861 it was opened again under the auspices of the M. E. Church South, the government appropriating $75.00 out of the school fund for each pupil enrolled. In October it was closed again until June 11, 1865, when a day school was opened by Indian Agent Adams, now secretary of the State Historical Society. This day school was kept up until 1871 when the building was torn down and the material used in the new school building on the Diminished Reserve.

DECEMBER 26. M. C. Willis is commissioned as a justice of the peace.

FEBRUARY 14. The legislature detaches Browne county from Doniphan, locates the temporary county seat at Claytonville; provides for the election of three commissioners to locate the permanent county seat, and provides that the legislature shall elect a probate judge, sheriff and two commissioners for the county who shall hold office until the general election in October, 1857. Geo. E. Clayton was chosen as probate judge, Henry Smith and D. M. Lochnane as commissioners and Pettus Thompson as sheriff. S. land office.

—The county treasurer is authorized to borrow all school monies paid in at the rate of 15 per cent. per annum for county purposes.

We set to work at once and finished the house that spring, and soon after the house was in readiness to occupy my father opened a subscription school. I have no dates to refer to and cannot tell when the school opened or when it closed, but my impression is that it was taught for three months, probably beginning in May or June. My impression is that it was the first school in the county. I remember that there was nothing on the Hiawatha town-site except a frame building which was used by Seth Barnum as a hotel."

There are at present no less than six towns aspiring to this honor and all of them are bound to be the chosen place. We know this, for we have been told so. 1861.

JANUARY.—The last train is run over the underground railway. Wm. H. Jones, of Hiawatha, known as Abolition Jones, went to Atchison after a load of aid for the Brown County sufferers. S. C. Pomeroy, afterwards a U. S. Senator, had charge of the distribution of the aid. Knowing that Mr. Jones had assisted in running negroes through to Nebraska he informed him that Col. Ege, of Doniphan County, had sold a slave woman and that she was then in Atchison at one of the hotels. That night Pomeroy and Jones stole the woman and putting her in a carriage had her taken to the home of I. N. Seaman in Locknane township. Mr. Seaman passed her on the next night to Mr. Wm. Drakes, near Hiawatha, who in turn sent her to the home of Ben Watkins. Jones was suspected by the Pro Slavery people and his movements were watched. The affair created a great excitement, especially at Hiawatha, on account of Jones' supposed connection with it and it was feared the Pro-slavery people would raid the town. A meeting was called to discuss the matter and the messenger who rode over the country notifying the people to come said that if they could prove that Jones stole the nigger they would hang him. That day Jones took J. K. Klinefelter into his confidence and asked him to help get the woman out of the country. Klinefelter readily assented. He ran his wagon into a barn and letting George Selleg and J. E. Bowers (afterwards sheriff) into the secret the three fitted it up with a cover. As soon as it was dark the team was hitched up and the three men started out. At the southwest corner of the townsite Mr. Jones met them and whispered to them where the woman could be found. The three drove to Ben Watkins and taking the woman into the wagon started across the icy prairies to Pawnee City, which place they reached about daylight, and turned their charge over to a Quaker family to whom they had been directed. The party staid at Pawnee City that day and night. They reached Hiawatha after nightfall the next day and their part in the drama was never suspected.

Mr. Jones, after directing the party where to find the woman, went to the indignation meeting. The meeting organized by the election of Samuel A. Kingman as chairman. Witnesses were sworn and all who were supposed to know anything about the matter were questioned, but nothing could be discovered. Jones was called upon for a speech and responded with a red hot roast of the meeting and its participants. Finally E. N. Morrill arose and presented a set of resolutions to the effect that the people of Hiawatha were law abiding and that they wanted the people of the border to know that they did not countenance nigger stealing. These passed and the meeting dissolved.

in the three years regiment. The Guards on their homeward march had a great deal of sport. They hoisted the Stars and Stripes over a secession store at Mt. Pleasant, Atchison county, and almost frightened the proprietor out of his wits. One of the officers became un subordinate and hurled stones into the ranks. He was ordered under arrest, but he took to his heels and was caught after a chase of about a mile, placed under guard, and in this way brought home."—Kansas Chief.

OCTOBER 11. Gov. Chas. Robinson issues a pardon for B. L. Rider of Brown county, charged with having committed an assault upon A. R. Clarke. This is the first time the pardoning power was used in this county.

An interesting story is connected with this pardon. One morning all of the leading citizens of Hiawatha arose from their beds to find anonymous letters beneath their doors. Each of these letters recited that State Treasurer H. R. Dutton, who was a resident of Hiawatha had been unduly intimate with the wives of the citizens. At least thirty of these letters were received and before night the husbands got together and went to comparing notes. It was finally determined that a certain man who was known as the implacable enemy of Treasurer Dutton had written all of them, and, without further ado, Mr. Rider, who was among those whose wives had been accused, took a shotgun and went gunning for the suspected man. Coming upon him on the main street, Mr. Rider poured a load of shot into him which inflicted some greivous wounds, but did not cause death. A few days later Judge Kingman proceeded to the state capital, laid the case before Governor Robinson, and procured the pardon which was held against the time when Mr. Rider should be arraigned in court. Judge Horton says that he was puzzled for a day or two to know what to do about the matter. It did not appear to him that a man could be pardoned for a crime of which he had not been convicted, but he finally concluded that it was according to Hoyle, and so discharged the prisoner.—Kansas City Journal, July 12, '97.

Secretary of State Lawrence certified that the votes of those in the service were cast as follows:—Probate Judge, E. A. Spooner 41; District Clerk, J. G. Kelsey 5; County Atty, B. F. Killey 5; County Superintendent, N. Hanson 7; Surveyor, I. H. Smith 2

The vote for Parrott represented the Anti Lane strength in the Republican party.

THE DEMOCRAT enjoyed a visit this week from Armstrong Martin, of Powhattan township Mr. Martin probably holds the record of being a Democrat in Brown county more years than any other man. He came here a Democrat in 1858 and he has always held to the faith through evil as well as good report. In 1864 the Republicans gave it out cold that the vote in this county must be unanimous for Lincoln and that no McClellan men would be allowed to vote. There were a number of Democrats in the county, but the feeling was so strong that they were either kept away from the polls or coerced into voting the Republican ticket and Mr. Martin was warned by his friends not to attempt to vote. The polling place in Locknane was at the residence of J. S. Tyler and the room was full of people when Mr. Martin arrived. There were no printed Democratic tickets and Mr. Martin began to write one. While he was writing there was an uproar in the room and the opinion was freely expressed that he ought to be hung. That he was a rebel, a copperhead, a traitor and all the other choice epithets that the stay at home patriots were so glib in using were hurled at him. Henry Monroe, now an honored citizen of Fairview, was one of the election judges and when Mr. Martin had finished writing his ticket he said to him, "I would like to know whether this is a free country or not and whether a man can vote as he pleases or whether he must vote according to orders?" Mr. Monroe replied, "You can vote as you please." Then said Mr. Martin, "I want to vote for Geo. B. McClellan" and he passed in his ticket. Robert Rhea then spoke up and said, "So do I and I wish you would write me a ticket." This Mr. Armstrong did and so two votes were recorded for McClellan in Locknane precinct. At the Claytounville precinct Thomas Armstrong also wrote and voted a McClellan ticket making three votes in the county.—Kansas Democrat June 17, 1897.

DECEMBER 1. The Union Sentinel notes the fact that A. P. Browning has brought into the county two full blooded Chester White pigs and that Capt. Morrill has brought in a full blooded Durham bull and a cow, and three Cashamere goats, and commends these gentlemen for their efforts to improve the live stock of the county.

DECEMBER —. Col. E. Bierer begins the practice of law in Hiawatha.

DECEMBER 29. Captain Morrill informs us that he has written to one of the most reliable and enterprising dealers in seeds in the east, enquiring what the prospects are of obtaining Osage Orange seed, and at what rates. The intention is to secure 100 or 200 pounds at the lowest possible price, and sell it for cost for introduction in the county. It is hoped that the best article can be secured and brought here in so large a quantity, at from $1.00 to $2.00 per pound. The Captain has an idea that he can afford to sow for himself 20 to 25 pounds next season. Osage Orange is the kind of a fence for this country.—Union Sentinel.

JANUARY 1. Commissioners meeting. Ordered "That license for dram shop be established at $75." "Ordered that the petition of H. M. Robinson and seventy-seven others for a license to be granted to Conrod Meisenheimer to sell liquor be granted and license be issued on payment of established fees."

—"Ordered that Ira J. Lacock be authorized to sell the state bonds due the county at a discount not exceeding ten per cent. and apply the proceeds on the payment of delinquent state tax due from Brown county."

FEBRUARY 3. Joint school district No. 4, Brown and Nemaha, is organized by Superintendent Noah Hanson. The first officers are Rogers O. Mera, director, Austin McQuad, clerk, Thos. Daily, treasurer. By change of county lines in 1868 this district was thrown wholly outside the county.

FEBRUARY 9. An effort was made to put through the Legislature a bill granting the 500,000 acres of land given by the General Government to the state, to railroad companies, one-third to go to a road run through the northern tier of counties. The bill passed the Senate. Among those who opposed it in the House was Ira J. Lacock of the 11th district. When this became known at Hiawatha W. B. Barnett and A. J. Sellegg were appointed a committee to go to Topeka and present to Mr. Lacock a document signed by a number of citizens expressing dissatisfaction with his course and asking him to about face or give up his seat. The committee did not meet with a warm reception and on their return an indignation meeting was called at the court house. J. G. Kelsey was called to the chair and E. N. Morrill was chosen secretary. Speeches were made by W. B. Barnett, A. J. Sellegg, W. H. Jones, H. P. Stebbins, B. F. Killey, J. G. Kelsey and Col. E. Bierer, after which the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, that Hon. I. J. Lacock, Representative from this district, by his base betrayal of our interests, and gross violation of his pledges, has forfeited our confidence and respect, is no longer worthy to represent us, and is requested to resign his seat in the Legislature.

2. That we cordially approve of the course of Hon. Samuel Speer, State Senator, and Hon. C. E. Parker, Representative from the 12th district, in supporting the railroad bill.

3. That Messers W. B. Barnett and A. J. Sellegg are entitled to our thanks for their services at Topeka.

FEBRUARY 12. Ira J. Lacock resigns his seat in the Legislature. Twenty-seven members of the Legislature sign the following letter to him:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, Topeka, Feb. 12, 1866.

Hon. Ira J. Lacock:

SIR:—The undersigned have heard with regret of your determination to resign your seat as a member of the Legislature, and that such a course has been adopted by you on the request made by your constituents to resign or vote for the appropriation of the 500,000 acres of land to certain mythical railroads, donated to the State, and by the Constitution, which you took a solemn oath to support, dedicated sacredly to the common school fund by Section 3, Article V, of that instrument.

We appreciate the manhood of him who has the courage to resign office and honors rather than do wrong—rather than violate his oath of office; and we beg leave to assure you that in our judgment the courts will (in case the fraud is perpetrated) vindicate the integrity of the Constitution, and an outraged and insulted people duly recognize your manhood and courage, while those who asked that you violate the Constitution of the State, will hang their heads in shame, and those who seek to make personal profit and merchandise out of the school fund of our State, will be consigned by an outraged people to oblivion, and only live in the infamy their acts attempted to legalize.

With the highest regard for your personality, and with the conviction that you will be fully vindicated by an honest, though at present mistaken constituency, we have the honor to be your obedient servants,

FEBRUARY 20. Ira J. Lacock having resigned his seat in the Legislature publishes a defense of his action in the Railroad matter in the Union Sentinel. He says: "The people of Kansas will be true to themselves. They have said once, and with almost entire unanimity at the ballot box, that they desire these 500,000 acres of land to be forever held sacred to the school fund for the common schools. They have placed it in the Constitution. I am as much in favor of building railroads as any man but I want to do it lawfully and honestly and not appropriate the property of the children of Kansas for that purpose."

FEBRUARY 26. Joint school district No. 1, in Atchison and Brown counties is authorized to issue three thousand dollars worth of bonds for the purpose of building a school house and for furnishing material therefor. This is the first authority given to issue bonds in Brown county.

Mens' natural rights of person are his right to exist and to enjoy his existence and the right to exercise those physical and mental faculties with which nature has endowed him. Mans' rights in relations to things produced by the exercise of his personal endowments and his right to participate in those bounties which nature has equally given to all. Right as relates to action is that principle of equality which teaches man to do to others as he would that others should do to him. Those acts are naturally, politically and morally right, which may be done by all without injury to any. Therefore we vow.

First. That, while we approve and commend the good accomplished by the old political parties, we believe their mission to be fulfilled, and judging of the future by the past, with respect to pledges made and being made, for greatly needed reforms, we declare, our entire want of confidence in the power of said parties under the leadership of bad and designing men to meet the demands of present exigences, and to restore an honest and efficient management of public affairs.

Second. That he is a good paymaster who pays when the work is done, and we regard it as a political abomination, that the 336 Congressmen elected should now, and since March last, be drawing $625 a month from the public treasury, long before Congress sits, before they are sworn in, and before they know they will be sworn in at all; and we favor the certain repeal of the salary grab statutes and back pay iniquity.

Third. That we denounce in unqualified terms the act of Congress increasing their pay commonly known as the salary grab and pledge ourselves not to vote for, nor support any man for office who voted for the bill, or accepted the unjust pay.

Fourth. The president of the United States in signing the bill by which the tax-payers are robbed of millions, putting $100,000 in his own pocket, has evinced a morbid avarice unparalleled in the history of the country.

Fifth. That agriculture is the principle basis of wealth and prosperity in this country, therefore, we believe, that the farmers should be represented in every branch of our government, and that we pledge ourselves to support for office men who are interested in advancing the great agricultural interests of the nation, and of the laboring classes generally.

Sixth. That we are opposed to all future grants of land, to railroads or other corporations except for educational purposes, and believe that the public domain should be held sacred to actual settlers; and we are in favor of a law by which every honorably discharged soldier or his heirs may use such discharge in any government land office, in full payment for a quarter section of unappropriated public land.

Seventh. That we believe that all men are entitled to the same political and civil rights, and that all laws, state and national, should be made and administered, so as to secure to all citizens, without regard to nationality, color, creed or occupation the same rights before the law.

Eighth. That many of our public officers are now receiving enormous salaries for their services disproportionate to the rewards of labor in the industrial pursuits of the people, tending to habits of extravagance at variance with Republican simplicity, increasing the burden of taxation, and creating an aristocracy which will sooner or later undermine the liberties of the people; and we demand a reform in that direction.

Ninth. That we demand of candidates to pledge themselves to support and enforce the principles herein enumerated to the best of their ability and that our representative be instructed to use his influence, and vote for the repeal of the law exempting mortgages from taxation.

MARCH 2. The Hiawatha Dispatch says:

"On last Monday when the westward bound way freight arrived, about 3 P. M., Sheriff Rokes and Deputy Woodmansee appeared at the depot and, with attachment papers, calling for a large sum of money due the county for taxes on the road. The engine having been detached from the train and ran out on the side track, these two officers boarded her and announced that they had papers for her detention and therefore desired to take her in charge.

but while some parlying was going on one of the railroad men telegraphed to St. Joseph for directions what to do. The answer came "go" so the on engineer asked permission to use the engine in removing the train from the main to the side track, which was granted by the officers (but for no other purpose) so the engine, with officers aboard, steamed around, hooked onto the train, blew off brakes and with a sudden bound dashed off up the road with unusual speed, and our sheriff still on board. When a short distance beyond Hamlin, the next station, the train slackened up for them to get off the train and they done so, and returned here after dark, having to travel some nine or ten miles. The next day Sheriff Rokes went up to Hamlin to catch the engineer on his down run and took our friend D. K. Snively along to run the engine to Hiawatha for him. She came; no she went; well anyway she passed Hamlin under full sail. The sheriff and Mr. Snively came home by land. In the meantime, Deputy Sheriff Woodmansee, not to be out-done by an engineer in that way, determined that he would be on hand at the depot (on time) and if Rokes hadn't that engine in tow when she arrived at the depot, then he would naturally go for it without fooling. So he makes for the depot, (many a slip twixt the cup and the lip) but when the deputy got down to about the City hotel, yonder she comes, perfectly on the wing, acknowledged Hiawatha as a flag station and swung past. There is no doubt that these officers done their best, to accomplish the seizure and detention of the engine, but the railroad fellows were too many for them.

Later—A compromise is effected which guarantees fifteen cars on the side track at Hamlin for the sheriff today, and the sheriff's sale will be taken out after this issue."

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty Providence in His inscrutable wisdom to withhold from us a pteuous yield in response to our labors in the cultivation of the soil, and many of our fellow Patrons of Husbandry are rendered thereby destitute of the necessary seed for planting and feed for stock wherewith to enable them to successfully cultivate another crop the ensuing season now therefore be it

Resolved, That reposing especial and implicit confidence in the intelligence and integrity of Brother Geo. E. Clayton, our worthy secretary, we do hereby commission him as traveling agent for our Grange, to represent our necessities and solicit aid for our destitute, with discretionary powers as to the route taken and the kind of supplies collected and shipped.

Prairie View Grange decides to act in conjunction with Claytonville Grange and endorses their action and agent.

FEBRUARY 3. At a meeting of the citizens of Prairie View for the purpose of ascertaining whether there were any in the vicinity needing aid the following resolution offered by E. Harrington, was passed:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that the inhabitants of Prairie View can and will take care of their own destitute, if they have any, and do not ask for outside aid.

Claytonville, Kansas, March 1, 1875.

WHEREAS, The Kansas State Grange executive committee Patrons of Husbandry upon application of subordinate Granges No. 211 and 218, through their agent, Brother G. E. Clayton, for a recognition of a right of the Patrons of Brown county to a proportioned share of aid donated to the State and pro rate of free freights as provided by the State Legislature, and

WHEREAS, such recognition has been granted and said benefits of free freights guaranteed when the Patrons of said county shall have appointed a relief agent for the whole county. Now this is to notify the "good" and "true" Patrons of Brown county to meet in convention at the court house in Hiawatha on the 6th day of March, 1875, at the hour of 10 o'clock, a. m., for the purpose of electing said relief agent.

W. T. ERWIN, Master, Prairie View Grange, No. 218.

HENRY L. BRADLEY, Master, Claytonville Grange, No. 211.

MARCH 3. All public highways that have been laid out and opened in the county, except such as have been vacated, are legalized by the legislature.

MARCH 6. Patron's convention in Hiawatha. Pursuant to call the Patrons of Brown county met in convention for the purpose of electing a relief agent for Brown county. Geo. E. Clayton called the meeting to order and J. A. Jeffries was elected chairman, and J. T. Richardson secretary. Geo. E. Clayton explained the object of the meeting and offered the following resolutions which were adopted.

Resolved, That whereas the Kansas State Grange P. of H. executive committee has recognized Brown county as among the number which should be aided, and which should have pro rate the advantages of the appropriated freight fund, provided by the Kansas State Legislature, when the Patrons of said county shall have elected a relief agent, now therefore be it

Resolved, That we the patrons of Brown county, here assembled in response to a call for that purpose, do now proceed to the election of a relief agent; also a county relief executive committee, under whose supervision and control said agent shall act and to whom he shall report at such times and places as may be designated by said committee.

MARCH 18. "Below is the number in each township who have applied for rations and clothing to be furnished by the government: Powhattan, 26; Padonia, 2; Robinson, 7; Hamlin, 18; Walnut, 30; Hiawatha, 7; Mission, none; Irving, none. It is interesting to go over to the county clerk's office and read over the names of those who have applied for army clothing and for rations until July and August. Especially is it interesting to look over the Walnut list of thirty. Who would have thought that wealthy township was in such a condition. We are glad to be able to congratulate Mission and Irving township. They report being able to take care of themselves. Padonia is also to be congratulated. What a military appearance our county will present in a few weeks. Eighty-nine of her sons clad in cavalry yellow striped blue, faring sumptuously every day on army beans and hard tack."—Hiawatha Dispatch.

AUGUST 14. Lieutenant Randall, of the regular army commenced issuing rations to the destitute of Brown county. The Advocate says: "Lieutenant Randall doubtless thought there were more than six of us. The days were last Saturday and Monday when Bacon was plentiful. Twelve thousand were distributed to 520 persons. Of this number there were perhaps two-fifths who really needed something to eat; the other three-fifths took the oath because they could, finding it much easier to swear it out than to sweat it out. We are of the opinion that the number of destitute in Brown county one week ago, or to-day is very small indeed. There was a time in April and May, and before and after when there were those in the county who were in actual destitute and hungry circumstances; but even then the complaint was not so much in favor of the people as of work animals and seed. * * * * * When men who live in fine houses, drive sleek teams, have a good prospect for corn and lots of stock to eat it, and if no money, have credit, walk up to the clerk's office and confront a United States officer with the oath that they are scrub paupers, we confess ignorance as to what constitutes thoroughbreds. The most deserving men did not come to town Saturday, they said when their neighbors, who were well-to-do farmers, whose daughters had done real well in marrying not six months ago, could cheek their way to sow belly it shamed them and they were content to forage for roasting ears, potatoes, peas, beans, etc."

Proposition No. 1, Provided for biennial sessions of the Legislature.

Proposition No. 2, Provided for biennial appropriations for State purposes.

Proposition No. 3, Provided for the election of Representatives for two years and Senators for four years.

DECEMBER 25. The Hiawatha Beer club is raided. The following history of the rise and fall of this celebrated club is condensed from an article written by A. R. May for Major Morrill's history of Brown county:

On the 7th day of October, 1875, the Hiawatha club was organized. Its purpose, as stated in the articles of agreement was "to form and arrange a club for the purpose of social enjoyment, but its real purpose was to form a beer club and to run a saloon contrary to law. The club began business on the east half of lot 91, Oregon street, with Fred W. Rohl and Henry Stauff in charge. The members would first buy tickets and then exchange their tickets for drinks seeking in this way to evade the law against selling liquor.

Eight days after the organization, Mayor H. J. Aten issued his written order to City Marshal Woodmansee to close up the place, which was done. The place was opened up again and the marshal was forcibly ejected by Rohl and Stauff. He then summoned Thos. McLaughlin, J. K. Klinfelter and G. E. Selleg as a posse and broke down the door, ejected the occupants and locked the building. Rohl at once swore out a warrant against the marshal and his posse charging them with riot. The case was tried before Justice of the Peace W. J. Richardson. The state was represented by County Attorney F. M. Keith assisted by Jas. Falloon. The prisoners were defended by City Attorney A. R. May assisted by Ira J. Lacock and C. E. Berry. The defendants were acquitted and the costs of the case taxed up to the complaining witness, Fred W. Rohl.

In the mean time Rohl and Stauff had taken possession of their building again and were defying the authorities to interfere with their business. They were arrested on the 18th of November and convicted of violating the city ordinance in regard to selling liquor and were fined $50 each. This case they promptly appealed to the district court. Again on the 27th they were arrested charged with keeping and maintaining a common public nuisance. They were convicted on this charge in the police court and the premises adjudged a nuisance and ordered to be abated. This case was also appealed and the business went right on as before.

On the 15th of December, Mayor Aten issued his writ to the city marshal ordering him to abate the nuisance. The marshal made several ineffectual efforts to enforce the writ. Rohl and Stauff met him each time with drawn revolvers and threatened that they would shoot him if he attempted to interfere with their business. The marshal then summoned S. P. Gaskill, A. A. Holmes, R. C. Chase, Geo. D. Blair, W. S. Bristol, J. C. Thomas, A. McLaughlin, B. F. Partch, Wm. Clement, J. K. Klinefelter, A. G. Speer, Thurston Chase, L. S. Herbert, A. Rokes, Rev. C. L. Shackelford and others, about twenty in all, as a posse.

Early on the morning of December 25th, the posse repaired to the saloon, armed with revolvers, shot guns, and sabers and forcibly entered the building and ejected Stauff who showed fight. Rohl retreated in disorder. The posse emptied all the liquor found in the establishment, took possession of the books and papers of the club, and barricaded the doors with the billiard tables and furniture. The supporters of the club gathered in from the city and country and although many threats were made no actual attempt was made to retake the building. The marshal and his posse held possession of the building until an injunction was obtained from the district court restraining Rohl and Stauff from interfering with the building.

This ended the Hiawatha Beer club, but Rohl and Stauff still had troubles of their own to contend with. Stauff brought suit against Marshal Woodmansee for $500 damages for ejecting him from the building. Rohl and Stauff each brought suits against H. J. Aten, G. T. Woodmansee, W. S. Bristol, S. R. Gaskill, R. C. Chase, A. A. Holmes, Wm. Clement and J. C. Thomas for $5,000 damages to their person and feelings. Stauff and one, Murray Stanley were arrested for threatening to assault R. C. Chase, but the case was not tried. Stauff also swore out warrants for S. P. Gaskill, W. S. Bristol, A. A. Holmes, J. C. Thomas, A. McLaughlin, B. F. Partch, G. T. Woodmansee, Geo. M. Blair, Wm. Clement, J. K. Klinefelter, R. C. Chase, A. G. Speer, Thurston Chase, L. S. Herbert, A. Rokes, and Rev. C. L. Schackelford, charging them with assault and battery. The cases were heard before Justice of the Peace Geo. W. Seaman and the information quashed.

In May 1876, Rohl and Stauff gave themselves up to the sheriff announcing that they could not pay their fines. They were confined in the city calaboose which was broken into by their friends one night and the prisoners liberated. The calaboose was repaired and the prisoners put back again. Rev. Shackelford and Rev. Liggett then interested themselves in the matter and brought about a settlement by which all prosecutions and suits were dismissed, and the fines remitted by the council. Rohl and Stauff agreeing to pay all costs. The money to pay the costs was then raised by subscription the temperance people furnishing most of the funds.

The citizens of the several counties of Atchison, Doniphan, Brown and Nemaha, comprising the Second Judicial district of the State of Kansas, in mass convention assembled, to consider the question of selecting a candidate for district judge, to be voted for at the ensuing election, and being of both political parties do hereby recognize and affirm the following cordial principles to govern us in our actions.

First. That we deem the judicial office wholly non-political in its character, and the selection of a candidate therefore, should be made wholly with regard to the fitness, ability and learning of the person to be selected and wholly independent of political or personal consideration. That the office should be unsolicited and that the incumbent should be placed in office by the people of his district without pledges, promises or solicitations on his part to the end that justice may be impartially administered and the decisions made from the bench, challenge the confidence and respect of the communities in which they are made, and of the parties litigant themselves. That it is only in this way that respect for law can be maintained, and disorder and misuse prevented. That a judge upon the bench should be so placed there by the people, that he may act independently, decide without fear or favor, and know in his judicial capacity no friend and no enemy, no party, and creed.

Second. That we regard as most unfortunate, the nomination and election of any candidate who procures his place after and through a bitter personal and partisan contest, with pledges made to his advocates and supporters, and with friends to reward and enemies to punish in and through his office after he shall have secured it. Surely such a person can not be a safe and suitable representative to our judicial system; can not maintain and uphold the law, or administer it to public satisfaction, or in a manner to meet the confidence of the public. We recognize and deprecate the fact that such is the present condition of our judicial district, and of the nominee now before the people and we are moved thereby, without unkindness or malice towards anyone, as a sacred duty we owe ourselves and the citizens of this district to select and place in nomination another, and, as we believe, a more suitable candidate for the office referred to.

Third We hereby covenant and agree that the election of the candidate so selected by us shall in no manner be regarded as the triumph of any political party, or as the expression of our opinion upon any political question, but solely and purely are expression of our preference for the person selected to perform properly the duties pertaining to this responsible office.

Resolved, That the platform adopted by the national convention held at Cincinnati, Ohio., June 15, 1876, embodies the principles of the Republican party, and that these principles so long as adhered to are the main pillars of support of this, "the best government on earth," and command the confidence and adherence of the American people.

Resolved, That in the recent long, arduous and painful struggle in the election of the Patriot, Soldier, and Statesman Rutherford B. Hayes to the presidency of the United States; this nation has abundant cause for rejoicing.

Resolved, That so long as the political parties in opposition to the National Republican party are actuated by the principles enunciated by them, not only in their political platforms, but through the utterances of their press, public men and political leaders, they are unworthy of the confidence and countenance of a liberty loving people, and their political positions are repugnant to all the principles embodied in the corner stone of our liberties, the Declaration of Independence.

Resolved, That the character and deportment of President Hayes during the long interval in arriving at the final result of said election, has been such as to command the respect and admiration of every unbiased citizen, and further that his deportment during this time presents an impressive contrast with that of the Democratic candidate for the Presidency.

Resolved, That in the political turmoil just passed the character and bearing of the Republican party has been pacific, law-abiding and even unnecessarily yielding, forming a striking contrast with that of the Democratic party, which has been rebellious, seditious, threatening and war-like.

Resolved, That the counting of the electoral votes from several contested states of the Union has been preformed by a commission created for that special purpose, the representatives of both parties, and supported almost unanimously by the two parties, it is the duty of all to acquiesce in their decision and any language of a rebellious or seditious character by whomsoever uttered in consequence of said decision should be rebuked and the offender stigmatized as a person destitute of any moral obligation.

Resolved, That Ex-President Grant by his political foresight, good judgment, firmness and sense of right has brought the nation through one of the darkest hours of peril. When anarchy threatened the dismemberment of the Union he stood ready with uplifted hand to ward off the blow—unconquerable in war as unsurpassed in peace, he retires from the nation's first position of trust casting his mantle upon a successor who, in the hopes of the people, will preserve it untarnished, and that we believe the future historian will do him the justice which now being so tardily accorded him.

Erwin, of Mission, for secretary, and H. B. Coryell, James Mills and A. Turner as a committee on resolutions which report was adopted.

The committee on resolutions reported the following which were adopted:

Resolved, First, That as honest citizens of Brown county, we view with regret and shame the proceedings of the so-called county convention held at Hiawatha on the 28th of September, 1878, as a fraud and its proceedings an insult to the wishes of the people of the county. That its candidates were really nominated before the convention met at the instigation and by the instigation and by the chicanery of a ring of political tricksters in and about Hiawatha.

Resolved, Second, That representing the whole people of Brown county we offer to them a ticket composed of the better class of its citizens of irreproachable character and whose ability and fitness for the various offices are well known.

WHEREAS, The state convention of the Germans of Kansas did, at their meeting at Topeka, disenthral themselves from the Republican yoke of bondage under which they have suffered in the years of the past, and declared that the Germans of Kansas were independent enough to choose good men without reference to old party affiliations, thereby be it

Resolved, Third, That we hail this harbinger of patriotism on the part of the German-Americans of the state, and extend to them the hand of good fellowship and fraternal regard.

Resolved, Fourth. That we endorse the following platform viz:

That as usury is the means whereby accumulated capital robs industry, it should be prohibited by law, and the government should issue money directly to the people without the intervention of banking corporations.

That the claims of humanity should be considered first, and the claims of mere property second; that labor is the active and productive capital of the country, and should be protected and fostered rather than idle money.

That we emphatically condemn the unfair discrimination made between the wages paid the laboring men and the fees and salaries of office holders and professional men.

That as congress has the sole power to coin money and regulate the value thereof under the constitution, it should also exercise the sole power to provide a paper currency to be used as money. That such money be issued in sufficient volume as may be necessary for the commercial transactions of business, at all times, and to stimulate enterprise, secure a fair recompense to labor and its products, and promote a due development of the vast agricultural, mineral, and mechanical resources of the country.

That we favor the unconditional repeal of the resumption act of 1875; the full re-monetization of silver, the removal of all restrictions on its coinage, placing it on an equal footing with gold; the repeal of the National banking law; the retirement of National bank notes and the substitution of treasury notes, commonly called Greenbacks, in their place; said notes to be made a legal tender for all purposes.

That we are opposed to selling the homes of the people, or dooming them to serfdom, for the purpose of securing the payment of fraudulent bonds.

That we demand the enactment of such laws as will permit a reasonable time for the redemption of property sold under execution

That each sex shall receive equal pay for equal work.

That an income tax be established on all incomes exceeding one thousand dollars a year,

That as all property is equally protected by the government, therefore each class of property (including bonds) should bear its just portion of tax

That we demand the improvement of the navigable rivers of the United States, and that the general government shall control all channels of domestic commerce, and prevent the robbery of the people by transportation companies and corporations.

That we are opposed to granting our public lands to corporations, and any further subsidies of money or public credit.

That equivalent for equivalent is the natural law for exchange, and we are equally hostile to any form of communism which seeks to appropriate the wealth of others without giving an equivalent, whether it be at once and with violence, or gradually at the rate of ten and twenty per cent per year; both modes are violations of moral law and should be abolished.

S. W. Wade moved that candidates be required to come forward and state that they had cut loose from all other parties except the Greenback party. Adopted.

NOVEMBER 6. Republican ratification meeting at Morrill, T. J. Marion is chairman and A. F. Robinson, secretary. The township central committee consisting of T. J. Elliott, A. Cotrell, and Niram Curtis were instructed to communicate the following demands and resolutions.

Believing the menace of a solid south and its heresy of states rights is at an end, that the incoming administration will see that all men will be protected in the elective franchise, if it requires bayonets and lots of them, now as Republicans desiring an honest, moral and effective rule, we demand measures and action to the end of thorough reform, and respectfully submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we as Republicans object to the use of money in politics.

Resolved, That we object to the principle that to the victors belong the spoils.

Resolved, That we endorse the civil service reform and demand its adoption.

Resolved, That we object to rings and the present system of trading in delegates.

Resolved, That we prefer honesty and defeat to victory and dishonor and decidedly object to local brigadier rule.

WHEREAS, The railroad companies of this county and State have not been under any lawful restraint as regards their charges for the carrying of freight and passengers and in consequence of which they have in this county, shown unjust discrimination of the loading of grain requiring all grain to pass through the grain ware houses and not permitting more than two dealers to do business at any one point, and

WHEREAS, The charges for the transportation of freight to and from points of market is and has been of such nature as to make the payment very burdensome and unbearable.

Resolved, We feel that the legislature of this State owe to the people, their constituents, protection from the aforesaid oppression.

Resolved, First. That we, citizens of Brown county, recognizing the great evil of intemperance both morally and economically pledge ourselves anew to more earnest work for temperance and reform.

Second. That we believe heartily in the idea of constitutional prohibition and will labor to secure its realization.

Third. That we believe that the constitutional amendment prohibiting the traffic of intoxicating liquors save for excepted purposes, was fairly adopted and that since its adopting, no exigency has arisen justifying its re-submission to the people.

Fourth. That we are in favor of such changes in the existing law as are necessary to carry out more fully the provisions of the constitutional amendment.

Fifth. That we believe that political parties have not been and cannot be organized and perpetuated on any one-idea basis, therefore we believe that the enactment and enforcement of the requisite temperance legislation must be secured within the lines of political parties as for the time constituted.

Sixth. That we believe in organized work and would recommend county and township organizations requisite to the creation and maintenance of a sound and effective temperance sentiment.

Both were certain of victory when their respective nominations were made and when the ballot was over both were just as certain that they had been sold out. The truth of the matter is the country has been heard from in a manner never before experienced in a Brown county Republican convention. The country people have felt for several years that Hiawatha tried in every convention to put up jobs to beat them out of their share of county offices and they were determined this time to meet here on her own field in a square fight and show her what they could do and they did it."

Resolved, That we thank the Chicago convention for giving us the most progressive, practical and wide awake platform ever presented to the American people by any political organization. It recognizes the rights of labor and the rights of man, and gives us firm and solid ground on which to stand and to march while we make the aggressive campaign of 1884. We also thank our brothers in National convention assembled for obeying the will of the Republican states in giving us for our triumphant standard bearers, Hon James G. Blaine and Gen. Jno. A. Logan, the double headed ticket that fights at both ends, and that can no more be put down by dudes and bolters than a hurricane can be stilled by a penny whistle.

Resolved, That we tender our congratulations to our townsman, Maj. Morrill, for the untiring industry and the complete success which has crowned his labors as a Republican Congressman in a house strongly opposed to his party, and especially for the victory he has obtained in securing justice for the Veteran Union Soldiers. He is a man for whom we can work and vote with pride and honor and we pledge ourselves to give him a rousing majority next November.

Resolved, That it is the wish of this convention that the delegates elected here to-day cast their votes for Col. John A. Martin for Governor. His career as a soldier and his record as a citizen will remove all dissensions from our ranks and grandly inaugurate the second quarter-century of Republican victories in Kansas.

Resolved, That nationally and locally the best thing for the Republicans to do is what the Democrats don't want, and the true men for the Republicans to stand by and support are the men whom the Democrats abuse. And this is our answer to the local lies on our friend and neighbor, E. N. Morrill, the model citizen and stainless patriot.

Miller celebrated his triumph with the following poem entitled.

THE BAR STRANGLED WHANGERS.

O, say, can you see, by the dawn's early streak
 The crowd that last evening attracted attention?
 A candidate mounted with infinite cheek,
 And two score of delegates met in convention?
 A plug hat, white and tall, that gleamed through the hall,
 Proclaimed that the dark horse was out of his stall.
 Spake a voice: "Gentlemen, it stands ten to ten.
 Get ready your ballots for voting again."

O're the street, dimly seen through the leaves of the trees,
 What is that during recess so steadily passes,
 While out in the night, clearly borne by the breeze,
 Sounds popping of corks and the clinking of glasses?
 The delegates slip round the screen for a nip,
 To keep up their spirits, and strengthen their grip.
 Thus cheered and sustained, O, long may they claw
 The air, as they howl for enforcement of law!

And where is the crowd that so vauntingly came To stay there a month but they'd beat Old Sol. Miller,
 And force us to take whom it pleased them to name?
 Only echo makes answer: "Go ask the fool-killer!"
 Scarcely able to keep their eyelids from sleep,
 Down on the hard benches to slumber they creep.
 Anon, with a start from their doze they awoke—
 "It's eleven to nine, and the deadlock is broke!"

O, thus be it ever, when you'en's shall try,
 To tucker out we'uns, by making us sit there!
 We're stickers from Stickville, our name is Eli,
 And sooner or later we manage to git there,
 For triumph we must: when our cause it is just,
 And this be our motto, "We'll make it or bust!"
 So, when you feel frisky, just come down again,
 And give us a racket of ten against ten.

The Democracy in Brown county in convention assembled for the first time under a national democratic administration congratulates the country upon the re-toration of the Democratic party to power by the election of Grover Cleveland for president and Thomas A. Hendricks for vice president of the United States.

2. We hereby re-affirm the principles set forth in the last national and state platform.
3. We endorse the administration of President Cleveland as honest and statesmanlike thus far and predict that when it shall be closed it can be said that it was begun, continued and ended in the interests of the people and to the glory of the country.
4. We condemn all efforts of spoil mongers, camp followers and professional politicians to arbitrarily dispose of federal patronage in this state, deplore attempt to propogate in the public mind a notion that public preferment under Democratic rule depends upon a card of approval from any man or clique, earnestly desire that character, capacity, integrity and devotion to Democracy and not allegiance to cabals of selfish and ambitious place hunters shall be a passport to preferment at the hands of the administration; and congratulate the country that the political bosses have no place in the council of the national executive.
5. The best interests of the country require that the various national offices shall be filled with competent Democrats as rapidly as the best interests of the public service will permit.
6. We declare in favor of temperance by whatever method observation and experience teach us to be most effective and beneficent.
7. We demand an economical administration of county affairs, a fair assessment of property for purposes of taxation and a reduction of taxation to the lowest point.

We, the Republicans of Brown county, in convention assembled, denounce President Cleveland for his shameless abandonment of the principles of Civil Service reform. Yet in the face of this solemn pledge to the American people, before he had been in office three years, he had removed more than eighty-nine per cent of the 100,000 officers under his control. Under this Democratic administration, economy and civil service reform are the merest shams and farces.

We denounce the majority of the ways and means committee for absolutely refusing to hear the representative of the great and noble army of American laborers before they framed their dark lantern bill which is a conspiracy against American labor and industry.

We look with surprise and contempt upon the cowardly surrender of the whole Democratic party of the North, to the insolent and unjust demand of forty or fifty Rebel brigadiers of the South. The senate of the United States has passed a bill to refund to the loyal states the direct tax, without interest, paid in 1861 to suppress the rebellion. This most just measure, fifty rebels refused to accede to and they compelled the whole Democratic party of the north to join them in their scheme to defraud the loyal states of their just dues.

We are most heartily in favor of just and liberal pensions to all of the gray headed veterans that served the republic from total wreck in the dark hours of 1861.

We most heartily approve the policy of the Republican party for the last twenty-five years, which has made the name of America the brightest star in the whole constellation of nations.

We, the Republicans of Brown county, most heartily and earnestly endorse Hon. E. N. Morrill for the manly course he has pursued in Congress and Gov. John A. Martin for the able administration he has given us for the last four years.

We most heartily endorse the speech made by Kansas' brave son, John J. Ingalls, on the dependent pension bill.

On motion of Capt John Schilling a committee of one was appointed from each voting precinct to retire and select delegates for the various conventions. The chair appointed the following committee: John Schilling, S. F. Newlon, J. P. Davis, Chas. Lawrence, Jno. Lawrie, G. M. Wilson, I. P. Winslow, E. Berkley, J. A. Jonas, Jno. Fulton, J. B. Murray, Jno. Cashman, S. E. Erwin, Willard Figley, A. W. Brundige, E. W. Pierce, F. J. Johnson, M. S. Portner, J. S. Van Meter, W. W. Price, Geo. Anderson, J. D. Hazen. J. D. Blair, A. G. Speer, L. L. Merrill, A. F. Moore and J. M. Bell were appointed a committee on resolutions and reported the following which were adopted:

The Republican party of Brown county in the state of Kansas, in the convention assembled through its regularly chosen delegates with great pride and satisfaction, approve of the principles of the party as expressed in all its national conventions, from its organization until the present time.

We declare our loyalty to the Republican party and pledge our earnest and hearty support to the principles enunciated in the platform of the national convention held in Chicago, June 19, 1888 and to the principles expressed in the platform of the state Republican convention held in Topeka, Kansas on the 25th day of July, 1888

We heartily endorse the nomination of Benjamin Harrison, of Indiana and Levi P. Morton, of New York for president and vice president of the United States, as true Americans of great ability, purity of character and most fitting representatives of the Republican party and a free and enlightened people.

We recognize the good judgement of the state Republican convention held at Topeka, July 25, 1888 in selecting for the state ticket men of progressive ideas who are devoted to Republican principles and the progress of our state and the welfare of its people. We recognize their ability and integrity and pledge them our earnest support.

We approve and commend the present state administration as wise, economical and just and we recognize that the officers have been faithful to their trusts and deserving of our highest commendation.

We believe in the protection of American labor and American product and denounce as unwelcome and unpatriotic the attempts to embody in our legislation principles of free trade. Intelligent and prosperous free labor is the cornerstone on which our government is founded and we protest against its being impoverished by competition with the production of underpaid labor of Europe, or degraded by the importation of pauper labor from China or any other portion of the world.

We believe our soldiers and sailors of the Union in the late war placed the nation under a debt of obligation and gratitude which it can never pay, but that it is the duty of the government to discharge its obligations so far as it is possible to do so by granting pensions and establishing homes for all such old soldiers and sailors as are disabled or in want, and we approve the course of our Republican senator and members of congress in voting pensions and urge them to do all in their power to show the nation's appreciation of the old soldiers and sailors' services in the war of the rebellion.

We condemn the actions of President Cleveland in vetoing a vast number of worthy private pension bills and denounce as degrading the dignity of the office which he holds and as insulting the memory of every dead, and slurring the honor of every living soldier and sailor by the manner in which he expresses his false reasoning for his veto.

We arraign the Democratic administration of President Cleveland for having failed to keep the pledges on which it came into power. It promised economy and has been most extravagant in expenditure which has exceeded by $25,000,000 the preceding Republican administration. It promised to reduce the surplus in the treasury, but reversing the rule of previous administrations in using it to pay the debt has permitted the surplus to lie idle and accumulate to the great injury of the business of the country. It charged the Republicans of having 30,000 more office holders for the administration of affairs of the government than was necessary and promised to reduce the number, but instead of reducing the number has increased it 7,000 more in order to satisfy the hungry hoards of office seekers in the Democratic party. It promised to care for and give attention to the disabled soldiers and sailors of the late war and has treated with contemptuous vetos every pension bill against which it could find any shadow of technical objections. It promised to protect the person and property of citizens both at home and abroad and maintain the dignity and honor of the nation, yet in its relation to England, it has shown itself unable to give protection, either to person or property and has permitted our flag to be insulted without proper protest almost in sight of our shores. It promised obedience to civil service reforms and to strictly enforce the law governing the appointment of clerks and officials. It has disregarded that law and destroyed its effect.

Resolved, That we express our highest appreciation and approval and success of the conduct of our United States Senators John J. Ingalls and Preston B. Plumb and that we are in favor of their re-election.

Resolved, Further, that we heartily approve and endorse the work in congress of our esteemed fellow citizen, E. N. Morrill, and that we especially approve and express our satisfaction with his able and untiring effort in serving the best interests of the First Congressional district and we pledge ourselves to work earnestly and cordially for his re-election believing that his majorities can be increased to five thousand.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves not to use any twine, beyond last year's prices, and in every way curtail the amount used.

Resolved, That we hereby declare ourselves in perfect accord and will support the Farmers' Alliance in their resistance to the Twine Combine. In view of the fact that the prices of binding twine have advanced almost beyond where it can be profitably used through the manipulation of speculators, who have cornered the entire sisal and Manilla fibre, we would recommend to our farmers that every practicable expediency be resorted to for the purpose of meeting the emergency, by cutting off the use of twine whenever possible.

We also recommend the following expedients:

Changing binders into harvesters with platforms for hand binding. The curtailing of the small grain output wherever the results for years have been of doubtful profit.

B. F. Partch offered an additional resolution to the effect that the convention express themselves in perfect accord with the Farmers' Alliance.

Isely, Walnut; Robert McGinnis, Powhattan, H. F. Douthart, Mission; James McCalley, Robinson; J. M. Marcum, Irving; A. J. Hill, E. W. Carley, E. F. Sweetland and J. W. Margrave, Hiawatha City.

The following declaration of principles was adopted:

1. The Prohibition party of Brown county in convention this 21st day of September, declares its belief in the sovereignty of God and our dependence on Him for all the blessings of life.

2. That the prohibition of rum is the most important matter pertaining to the welfare of our state and nation.

3. That although we have constitutional and statutory prohibition in Kansas, the law is most shamefully and persistently violated because the party in power positively refuses to elect governors, legislatures and county officers pledged to its faithful enforcement.

4. That we faithfully and with great apprehension realize that the power of the organized rum sellers completely dominates both old parties and reaches even into the prohibition states, commanding them with imperious authority to let our prohibition laws fall into innocuous desuetude.

5. That so evenly are the old parties matched in numbers that should either of them earnestly try to enforce said prohibitory laws the other would triumph in National elections, because the liquor men hold the balance of power therefore it is vain for our prohibition friends in the Republican and Democratic parties to indulge the faintest hope of getting prohibition through them.

That rings, trusts and combinations of greedy capitalists to prevent the free interchange and sale of merchandise and produce between our own people is outrageously wicked toward the great mass of our citizens, and can only be prevented by a new party representing the toiling millions of the country and not controlled by the lordly millionaires. Therefore, we resolve:

1st, That the sale of alcoholic beverages is the greatest enemy to our government and our homes, and we therefore pledge our sacred honor to agitate and pray, vote and pay for the success of the prohibition party.

2nd, That because the Republican party has openly espoused the principle of high license every sincere prohibitionist in it ought to unite with us and every sincere Democrat likewise.

3rd, That the women of Kansas, by accepting and exercising part of their rights through municipal suffrage have demonstrated to all reasonable minds the beneficence of equal suffrage we therefore demand the complete enfranchisement of the women of our state.

4th, That we endorse our national and state platform of 1888.

Resolved, That we will not support for office any one who does not heartily endorse the principles of the Peoples' Party.

Resolved, That no delegate shall be allowed the chance to vote as a proxy for a delegate or delegates not present.

"It was a well conducted convention and made up of some of the most sensible looking men to be found in the county—mostly farmers, excepting the Horton delegation, which was headed by a Mr. John Radford, who is very much of a Knight of Labor. Mr. Weaver, of Hiawatha, is about such a man as Brother Radford, only he can't talk so much. Many of those in the convention, as will be seen by looking over the list of delegates, want office. In fact it is our belief that the party can have no other object, because Republicans and Democrats find nothing so very hard to swallow in the St. Louis platform. Some of those who wanted office the most, however, failed to get it.

There are a number of Republican deserters in the ranks of the People; but then there are still more Democrats—and they will doubtless talk for the Peoples' ticket and vote for the Democratic one."—World.

The Prohibition party of Brown county, Kansas, acknowledges Almighty God as Sovereign maker and Ruler of men, upon whom all men depend for the blessings of life and declares:

That the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages is the great gigantic curse of our race and country and that, until it is suppressed by state and national authority, it is impossible to have pure and righteous government.

That the prohibition of the drink traffic by diverting the immense amount of money now spent for liquor into proper channels of trade would largely increase the demand for bread and meat, manufactured goods and all the necessities of life, thereby giving a greater impetus to business than can be done by any other legislation affecting the infernal business, either restrictive or regulative.

That we endorse our state and National platform.

A. J. Hill, Samuel Detwiler, H. F. Douthart, J. M. Marcum, Jacob Stickels, L. McGinnis and J. H. McCauley are elected a county central committee.

SEPTEMBER 15. Hiawatha votes $10,000 in bonds for water works improvements. There were 264 votes cast for the bonds and 4 against.

SEPTEMBER 16. Democratic Congressional convention at Horton. Dr. Troughtman of Seneca is chairman and Ben. F. Hildebrand and W. K. Wyckoff of Atchison secretaries.

The committee on resolutions reported the following platform which was adopted:

We, the Democracy of the first congressional district in convention assembled at Horton, Kans., Sept., 16, 1890, declare

First—Our continued opposition to all paternalism in government, state or national, as tends to centralization inconsistent with the principles of personal and political freedom, which were the aim of our forefathers and the hope of their posterity.

Second--Whereas, owing to the depreciation in prices of farming products and the insufficiency of currency available for the general population, an intense interest has been aroused in economical questions throughout the thinking population of Kansas, and

Whereas, the vast majority of voters in this state are unalterably opposed to increases in the tariffs on manufactured goods at the bidding of eastern capitalists already in receipt of higher protection than the industries require; and as strongly opposed to demonetization of silver in any guise or form, and

Whereas, The delegations from Kansas, in both houses of congress have betrayed their constituents by voting for bills to increase duties on manufactured goods and thereby to strengthen the monopolies and trusts which are eating the substance of the nation; and voted likewise for the silver bill concocted between John Sherman, the avowed champion of Wall street banks, on one side and the wealthy mine owners on the other, whose effect will be to materially raise the price of bullion without giving the people the silver money they asked for, and

Whereas, These bills were so antagonistic to the western interests that the Kansas delegations had not the hardihood to speak in favor of their policy, though both representatives and senators tamely voted on every occasion against the convictions of their constituents on the most important issues of the session, and

Whereas, the spiritless surrender, body and soul, of Kansas, to a powerful combination of eastern manufacturing and money interests is alike shameful to our intelligence and courage and menacing to our material progress, and

Whereas, Senator Plumb, in debate, declared that the present duties were more than enough in justice to consumers, and yet voted for a bill to increase them and

Whereas, The Atchison Champion, the foremost Republican organ of the district has repeatedly characterized the tariff bills, for which these un-Kansans, and political dishonest servants of the people voted, as outrageous and unjust, and

Whereas, in a congressional election practically the only issues are those which affect the people in national legislation, and

Whereas, the record shows, that if a few western Republicans had voted with the Democrats for just tariffs and free coinage of silver, both objects could have secured therefore, be it

Resolved, that it is with a deep feeling of humiliation, that we, the citizens of Kansas, whose fortunes and happiness are inseparably bound to the welfare of the commonwealth, have viewed the poltroonery of our delegations in both houses of congress; that in national legislation which closely affected the remuneration of all classes in Kansas, receive for their toil and investments, Kansas was counted for financial and industrial politics, originated by Eastern monopolies and calculated to make worse the unequal and unjust absorption of western earnings; that the press of both parties in this state was a unit in expressing public opinion earnest in the demand for a revision of the tariff more favorable to the west and a currency more suited to the needs of the masses in all sections. Every vote of the seven representatives and the two senators was cast at decisive moments for measures denounced in every meeting of any party in Kansas which passed upon the subjects; that these cowardly traitors to their people did not pretend to believe as they voted; that they wore without protest the shackles of caucus while they gave the worthless consent of their tongues to opinions prevalent in their homes; that continuance of that course would unconditionally surrender Kansas to the monopolies of machinery and money which have bought the Quays and Dudleys of the Republican party; that we call upon our fellow citizens of this great state to rebuke the mortifying desertion of our cause in national economic legislation; that the only way to impress the rebuke upon actual events is to vote against nominations of the same ring which controls the present delegations, and that thus alone can Kansas rise the prestige and escape from a condition of economic slavery, which at once impoverishes us and brings us into contempt.

Third, we favor a service pension law as a just recognition by a great and powerful republic of the brave men (now old) who made it possible for the republic to exist to day.

Fourth, We are opposed to the electoral force bill introduced by Lodge of Massachusetts, as an unnecessary interference with the rights of the people to self government; and because we believe the real purpose of the bill was to draw public attention away from the iniquities and injustice of the McKinley bill, and keep up an antagonism between the west and the south.

Fifth, We denounce as unlawful and repulsive to good government the employment in the civil service of the country, of Pinkerton detectives, and demand that the constabulary essential the preservation of the peace and protection of property, shall in all cases be composed of citizens of known probity and patriotism.

The committee on resolutions reported the following which were adopted:

Resolved, That we, the Republicans of Brown county, in convention assembled, once more pledge our belief in Republican principles as declared by the nation and state Republican platforms and we most heartily endorse the positions taken by such party leaders as James G. Blaine and Mr. Speaker Reed.

Resolved, That we approve the national and state administrations and are proud of the record of President Harrison and Lyman U. Humphrey, the soldier candidate, whom we believe has more than proven himself worthy to serve the great prohibition state of Kansas as governor for the second time.

Resolved, That in Senator John J. Ingalls Kansas has a representative who is greater than any in the country as an orator, a statesman, a thinker; that his Republicanism is of a stalwart kind which never wavers and is never afraid; that we want him re-elected because he is shoulders above all others the fittest man for the place.

Resolved, That in Case Broderick of Holton, we have a candidate for congress who stands out fairly and squarely for Republican principles. He is sound on the tariff, sound on pension, sound on the silver question and can be trusted as honest and true, like the man he succeeds and we believe that no people ever had a better representative than Hon. E. N. Morrill.

Resolved, That we regret that any party should urge that a law of the state be repealed because it is not enforced. If it is not enforced it should be, and we favor prohibition more strongly than ever before and demand that the law be rigidly obeyed in Brown county; believing that liquor is a more terrible blight than drouth and more dreadful than pestilence.

Resolved, That we never weary of the praise given to the old soldiers, distressing as it is to the press and speakers of the two other parties. The soldiers are the back-bone of the nation, and it is through them that all of us, even the croakers, enjoy the blessings and liberties common to this and to no other country.

Resolved, That endorsement of these resolutions means to every Republican the healing of old sores, the birth of new hopes, the death of any fears. Sincere Republic faith opens up an easy road to a glorious victory. Republican principles are the grandest and the party is one of hope, freedom and justice. It is the only one for and by the people, and those who have loved it will never march under another flag.

The committee on resolutions reported the following which were adopted:

We, the representatives of the Democratic party of Brown county, Kansas, in convention assembled, declare,

First, We denounce the present attempt of the Republican party to perpetuate its lease of power, by means of the so-called Federal election bill as an outrage upon a long suffering people.

Second, We denounce the Republican members of the present National house of Congress from Kansas for their unanimous vote for the McKinley bill which will not provide a market for a single bushel of wheat or corn or a single barrel of Kansas pork or beef.

Third, We demand the free and unlimited coinage of silver and the issuing of government legal tender notes sufficient to do the business of our country.

Fourth, We demand such a change in our fiscal laws as to leave the control of the circulating medium of the country in the hands of the government

Fifth, We demand equal rights to all men, exclusive privileges to none. Therefore we favor a tariff law based upon public necessity and not upon the greed for capital.

Sixth, As democracy is a party of wage earners and producers, we sympathize for labor in its present struggles with the insatiate money power whether in the factory or on the farm.

Seventh, We demand that our legislature exercise its undoubted power to regulate the operations in our state, to the end that they may not charge a higher rate for the transportation of agricultural products than for merchandise.

Eighth, That it is the sense of this convention that the railroads and all other moneyed corporations doing business in the state be required to pay taxes upon the full value of their capital and property.

Ninth, As the Republicans of this state in their late convention made John James Ingalls an issue in this campaign, we are compelled to ask the people of Kansas to repudiate a man, who, in a widely circulated interview, denounced politics as an "Irredescent dream," declared that "The decalogue has no place in politics," and expressed the belief that the use of money in campaigns and employment of hired Hessians, such as the Pinkerton detectives, were justifiable.

Tenth, We are opposed to all sumptuary legislation and we demand of our representative, if elected, to vote and work for the immediate repeal of all sumptuary laws, and to use his influence for a constitutional convention.

George Boone, Sr., was nominated for probate judge by acclamation.

W. H. Smith, the Peoples Party nominee and J. B. Green were placed in nomination for clerk of the court, and Mr. Green receiving the majority of the votes was declared the nominee.

We, the representatives of Democracy of Brown County Kansas, in Convention assembled, declare:

First. That we are now and have been in favor of an economical administration of public affairs, National, State and County. We therefore demand that all public work, National, State and County, be let to the lowest responsible bidder, instead of being made a reward for party services; and hereby condemn the action of the late Republican congress in the wasteful extravagance that appropriated one billion dollars so depleting the United States treasury that its bonds falling due could not be paid at maturity.

Second; We are in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of all the silver our mines produce.

Third; We are in favor of the abolition of the National Banking system and the substitution thereof of National legal tender notes in such quantities as shall be found necessary to transact all the business of the country.

Fourth; We are in favor of the election of the president and vice president and United States senators by a popular vote of the people

Fifth: We believe the McKinley bill to be a measure designed in the interest of monopoly by monopoly and for monopoly. That its results are the centralization of wealth and unjust taxation of labor, we are therefore in favor of its repeal, and the substitution in its stead of a tariff for revenue only, so laid as to bear heavily upon the luxuries and lightly upon the necessities of life, in such a way as to produce a sufficient revenue to pay the current expenses of the government judiciously expended.

Sixth; We are in favor of the election of railroad commissioners by the people of the State with power to compel railroad managers to operate them in the interest of the consumer as well as in the interest of the owner.

The committee on Resolutions reported the following platform which was adopted:

We, the delegates of the People's Party of Brown county, in convention assembled, declaring our faith in the principles of our party as published from the national meetings of Ocala and Cincinnati, and pledging our adherence to the same, publish the following as a further declaration of principles upon which to merit and realize victory.

First. We denounce as unmitigated, malicious falsifiers all persons who say the People's party believes in or advocates repudiation of any honest debt either public or private, but we do demand such legislation as will enable the debtor class by industry and economy to pay their debts and save their homes.

Second. We will support no man for office, either county, state or national, who will not pledge himself to use his utmost efforts to enforce each and every law upon our statute books.

Third. We demand such national legislation as will free the producing classes of the United States from further robbery by grain speculators and transportation companies, and endorse the principles of the sub-treasury plan of issuing money to the people until some more feasible method be adopted.

Fourth. We demand such national legislation as will increase the circulating medium to $50 00 per capita by free and unlimited coinage of silver and the issue of full legal tender treasury notes, and demand that one means used for putting this money into circulation be through a liberal service pension to those who imperiled their lives to save the life of the nation, and by further payment to them of the difference between the depreciated currency in which they were paid and the gold in which the bondholder was paid.

Fifth. While the Republicans of this county point with pride to the administration of Governor Humphrey, we challenge it as being void of both wisdom and integrity.

Sixth. We further condemn the last state senate for not removing from office Judge Theodosius Botkin, believing the charges of drunkenness and incompetency were fully established by evidence produced in the senate trial.

Seventh. We denounce as enemies to free speech and action all persons who declare members of the People's party, socialists and enemies to capital or any just business or avocation.

Eighth. We condemn the Republicans state senate of last winter for failing to pass the following named bills which passed the house and died in the senate; being acts "To prescribe penalties for accepting bribes;"

"To prevent corrupt practices and the corrupt use of money in elections;"

"To prevent railroad companies from employing armed detectives during troubles with their employes;"

"To regulate the rate of interest charged for the use of money, and prohibit usury;"

"To prohibit waiver of appraisalment and stay laws;

"To require all private and public municipal corporations to pay their employes weekly in lawful money;"

"To confer upon women the right to vote and hold office;"

"To regulate the right of redemption of land sold under mortgage;"

"To punish drunkenness in public officers by a forfeiture of office;"

"To prevent blacklisting of railroad employes;"

"To provide joint rates over connecting lines of railroad in Kansas;"

"To provide for a uniform series of text books by publication and otherwise;"

"To reduce present railroad freight rates, and to elect the railroad commissioners by a direct vote of the people.

"To reduce railroad fares to two and one-half cents per mile, and prohibit the issuing of free passes;"

"To set aside mortgage sales for inadequacy of price;"

RESOLVED That in Hon. W. A. Peffer we have a man worthy of our confidence and support, and that we denounce the action of the Republican financial league of Kansas for seeking means to defeat the will of the people.

Upon these principles we confidentially hope to march to local victory at the coming election and to national victory in 1892, and we earnestly invite the co-operation of all persons who believe in the just and humane principles we advocate.

First, We, the Republicans of Brown county Kansas, in convention assembled, do most cordially endorse the administration of President Harrison Second, We most heartily endorse what is known as the Dependent Pension bill, believing it to be the most patriotic pension law ever enacted by any nation or party.

Third, In the passage of what is known as the McKinley bill we recognize the broadest and most equitable legislation ever enacted in the interests of the American people; and we believe it will redound to the best interests of all classes of American citizens, irrespective of party or vocation and that it meets with our unqualified approval.

Fourth, We heartily endorse that foremost of American statesmen, James G. Blaine, in his effort to procure reciprocity treaties with other nations.

Fifth, While we recognize that the present silver law has been a great benefit to the people of this nation, yet we believe that the people will be still further benefited by the free and unlimited coinage of all the silver ore of the United States.

Sixth, We take great pride in endorsing the administration of Gov. Humphrey and all state officers, believing that they have given us a clear and honorable administration of state affairs.

Seventh, We have unbounded faith in Kansas and her resources and we brand as common enemies all the speakers who have proclaimed that Kansas is in a deplorable condition and any and all statements that our people are bankrupt and unable to pay their debts, as lies circulated by demagogues for campaign purposes and that such persons are not entitled to the confidence of the public.

Eighth, We condemn the lower house of the last legislature for its unprecedented extravagance and waste of the peoples' money, and for the further reason that the greater part of the session was devoted to private interests instead of public affairs.

The Prohibition voters of Brown county, Kansas, in mass convention assembled, recognizing Almighty God and Jesus Christ, his son as the source of all power and authority.

First, We declare renewed allegiance to the National Prohibition party and their endorsement of the Indianapolis platform.

Second, We declare it is very important to contend for the maintainance of the many features of our national and state government already established and to contend for various political reforms, yet the liquor problem is the most vital, political and economical question now before the American people.

Third, We declare the liquor traffic to be more wasteful of our country's resources than any conceivable system of taxation or tariff and a greater incubus to commerce than any currency policy ever adopted or suggested.

Fourth, We declare with sorrow and shame that our Kansas prohibitory law is grossly violated in our state, our county, and our city, and we arraign the various officials whose duty it is to enforce the law as recreant to their trust and perjured by their violated oaths.

Fifth, We declare in favor of raising the revenue for the support of our government by taxes upon possessions and incomes and not upon what it consumes, thereby discriminating against the poor man. Therefore, we oppose our present iniquitous tariff laws as unjust, oppressive and solely in the interests of rich monopolies

Sixth, We declare in a reasonable expansion of the currency by a reasonable coinage of silver and by larger issues of paper money so that there will be sufficient currency in circulation for all trade demands and so that Wall street will be rendered less potent in producing panics and depressions to the detriment of the country at large and especially the West. But we are opposed to the free silver coinage craze whereby the silver millionaires who mostly live in New York can receive from the United States mint one dollar for every eighty-five cents' worth of bullion.

Seventh, We declare ourselves favorable to the full enfranchisement of women because the denial of the franchise to them is unjust and because we believe their voting would be conducive to pure and better government.

Eighth, We declare in favor of the Australian system of voting, and every other practicable scheme for keeping the ballot pure.

Ninth, We declare against all systems of bribery, however trivial they may appear and we demand the enforcement of bribery laws against every candidate of any party, who, because he is a candidate treats voters to cigars and drinks.

Tenth, We declare the peoples party, by their record at Cincinnati, and by persistent refusals to oppose the liquor traffic and the liquor power, to be utterly unworthy of the name of a reform party and unworthy of being the political leaders of reformers and opponents of the liquor curse and scourge.

A ticket was nominated as follows: J. M. Marcum treasurer; J. B. Stephens, sheriff; C. P. Stiles, clerk; W. Sherman, recorder; William Robertson, surveyor; E. F. Sweetland, coroner; Daniel Smith, commissioner, first district; James Dendant, Sr., commissioner, second district.

The committee on resolutions reported the following which were adopted:

Whereas, The Declaration of Independence of a hundred years ago set forth that whenever any government becomes tyrannical or oppressive or destructive of the ends for which it was established, it is the right of the people and their duty to reform, to alter or abolish it and establish one more conducive to the public weal and

Whereas, A few years later a constitution was adopted whose preamble proclaims its object to be union, justice, domestic tranquility, common defense, the general welfare, etc.,

Whereas, After a hundred years we find that by the manipulation of political demagogues who have succeeded to power and recognize no such principle that "the people are the sovereigns and the rulers are their servants," we have no union, no justice, neither domestic tranquility. Instead of union we have the political demagogue, the bloody garment, a constant menace, instead of domestic tranquility, domestic commotion; instead of common defense, common and uncommon combines and soulless subsidies: the wealth producers pauperized, the wealth absorbers aggrandized and the general welfare lost sight of in the race for spoils and plunder. The abolition of African slavery has been accomplished only in name, but in fact has only been supplanted and all labor been metamorphosed unconsciously into the European plan or form of slavery proposed and recommended by the Hazzard circular of 1862, namely, "Capital controls labor by controlling wages, by controlling the volume of money." which has been done to perfection when the people ask for relief by an increase of the volume of money, the cry is it is visionary, it is unconstitutional and contraction proceeds apace. And

Whereas The constitution which, in the earlier and purer day of the Republic, the highest functionary in the land no more dare violate than the humblest citizens, is trampled upon with impunity by our law makers, as per witness many enactments from the back pay salary grab to the later salary Silcott re-imburements, therefore be it

Resolved: That this oligarchy, substituting its will for the constitution, must be overthrown and the constitution reinstated. That in its financial system, this country shall rise to the demands of the enlightenment of the age and the high plane principle of justice consistent with reason, giving to all equal opportunities and advantages.

Resolved: That we hail with delight the second declaration of independence put forth at the great St. Louis conference of February 1892, in that comprehends every principle effecting the interest of productive labor in its present distressed condition and proposes a remedy; and we look forward with glorious anticipations to the coming convention of the Peoples Party to be held at Omaha on the Fourth of July, 1892.

Whereas The Republican convention of Kansas in 1890, declared that "We, the Republicans of Kansas, demand the free coinage of silver, a measure strongly opposed and vigorously denounced by the Democratic administration, led by Ex-President Grover Cleveland " And the Democratic convention of the same year declared "We favor the free coinage of silver;" and the Resubmission Republicans declared "We are in favor of the free coinage of silver and such an increase in the volume of currency as will meet the demands of trade and prevent the depression in business and price of farm products and labor consequent upon the scarcity of money;" and the Peoples Party declared "We demand the free and unlimited coinage of silver" and the Prohibition party declared "We demand, in the interest of the many, that there shall be an increase of the currency which shall be of full legal tender and issued by the government in sufficient quantities to do the business of the country on a cash system, and to this end we favor the free coinage of silver." *

Therefore we see by the above declarations that every voter in Kansas supported a platform favoring the free coinage of silver and

Whereas We have reason to believe that some of the parties this year have, or will, oppose free coinage of silver, either in their platforms or by the men they nominate, thus changing the policy of the party, while many of the adherents of the party retain their former views; and we believe that when a party changes its policy its former adherents no longer owe allegiance to it Therefore be it

Resolved: That we cordially invite all those whose parties have or shall change their policy to unite with us in support of a party that still adheres to the policy of free coinage of silver as one of its cardinal principles.

Resolved, That we hereby ask the best element of every party to join with us in originating into laws the principles underlying the St. Louis platform

Resolved, That in order to achieve success one of the important aids to that end is through the information imparted by the press of our party and we believe it is the duty of every member of our party, if able, to support our county organ and it should be one of the duties of the Peoples' Party clubs to see that its members are subscribers to said organ and if any one thinks he is not able to take it, it should be furnished by the club, also it should be the aim of every one to assist in the dissemination of the truths which form the basis of our party, and

Whereas, we believe that the parties in power have been hypocritical in passing laws and then failing to make proper effort to enforce them, therefore be it,

Resolved, That all important laws on our statute books should be enforced to the extent of the ability of our officers to do so.

1. We, the delegates of the Peoples' Party, this day in our county convention assembled do re-affirm our former declarations that in the Peoples' Party only can be found the relief that will ease the load and lift the burden of an oppressed and suffering people.

2. That we endorse the national platform adopted at Omaha, July 4, 1892.

3. We give our unqualified approval and moral support to the state administration and glory in the courage of the noble fifty-eight Peoples' Party members of the legislature who so gallantly stood up for principle and that we must emphatically condemn the revolutionary spirit of Republican legislators at Topeka.

4. We condemn the action of the national administration in lending its assistance to the attempted destruction of silver as money.

5. We declare emphatically in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at the ratio of 16 to 1.

That we are in favor of the enforcement of all laws on the statute books of Kansas and especially would we sustain every item of state as against the practice of legislating to catch the votes of the law abiding citizen and failing to enforce such laws to hold the votes of the lawless voter and we favor the repeal of all laws that are practically inoperative.

Resolved, That we the delegates of the Democratic Party assembled in convention do reaffirm our former declaration, that the Democratic party is the party of the people and is the only party that now possesses the old manly spirit of our forefathers that blazes out in the eyes and hearts of the American people and those mighty results our ancestors wrought are in the hands of the Democratic party. Other political parties may trample them under feet or deride them as they will but the Democratic party now as in the past will hold up the old patriotic spirit high, unmarred and stainless and transmit them so, to our rising generation.

2. Public opinion should be the results of calm thought for the destiny of our state does not consist altogether of the wealth nature has given it. It consists of the men and women who live within our borders. The character of our state is established by the character of our citizens and not by our legislators at Topeka.

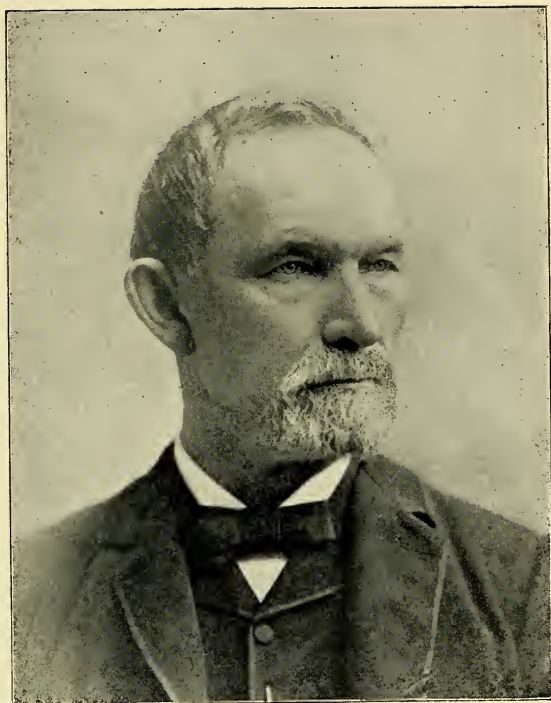

3. That we rely in the ability of our President, Grover Cleveland, backed by a Democratic senate and congress to relieve the country of the present financial distress, brought upon us by the extravagant and disastrous laws enacted by the late Republican administration. That the country is to be congratulated upon having a President with the ability, courage and foresight to lead the people from under the dark cloud that hovers over us, the result of Republican misrule and ignorance.

4. That we congratulate the Democracy of the nation, that has never refused her people succor in the time of distress, upon its ascension to the head of the Government, executive and legislative.

5. That we deplore the condition in Kansas brought about by the prohibitory amendment and other sumptuary legislation which has bankrupted all the city treasuries and made convicts of good men, spies and hypocrites of others, degraded consciences and wrecked morals. That we recognize in high license the only means of controlling the liquor traffic at present conducted openly in the state of Kansas and Brown county and carried on without city, county or state license. That while we deplore the sale and use of liquor, we demand that it be regulated by high license since it is fully demonstrated that it cannot be prohibited.

6. That in county affairs, as well as state and national, we demand an honest and economical administration by the people and for the people.

7. That we consider the proposed effort for equal rights a menace to our homes and dangerous to the state; that it is the duty of every good citizen to protect our homes from political infringement and and oppose the efforts of the dissatisfied female designing the home to be usurped by politics.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we, the Republicans of Brown county in convention assembled, proud of the grand achievements of their party in the past and with confidence in its wisdom, its patriotism and its purity, do again affirm their devotion to its principles as enunciated in the platform adopted on the 9th of June, 1892 at Minneapolis.

Resolved, That we re-affirm with renewed zeal our unswerving fidelity to the American system of protection, believing that American markets should be first for our own citizens. Home markets with an army of consumers engaged in various industries are for the best interests of our people and should be protected in order that labor may be remunerated and employment furnished for all who may desire it.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the position of the national platform in demanding "the use of both gold and silver as standard money with such restrictions and under such provisions to be determined by legislation as to secure the maintainance of the parity of values of the two metals, so that the purchasing and debt paying power of the dollar, whether of gold silver or paper, shall be at all times equal. The interests of the producers of the country, its farmers and its workmen demand that every dollar, paper or coin, issued by the government, shall be as good as any other."

Resolved. That we re-affirm our opposition to all class legislation and to all combinations organized in trusts or otherwise to arbitrarily control the conditions of trade among our citizens.

Resolved, That while we would ever welcome to our shores the intelligent, honest and industrious citizens of other countries, we protest against the immigration of the criminal and pauper classes of the old world.

Resolved, The security of life and property, the well being and happiness of our citizens, the best interests of all our people demand that the majority shall rule and that there shall be faithful obedience to the constitution and laws of our state. Without this we can have no civil government, and for this disregard for the constitution and the rights of the majority and this open and notorious violation of law we arraign the present state administration and charge them with a violation of their oaths of office. We arraign them and all who sustain their actions as false to the best interests of our state and as having by their conduct and slanderous utterances dishonored the fair name of Kansas and driven from the state worthy citizens of other states who would have settled within her borders. By discrediting the financial ability and honesty of our citizens they have driven capital from our state and made it impossible for our citizens to get extensions of their pecuniary obligations; and we appeal to the patriotism and good sense of the citizens of our country to arrest their power in behalf of good government and to place the seal of condemnation upon those who have thus proven themselves unworthy of public trust.

Resolved, That the delegates of this convention hereby express their grateful appreciation of the splendid hospitality accorded them by the people of Brown county's "Magic City." To the patriotic women our hearts thanks are extended.

S. W. Moore for treasurer, J. V. McNamar for clerk and S. E. Brown for sheriff were nominated by acclamation.

Resolved, That we re-affirm our devotion to Republican principles as enunciated in the Minneapolis platform and point with pride to the administration of Benjamin Harrison made all the more striking and brilliant by a comparison with the weak and vacillating policy of his successor.

Resolved, that we condemn in unmeasured terms the conduct of the present administration towards the defenders of our country's flag and denounce it as not only unpatriotic but dishonest and unworthy a great government.

Resolved, The security of life and property, the well being and happiness of our citizens, the best interests of all our people demand that the majority shall rule and that there shall be faithful obedience to the constitution and laws of our state.

Without this we can have no civil government and for this disregard for the constitution and the rights of the majority and this open and notorious violation of law we arrange the present state administration and charge them with a violation of their oaths of office.

We arraign them and all who sustain their actions as false to the best interests of our state and as having by their conduct and slanderous utterances, dishonored the fair name of Kansas and driven from the state worthy citizens of other states who would have settled within her borders.

By discrediting the financial ability and honesty of our citizens they have driven capital from our state and made it impossible for our citizens to get extensions of their pecuniary obligations and we appeal to the patriotism and good sense of the citizens of our country to arrest their power in behalf of good government and to place the seal of condemnation upon those who have thus proven themselves unworthy of public trust.

Resolved, That we heartily commend the Hon. Case Broderick for his untiring efforts in behalf of his constituents and for the faithful and able manner in which he has discharged his duties which entitles him to the hearty and united support of his constituents

Resolved, That in our fellow citizen, Major Edmund N. Morrill, we have a man whom we can present to the Republicans of the state of Kansas with the perfect confidence born of our long associations with him and friendship for him. He has been placed in positions heretofore which have fully tested his great powers as a leader and have proved his unwavering integrity and patriotic devotion of Kansas, to the Union soldiers and to our principles. In presenting him as our candidate for governor of the commonwealth we know that we are naming a man amply fitted for that position and whose financial ability will at once restore confidence both at home and abroad.

Major Morrill was escorted before the convention and after a brief speech presented the names of John Schilling, Ira J. Lacock, J. D. Blair, Elias Berkeley, Jacob Lichty, Henry A. Smith, Scott Hopkins, Lucien Smyth, Eugene L. Smith, John F. Cashman, Harry Cheal, Jno. Robbins, Joseph Wolfley and Simon Fraser as delegates to the state convention. The committee on resolutions reported the following which were adopted

We, the Republicans of Brown county, Kansas, in convention assembled, accept and in dorse the principles of public policy as laid down in the platforms of the Republican National convention at Minneapolis, Minnesota, in 1892 and the Republican state convention at Topeka Kansas, June 6, 1894.

We especially emphasize the importance of protection to home industries, to the end that employment may be provided for all, with its reward, without being compelled to enter into competition with the cheap labor of the Old World.

We heartily favor the free coinage of all silver produced by the mines of the United States, with a tax on importations sufficient to exclude the products of foreign mines.

Second, We denounce the present state administration for its violation of the laws and contempt of the courts, the corruption and incompetency of its officials, its gross mismanagement of the state institutions, and for the discredit it has brought upon the good name of the state and we pledge the Republican party and the nominees of this convention to a faithful and economical discharge of all official duties and to a strict observance of an honest enforcement of the laws, and to obedience to the mandates of the courts.

Third, We endorse and commend the action of the state convention in placing at the head of the ticket Brown county's most honored citizen, Major E. N. Morrill.

Pool Grinstead handed in the following which was adopted:

WHEREAS, On the 26th inst, the Republican Judicial convention of the 22nd Judicial District of the state consisting of the counties of Doniphan, Brown and Nemaha, meets at Hiawatha in Brown county, for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for the responsible and honorable position of District Judge. Now therefore, this Republican county convention of Brown county, consisting of one hundred and ninety-six delegates, chosen from all parts of said county beg leave to call attention of the said Judicial convention to the following facts: That Brown county has never had a judge of the District court, since the organization of the state; that when Atchison county was associated with the counties comprising this district, and since Atchison, Doniphan and Nemaha have each and all been honored with this Judicial office and Brown county has ever remained faithful to the Republican party, and voted for candidates from each and all of the other counties notwithstanding she has presented candidates to several conventions who well qualified in ability and in legal and moral education. Brown county has selected Hon. W. F. Means, a man well qualified to fill this honorable and responsible position; his well known character for integrity, his legal learning and his sound judgment particularly fit him for the place. No one in the district is better qualified. This convention, therefore, in the interest of all the inhabitants of this judicial district, in the interest of public justice, and as an act of simple justice to Brown county, calls upon the said judicial convention to nominate for the office of District Judge of the 22nd judicial district, our most worthy and esteemed fellow citizens Hon. The committee on resolutions reported the following which were adopted:

We, the delegates of the Peoples party of Brown county in convention assembled do hereby reaffirm our allegiance to the principles enunciated in the "Omaha Platform," and the Populist state platform of June 12, 1894 and point with pride to our delegates in congress who have been untiring in their loyalty to that platform and the people.

We hereby heartily commend our present state administration in its economical and wise legislation whereby it has saved to the people thousands of dollars and especially do we commend Gov. Lewelling for the manly stand he has taken for the poor and oppressed, recognizing that the poor, the landless and the unemployed have rights worthy of respect, as well as the money baron, or railroad king.

We also point with pride to our Populist legislators for their efforts to enact into law every pledge made to the people.

We demand aside from pensions, (the soldier wants justice, not alms) that the government pay every honorably discharged soldier the difference between the purposely depreciated money in which he was paid, and that appreciated kind made for the banker and the bullion holder.

We demand the free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the old rate of sixteen to one, and we denounce any party as an enemy to silver, and in favor of a gold standard who prates about parity, and change of ratio, and one dollar being worth another dollar, etc.

We are unalterably opposed to Major Morrill's plan of issuing interest bearing government bonds for national bankers in times of peace, thus saddling greater burdens upon the people in times of depression, but rather in their stead we demand that congress enact into law the issuing of full legal tender notes in payment of the expenses of the government.

We believe that the late strike has demonstrated beyond all reasonable doubt that labor (meaning by this term all people whether they be employed in the factory, the shop, the mine, or in transportation, agriculture or mercantile pursuits) must make an intelligent use of the ballot to protect its interest, for when courts act solely in the interest of capital, labor is left without protection. When labor elects to legislative positions men who are in touch with itself then and not until then will labor be represented.

We believe in the right of men to organize, to promote their welfare, that when organization is effected the greatest, fairest and most effective weapon is the ballot.

We condemn the unwise and cruel policy of all government parties in this nation whose legislation has favored capital and oppressed labor, and we point with alarm to the alacrity with which the federal government comes to the aid of incorporated tyranny against the masses in the battle for bread, which instead of following out the lines as intended by the founders of this Republic and incorporated in the constitution, is tending toward Wall Street's invitation of the despotism of Europe.

We believe government ownership to be the final and only solution to the railroad question, and to this end we ask that the government take possession of by foreclosing its mortgage upon the Union Pacific.

We condemn the Republican party of Kansas for its cowardice in refusing to meet the issues of the day, and for entering upon a systematized campaign of falsehood and vilification as a cover to divert the attention of the people and we invite all fair minded men whose love of justice will not allow them longer to remain, to come with us and we bid you welcome.

We, as delegates of the Peoples' Party, are not "Ashamed of Kansas," but rather are proud of her. We have pinned our faith (be it as it may) on her rich valleys and her fertile hills, but above and beyond all this, we have a firm and abiding faith in the "Common Sense" of her people therefore we enter the campaign with renewed hope, trusting and believing that victory will be ours, and that our governor will not be "Ashamed of Kansas."

L. C. Clark, John McCrerey, Henry Isely, C. H. Pierce, M Foster, J. L. Nellans, J. D. Hardy and H. F. Mellenbruch were nominated for representative. The ballot resulted, Clark 86, McCrerey 22, Isely 14, Pierce 7, Foster 5, Nellans 3, Hardy 2, Mellenbruch 1.

Nathan Jones, R. M Patton, A. W. Lichty and John Wilson were nominated for probate judge. The informal ballot resulted, Jones 56, Patton 73, Lichty 8, Wilson 1. Formal ballot resulted, Jones 94, Patton 45, Lichty 1.

The committee on resolutions reported the following which were adopted:

We, the Democrats of Brown County in convention assembled, re-affirm our allegiance to the Democratic principles taught by Jefferson, Jackson and a long list of statesmen, declare

First, That we are in favor of a tariff for revenue only, so laid as to bear heaviest on the rich and lightly on labor.

We favor an income tax and commend Grover Cleveland for the manly stand he has taken for the tariff reform.

The thanks of the Democrats are due W. L. Wilson for his untiring efforts to pass a tariff bill that will meet the demands of the country and redeem the pledges made to the people.

We approve of the sentiments expressed by Grover Cleveland to Chairman Wilson and believe that in due time the Democratic administration will redeem all its pledges made to the people.

We are in favor of the free coinage of silver and gold with the ratio of 16 to 1 and believe that the late financial troubles were the natural outgrowth of the financial legislation of the last twenty years.

We are opposed to class legislation believing that it tends to foster monopolies that in turn oppress the labor of the country.

We are opposed to strikes and lockouts, but believe that there ought to be a law to compel capital and labor to arbitrate their differences.

We are in favor of liberal pensions for all soldiers of the late war and hope the pension list may always be kept as a roll of honor.

We are in favor of the election of United States Senators by the direct vote of the people.

Resolved that we commend to the patriotic and just consideration of the citizens of Kansas the business like and pure official acts of our present state officials. And we point with pride and the greatest satisfaction to the official conduct of our esteemed fellow citizen, Gov. E. N. Morrill and sympathize with him in his noble and untiring efforts to purify the management of our great charitable, educational and reformatory institutions, to the end that the greatest good may be accomplished by such institutions with the least expenditure of the people's money.

We arraign the Demo-Populist party for their corrupt thieving and disgraceful methods in conducting the affairs of the penal, charitable and other public institutions of our state to such an extent that when weighed in the balance for honor and integrity they have ununiversally been found wanting, and true to their vicious instinct this so called, middle of the road reform party have in every instance followed the advice of their leader and mouth organ, Mrs. Col. Mary Lease, in raising more hell and less corn.

The committee on resolutions reported the following which were adopted:

Whereas, Prosperity is once more beginning to smile on the land after a season of panic, turmoil and disaster, that was the direct result and final culmination of a quarter century of robbery, outrageous taxation and corrupt business methods on the part of the Republican party. Therefore be it,

Resolved, That the Democrats of Brown County, this day assembled in convention, congratulate the people at large and more especially the farmers and laboring men, that under the new Democratic Tariff law the purchasing power of a dollar is extended one-third more in the purchase of food for sustenance and clothing to keep their children warm. We further congratulate the country that during the recent panic that goes down in the annals of history as the tail end of high tariff and McKinleyism, we had a wise and considerate Chief Executive in the person of Grover Cleveland whose wise head and keen foresight undoubtedly prevented war and rebellion.

That we applaud the benefits derived from the new Democratic tariff law, and deplore the defeat of the income tax law by Supreme Court Judges.

That we favor the free and unlimited coinage of the American product of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1.

That we arraign the present legislature and state administration of Kansas as the most reckless, extravagant, incompetent and disgusting that this great commonwealth has ever had inflicted upon it.

The recent developments relative to a so-called prohibitory law are such as to cause it to descend lower in the estimation of the leading and best citizens in all parties and that we demand of the next candidate for the legislature from Brown County an uncompromising pledge for its immediate repeal or resubmission to the voters.

That we congratulate the tax payers of Brown county that our present prosecuting attorney has, in less than one year of service, saved them thousands of dollars in discountenancing the usual turmoil and strife that a certain element is always ready to engender as long as the tax payers foot the bill, and further that we denounce the action of Gov. Morrill and Attorney General Dawes in appointing an assistant attorney for Brown county, as unnecessary and without reliable solicitation and that we believe that it was done as persecution to the only Democratic office holder in a Republican stronghold to gratify a spirit of revenge and malice on the part of a few disappointed and third-rate office seekers and bosses.

The following resolutions were read and on vote of 63 for and 46 against were adopted:

We, the Republicans of Brown County, in convention assembled, re-affirm our devotion to the declaration of principles of the Republican national platform of 1892. Three years of Democratic incompetency have fully demonstrated that a tariff for revenue "only" is a fraud and a delusion and a history of our country is a guide to the fact that a tariff for revenue only has always proven disastrous to the best interests and welfare of the American people.

We are also in favor of honest money, so that a dollar issued by the government of the United States, whether it be gold, silver or paper money, shall have equal purchasing power in any of the markets of the world. And to this end we are utterly and unalterably opposed to the heresy of free and unlimited coinage of silver on the basis of 16 to 1.

We favor the nomination of that gallant Union Soldier and statesman, and true exponent in Republicanism, Major McKinley, for president of the United States.

We favor the election of Cyrus Leland, of Doniphan as a delegate at large and also as the member of the National Republican committee from this state. And the delegates elected to the Wichita and Leavenworth conventions by this convention are hereby instructed to use all fair and honorable means to secure both.

The committee on resolutions reported the following which were unanimously adopted:

It is hereby resolved by the Brown County Populist convention:

First, We recognize that the financial question in its various bearings is the leading question of the present campaign.

Second, We are in favor of treating gold and silver exactly alike and to this end we believe in a free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the ratio of sixteen to one without waiting for the consent of the people of any other nation.

Third, We believe that the financial question is the great question of today, we believe that there are other questions that should be incorporated in our national platform and we have confidence that when the delegates from all parts of the country meet at St. Louis on July 22nd they will give us a platform that will be for the best interests of the country and name candidates that if elected, will faithfully carry out that platform.

Fourth, Whereas the Ohio Republican convention was held two or three months earlier than usual in order to proclaim to the country the platform of McKinley's state and adopted the following financial plank:

"We contend for honest money; for a currency of gold, silver and paper with which to measure our exchange, that shall be as sound as the government and as untarnished as its honor; and to that end we favor bimetalism, and demand the use of both gold and silver as standard money, either in accordance to an international agreement, if that can be obtained, or under such restrictions and such provisions to be determined by legislation as will secure the maintenance of the parities of the values of the two metals, so that the purchasing and debt paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equal."

We recognize in this platform the same old straddling platform that can be construed to mean almost anything and is an insult to the intelligence of the people of this great nation of seventy million people and believe its principle object is to catch votes and that it is in strong contrast to the independence of this people as expressed on all other questions.

Fifth, As this convention only has a hearing on national questions we believe that state and local questions may be left to our next convention for settlement.

In conclusion we invite all loyal citizens, no matter what your party affiliations before have been, to come and go with us For we need the aid of every patriotic citizen in this broad land, for never was there a time in the history of our Republic, since the Revolutionary forces were encamped in Valley Forge, when it was so important that those that hold the welfare of their country above the behests of the party, should unite. We must unite if we would save the Principles of Liberty set up by the Founders of the Republic.

Plutocracy is safe in the hands of either party. They are parties The great common people, the bulwark of all Republics, must come out. To be divided is to accomplish nothing. It means complete subjection, but to be united, is to be invincible. The crisis is now, "you stand in the pass behind which your countries liberties are guarded." Will you come out? This is a call for volunteers You can secure your country infinitely better by your ballots, than you ever could by bullets.

War is brutal, 'tis the only force of brutes We want you We welcome you. Will you come and go with us?

E. Bierer, Chas. Macho, Felix O'Neil and Niram Curtis were elected delegates to the state convention.

The committee on resolutions reported the following which were adopted:

The People's Party of Brown county, in convention assembled do this day re-affirm their faith in Populist principles.

We are positive that the people now fully realize the serious results of the continued industrial depression; and that when they become fully awake to the eminent danger that hovers over them they will sever party ties and rally to the standard of true reform.

We point to the example of the Chicago convention where the bosses and so called leaders of an old time party were relegated to back seats and the common people, the rank and file, arose in their might and sovereign majesty and used their privilege of free and independent men to work for themselves and humanity, by repudiating the chief magistrate of the national administration although a member of their own party. We commend their courage for this deed.

We feel that we owe it to the oppressed people of this nation to keep out former pledges to do what we can to break the money monopoly and to this end we hereby instruct our delegates to the St. Louis convention to work and vote for the nomination of that irrepressible, eloquent and true friend of the masses, W. J. Bryan.

We hold as heretofore that the money question overshadows all others and that we refuse to be side tracked to any other; but shall use all honest endeavors to bring about the fall of the power that oppresses the people.

As a beginning to this end, we again declare that we stand for the free coinage of both gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. We hold as heretofore that the solution of the industrial and commercial problems lies in the money, transportation and land questions, and we believe that we can not reap the degrees of prosperity that we are entitled to until these questions are settled on these lines.

We shall not at this time make any declarations in regard to state or county affairs, more than to say that we trust our county delegates to the state convention will work for the best interest of the People's Party.

The following resolution was also adopted:

WHEREAS, we recognize in Col. E. Bierer an able and honest man of marked ability therefore be it

Resolved, That we present him to the Congressional convention as a worthy person to become our standard bearer in the canvass for member of Congress from this district.

Fourth, We hold that the monopolies, combines and trusts that are today sapping the life out of trade and commerce are the legitimate offspring of the Republican party and that through the Democratic party these evils will be corrected.

Fifth, That we endorse the candidacy of Wm. J. Bryan and Arthur Sewell for the presidency and vice-presidency of the United State and that we will use all legitimate means in our power to secure their election on the 4th of November 1896, and also of the nominees of this convention.

Clyde McManigal offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That we recognize the administration of the duties of county attorney by James A. Clark as faithful and according to the dictates of the law. We further declare that the appointment by Gov. Morrill of an assistant attorney general was uncalled for and that the condition of affairs under Reber's administration is more deplorable now than when he was appointed to the office. We point with pride to the fact that Mr. Clark's official services have been such that has saved the tax-payers more money than any prosecuting attorney in the history of the country.

MAY 13. The fair grounds are advertised for sale on May 28th to satisfy the mortgage held by the Morrill & Janes Bank and a new company has been organized to buy them and keep a fair going in Brown county. When it was found that the mortgage could not be carried any longer the plan of making an assessment upon the stock large enough to take up the claims against the company was discussed, but this met with so much opposition that it was abandoned. Most of the old stockholders did not want to carry the load any longer.

Thirty citizens were then found who agreed to take $100 worth of stock in a new association provided the grounds could be purchased for $3,000. They are C. W. Wellcome, G. Y. Johnson, W. O. Noble, Elias Moser, Geo Maglott, John H. Meyer, Geo. H. Adams, J. W. Babbitt, S. F. Walters, S. Bierer, H. W. Hart, J. E. Haver, W. T. Loyd, Wm. Walters, Bert Wise, Ed Hoye, A. Leigh, C. D. Meisenheimer and Morris Fraley.

It is not a money making scheme. A fair association in Brown county never has and never can be a money maker, but it is a good thing for the county and ought to be encouraged.

The board of directors for the first year are W. W. Letson, G. Y. Johnson, S. F. Walters, W. E. Hixon, C. W. Wellcome, J. W. Babbitt, C. A. McCoy, Ed Hoye and J. H. Meyer. This board organized Monday by electing G. Y. Johnson, president; C. W. Wellcome, vice president; G. W. Harrington, secretary and Frank Meisenheimer, treasurer. If the grounds can be bought at the sheriff's sale preparations for a fair this fall will be commenced at once.—KANSAS DEMOCRAT.

The committee organized by the election of W. W. Letson as chairman and Grant W. Harrington as secretary.

The following platform was adopted:

We, the silver voters of Brown County, do proclaim our unwavering faith in the 16 to 1 doctrine, by joining hands and minds to defend silver and to work for and demand for it, its old time position of free coinage and legal qualification. On this issue we declare ourselves to be in favor of a distinctively American financial system. We are unalterably opposed to the single standard, and demand the immediate return to the constitutional standard of gold and silver by the restoration by this government, independently of any foreign power, of the unrestricted coinage of gold and silver as the standard money, at the ratio of 16 to 1, and upon terms of exact equality as existed prior to 1873, the silver to be of full legal tender equally with gold for all debts and dues, public and private.

We declare firm opposition to all trusts and monopolies, and denounce all laws that give the money power advantage over the farmer, the mechanic, the laborer, and the ordinary business man, and extend sympathy to the miners who are now contending for a livelihood against one of the most dangerous combinations that threatens the liberty, happiness and prosperity of the nation.

We invite all persons to assist us in regaining constitutional rights, to fight trusts, to assist struggling humanity in its fight against avarice and greed, and to contend for the safety of constitutional liberty, all of which are fundamental principals with the silver party, whose battle cry is 16 to 1, and whose national champion and standard bearer is William Jennings Bryan.

The committee on resolutions reported the following platform which was adopted:—

We, the Republicans of Brown County in convention assembled, most earnestly re-affirm our faith and devotion to the wise and patriot declaration of principles set forth in the St. Louis Republican platform; and we rejoice and point with pride to the general prosperity which has attended the action of the people of the United States in enacting those principles into laws and thereby securing to our beloved country another era of prosperity and contentment, under Republican rule and in replenishing the nation's depleted treasury with bounteous revenues and filling her people with new hopes, new inspirations and giving them plenty instead of need and despair We most heartily endorse and commend the wise, patriotic and statesmen-like administration of President Wm. McKinley and we hereby express our unqualified approbation in protecting the rights and interests of our common country, as well as declaring to the world that America is for freemen and not for slaves, and that starving, suffering humanity in Cuba must be released from Spanish tyranny and barbarism and adopted into the sisterhood of American Republics. With one voice we unite in commending and approving our president's wise and conservative course in dealing with the present impending crisis and we extend to him our sympathy and our untiring devotion and support. We earnestly commend and approve of the action and course of Senator Lucien Baker, and the two Republican congressmen from Kansas, the Hon Case Broderick and Hon. Chas. Curtis for their co-operation with the administration in this time of severe trial and for their loyalty and patriotism to their country and devotion to the interest of their constituency.

First—We the allied silver forces of Brown County, in convention assembled, again declare in favor of the restoration of silver to its place as the money of the constitution and its free coinage at the ratio of 16 to 1 without waiting for the aid or consent of any nation on earth, and we recognize in Colonel William J. Bryan the ablest champion of the people in their efforts to secure this and kindred reforms.

Second—We believe that the declaration of war with Spain was justified by the causes which called it forth, and we are proud of the distinction achieved by our army and navy. We also rejoice in the prospects of early and honorable adjustment of all difficulties with Spain.

Third—We believe in a reasonable territorial expansion, in the enlargement and strengthening of our navy and in the increase of our commercial relations with other countries.

Fourth—We heartily endorse the actions of the Populists, Democratic and Silver Republican state conventions in renominating the present state officers, believing that the record of the last two years and their vigilant efforts to maintain the rights of the people against corporate lawlessness entitle them to the hearty endorsement of the people of the state.

Fifth—We are opposed to maladministration and dereliction of duty in public office and pledge the nominees of this convention that, if elected, they will perform all the duties devolving upon them without fear or favor.

Sixth—We demand in county affairs that all contracts as far as possible be let to the lowest responsible bidder.

The committee on resolutions reported the following platform which was adopted:

We, the Republicans of Brown County assembled in convention, find in the Republican pledges made at St. Louis, and faithfully carried out by a Republican administration, new grounds for our undying belief that the Republican party is now, and always has been, the best party.

We rejoice in the splendid leadership of our president, Wm. McKinley, as a soldier, statesman and president. He is one of the matchless figures of our glorious American history.

We are proud of our representatives in congress, Senator Lucian Baker, Hon. Case Broderick and Hon. Chas Curtis. We desire to re-inforce them with W. J. Bailey, congressman-at-large, and with the Republican candidate in each congressional district.

We believe that a party should keep its promises—something the Populist party has never done. We call attention to the Populist record of perfidy and corruption and submit the evidence of leading Populists who have branded their own legislature and administration false to the best interests of the great commonwealth of Kansas.

We invite the citizens of Brown County who want a change to unite with us in a fair and manly effort to elect the Republican ticket lead by W. E. Stanley, together with the entire Republican ticket as completed here this day.

B. F. Kiner was nominated for county superintendent by acclamation.

For county attorney Sample F. Newlon received 125 votes and W. F. Shale 13.

The committee on resolutions reported the following platform which was adopted:

"The Democrats of Brown county, in delegate convention assembled, endorse in unqualified terms the Chicago platform of 1896.

"We condemn as un-American and unjust the policy of the national administration in its manner of dealing with the business arising out of the Spanish war, and especially with that portion concerning the Philippines.

"We denounce as hypocrisy the alleged opposition of the national administration to trusts and point to the fact that the principal advisors of those in power are connected with the most merciless trusts in existence as evidence of this hypocrisy.

"We condemn the present state administration for its utter inefficiency in failing to carry out the policy which has been inaugurated by its immediate predecessor in bringing the stock yards, insurance trusts and other leeches under subjection to the law and administering the business of charitable institutions for the benefit of the inmates rather than the politicians.

"We condemn the Republican majority of the board of county commissioners for its extravagant and incompetent management of the funds of the county, for needlessly increasing the expenses of the county in making contracts for refunding the county bonds before they matured without having advertised for bids, for having raised the salaries of the county officers from $200 to $400 per annum when no additional labor was required, for donating to the probate judge the sum of $800 after his term of office had expired.

"We commend Commissioner Allen Lichty for his strong, able and persistent opposition to the unnecessary and wasteful expenditures of the county funds and for his able and persevering efforts in behalf of the welfare of the county.

"We pledge our hearty and loyal support to the candidates nominated by this convention to-day."

John H. Meyer for treasurer, H. F. Killion for sheriff, M. F. Malinowsky for county clerk, Sam Stewart for register of deeds, W. A. Rooney for coroner, J. C. Kelsey for surveyor and H. C. Baker for commissioner were nominated by acclamation.

On the 18th day of April 1859, sixteen days after his appointment, Chief Justice John Pettit opened court in Hiawatha. The order for holding court having been lost he refused to try any cases and adjourned. The records show that B. F. Killey, Samuel A. Kingman and Warren W. Guthrie were enrolled as attorneys. Thus the judicial mill began to grind in Brown county.

On the 16th of April 1860 the Hon. Rush Elmore, one of the Associate Justices held the first regular term of court in the county. Both a grand and a petit jury had been summoned. The members of the grand jury were A. R. Dutton, John G. Spencer, W. J. Caruthers, A. B. Anderson, Caleb McGill, Nathaniel Kimberlin, Elihu Whittenhall, L. W. Denning, J. A. Baxter, Jacob Weltmer, George Bissell, Wm. J. Hart, Jacob Klinefelter, Franklin Thomas, David Peebles and Seth Barnum. H. R. Dutton was sworn as foreman and H. M. Robinson as bailiff of the grand jury. What the Judge may have charged the jury is not a matter of record but according to Sol Miller he declared that polygamy was as prevalent in Kansas as in Utah. The grand jury found no indictments of any kind however.

The petit jury was composed of R. P. Smith, James Belk, Solomon McCall, E. A. Spooner, J. D. Hardy, James Smith, M. C. Willis, Hiram Wise, Henry C. Honnell, Samuel Spear, Miles Simmons, T. S. Gottsell, W. B. Barnett, Benjamin Watkins, Lloyd Ashby, Benjamin Winkles, Samuel Chandler, David P. McGill, Thurston Chase, Wm. Twidwell, W. C. Foster, Azariah Freasgell, Wm. H. Jones and Gregory Amann.

The first case tried was that of Albert Heed vs. Josiah G. Duke in which the plaintiff was given a judgement for $240. 14.

The first jury case was that of Abadiah Shumacher by his next friend Peter Shumaker vs. Mahlan P. Neville. E. A. Spooner was foreman of the jury which found for the defendant.

There was no prosecuting attorney present and so Judge Elmore appointed W. G. Sargent to act for the counties of Brown and Nemeha. The judge also ordered that all fines collected should be used by the clerk to buy chairs and stationary for the use of the court. He also fixed the amount of bond the sheriff should exact in criminal cases during the recess of the court. Ira J. Lacock, X. K. Stout and H. Starr were admitted to practice.

The Wyandotte constitution divided the state into five judicial districts, and the counties of Atchison, Doniphan, Brown, Nemeha and Washington were constituted the second judicial district. Albert L. Lee was elected judge for the second district at the first election held under this constitution. His opponent was Geo. W. Glick of Atchison county. If Judge Lee ever held court in Brown county no record can be found of it. He resigned*the on 31st of October 1861 to enter the army and Albert H. Horton, of Atchison, was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Judge Horton opened court in Hiawatha on November 4 1861 and held one term of court a year during his continuance on the bench. He was elected in 1862 and re-elected in 1864 without opposition. On May 14th 1866 he resigned to accept the city attorneyship for the city of Atchison and Robt. St. Clair Graham, also of Atchison was appointed to fill the vacancy. Judge St. Clair was elected in 1866 without opposition.

In 1868 Nathan Price of Doniphan county was elected. His Democratic opponent was A. G. Otis of Atchison. Judge Price did not serve out his term but resigned on March 2nd 1872 and Perry L. Hubbard, of Atchison, was appointed to fill the vacancy.

Judge Hubbard was elected in 1872 his opponent on the Liberal Republican and Democratic tickets being C. W. Johnson. Judge Hubbard was renominated in 1876 but was defeated for a re-election by A. G. Otis, of Atchison, the Democratic nominee.

Judge Otis was not a candidate for re election in 1880 and David Martin, the Republican nominee, also an Atchison man, was elected without opposition and re-elected without opposition in 1884. On February 17th 1886 the legislature created the 22d Judicial district composed of the counties of Doniphan, Brown and Nemeha. Judge Martin could not preside over both districts and chose the old Second now restricted to the county of Atchison. The vacancy thus caused in the new 22nd district was filled by the appointment of R. C. Bassett of Nemeha county. Judge Bassett was elected that fall for a full term. He was a candidate for the Republican nomination again in 1890 but was defeated by S. L. Ryan, of Don-iphon county who in turn was defeated at the polls by the Democratic and Populist nominee J. F. Thompson of Nemeha county.

Judge Thompson was a candidate for re-election in 1894 but was defeated by the Republican candidate Rufus M. Emery of Nemeha county.

Judge Emery was a candidate for the Republican nomination again in 1898. He was opposed in the convention by R. F. Buckles of Brown county and W. I. Stuart of Doniphan county. The convention deadlocked and held several adjourned sessions. The Nemeha delegates left the convention finally and went home. Subsequently two of them returned and voted with Doniphan county nominating Stuart. The Fusion forces nominated Jas. Falloon, of Brown county and the campaign was a bitter one. The Republican state ticket carried the district by upwards of two thousand majority but the candidate for Judge—Mr. Stuart—only had 257 majority.

Mr. Falloon instituted contest proceedings in the state senate alleging that this majority had been secured by fraud. Gov. Stanley vetoed a bill making an appropriation to try the case but the senate proceeded to hold a special session and hear the case. The verdict of the senate did not seat Mr. Falloon but declared, in substance, that Stuart had violated the corrupt practice act in securing his election and that a vacancy existed in the district.

Mr. Stuart ignored the action of the senate and continued to act as judge. The Populists of the district, proceeding on the theory that a vacancy existed, held a convention and nominated Mr. Falloon. The Secretary of State refused to file the papers and order the name printed on the official ballot and mandamus proceedings were commenced in the Supreme Court to compel him to do so. At the hearing the court held that the Senate should have passed upon the question as to who was entitled to the office and that it had exceeded its jurisdiction in declaring a vacancy.

It will be noted in this connection that Brown county has never furnished a judge for the district though Barkis has been "willin" on more than one occasion.

Of the men who have occupied the bench in this district Pettit, Elmore, Lee, Graham, Price and Otis are dead. Horton and Martin have both graced the Supreme bench as Chief Justice of the state. Hubbard has moved to Denver, Bassett to Chicago and Thompson to Iola so that the only residents of the district are Judge Emery and the present incumbent.

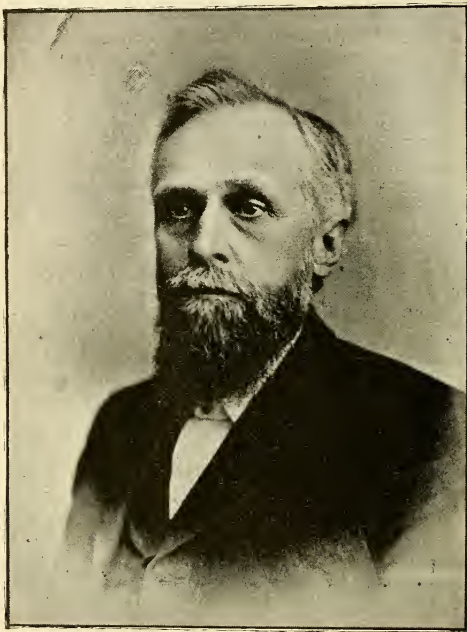

Warren W. Guthrie.

In 1857 General W. W. Guthrie, then a young lawyer 23 years of age, left his native state of Connecticut, and coming to the territory of Kansas took up a pre-emption claim in Brown county, on which he resided and farmed. The "Annals of Brown County," show that on April 15th 1859 when Chief Justice John Pettit came to Hiawatha to open a term of court—the first one ever held in the county—that Mr. Guthrie together with Samuel A. Kingman and B. F. Killey were enrolled as attorneys. In the 41 years that have elapsed Mr. Guthrie has tried cases at practically every term of court held in the county and can claim the distinction of being the oldest attorney in point of service at the Brown county bar.

Mr. Guthrie at once took a prominent part in the early political troubles of the county. He was a delegate to and one of the vice presidents of the Republican convention to the Territorial legislature and was elected receiving 261 votes. His opponent on the Democratic ticket was Ira J. Lacock who received 161 votes. In 1861 he was elected Probate Judge of Brown county without opposition. In 1862 he was elected Attorney General. He served out at Lawrence in 1859 which nominated Mark Parrott for Congress. He was also one of the Free State candidates for Territorial Councilman from the Fifth District that year receiving 128 votes in Brown county. The next year he was nominated by the Republicans for Representative his term on a salary of $1,000, with a $100 per year contingent fund, without an assistant, and took part in the trial of state cases in every judicial district. In 1864, having married during his term of office, he moved to Atchison, where he has since resided.

As a farmer in Brown county he introduced the first tame grass planted and its first walnut timber grove, and as a lawyer practiced "in the saddle," with an office outfit of saddle bags and a "bogus" statue. The story told by Sol Miller of the trial of his first important case barefooted and in a hickory shirt and overalls, is strictly true, but this condition of attire was the result of accident caused by the indisposition of his opponent to grant a postponement of sufficient time to enable him to get in "court room trim." During his professional career there has been little occasion for delay on his account; and a record of cases in every volume of the supreme court reports stands to his credit. He is still practicing law with his two sons, the elder of whom, W. F., stands well up to the front of his profession in the state. At Atchison General Guthrie lives outside of the city on a model farm of forty-three acres. Politically, he has always been a Republican and identified with the country element, but never a partisan. For many years he has been opposed to Cy Leland, and in the recent Curtis-Bailey contest took an active part. He is a reliable friend, a good hater, but uniformly respected. In 1876 he was elected state senator from Atchison county over Gov. Glick to fill the Judge Horton vacancy.

He is probably the only combined lawyer and farmer who has made a success in both vocatons in Kansas. For some years he has been recognized as the largest all-around farmer in the state, operating over 1,000 acres of Eastern Kansas lands and a cattle ranch of 6,000 acres in Chase county. This season he has "fed out" about 1,000 head of beeves. During the past fifteen years he has been experimenting with cattle, and has added to the long established breed a new one, the Polled Hereford in which the blood of the Hereford and Shorthorn is so amalgamated that the better qualities of both are maintained in a polled animal, with the Hereford colors and Shorthorn shape. This breed is now so well established that reliance can be placed upon the transmission of its qualities, and it has caused such interest that without any advertising it has been written up in the papers all over the United States and even in countries as far away as Australia.

Gen. Guthrie has one married daughter, living in Chicago and five sons, two practicing law, one a banker, one a stock farmer, and one still in college, and none of whom, he says, has ever given him cause to lie awake at night wondering where he was.

Francis M. Pearl.

F. M. Pearl is 35 years of age and is an Ohio man by birth. He went to the common schools of his native state until he was 16 years of age, when he started life for himself as water boy on a gravel train on the Pennsylvania railroad. From that he went to work as a section hand and continued in that service for two years. He put in his evenings studying telegraphy, and at the end of that time was proficient enough to run a station, and entered the service of the Baltimore & Ohio R. R. as agent and operator. He continued with the Baltimore & Ohio until 1887, when, on account of poor health, he came west and entered the service of the St. Joseph & Grand Island, for which he worked seven years closing his successful railroad career at Robinson, Kansas. While working for this road he put in his evenings and spare time reading law and in 1894, having passed a satisfactory examination he was admitted to the bar of Brown county. After resigning his position he opened a law office at Robinson, practicing there four years. In December, 1898, he came to Hiawatha and entered upon the practice of his profession. He is now located in the Morrill & Janes bank building, associated with Mr. R. F. Buckles and is considered in equal rank with the attorneys of the Brown county bar. He was married April 3, 1892, to Miss Cordelia Idol, daughter of the late J. M. Idol of Irving township. They have a family of four children, two girls and two boys—Lucile, Lenore, Idol and Sutro. Both Mr. and Mrs. Pearl are members of the St. John's Episcopal Church of Hiawatha. In politics Mr. Pearl was a Democrat but allied himself with the Populist party and has been a delegate to practically all the conventions of that party in Brown county, and was a delegate to the convention which named Gov. Leedy at Abilene in 1896, the one which renominated him at Topeka in 1898, and the one which nominated John Breidenthal at Ft. Scott in 1900. He took an active part in the presidential campaign in this county four years ago, making some of the best speeches made in the county. In 1898 he was the nominee of the Fusion forces in this county for County Attorney and made a very active canvass of the county which made him many friends and acquaintances which have been valuable to him in a business way. He is a member of Hiawatha lodge No. 35 A. F. and A. M., Mt. Horeb chapter No. 46 R. A. M. and of Robinson lodge No. 98 I. O. O. F. and an active supporter and vice president of the Commercial club of Hiawatha.

Robert I. Rea.

Judge Robert Irvin Rea is a Pennsylvanian by birth having been born in Lawrence county that state, Sept. 3, 1844. At the age of six years he moved with the family to what was then the far west, Nodaway county, Missouri and his boyhood days were spent upon a farm in that county. He afterwards attended the Highland University and was attending this school when the war broke out. From here he enlisted in the service of his country and was a part of the Cramer expedition which came down from Iowa and drove the enemy out of southern Iowa and northwest Missouri, he served under this enlistment one year when he re-enlisted in the 13th Kansas Infantry, Co. H., serving as first sergeant until July, 1865. giving a lieutenancy he had earned to a Judge Rea was married to Miss Belle McRoberts on the 16th day of October, 1866 in Graham, Nodaway county, Mo., and they have three children, Ed A., born in 1873, and now a practicing lawyer in Ellis county, Maud E., born in 1880, a teacher in the Hlawatha public schools and Fred I., born in 1884. His party paper pays him the following compliment on the conduct of the affairs at his office at the beginning of the second year of his first term in the probate judge's office: "Judge Rea being a good lawyer and a painstaking man, quick in the dispatch of business, is well suited to the office he has been elected to for the first term by the Republicans of the county. Moreover his disposition to be clever to everybody and treat all alike in the office, has won for him the admiration of all. The right man in the right place."

William F. Shale.

W. F. Shale comes from that good old state which has furnished so many well known men in the professions and public life—Ohio. He was born at Burgoon in that state on June 28, 1866. He attended the common schools of his county until he had mastered their courses and then sought higher learning, going to the Fostoria Academy of that same state where he graduated in 1888. In February of the next year, 1889, he came west and stopped in Doniphan county where he taught school for a year. At the end of this time he came to Brown county where he taught another term of school. Having a natural talent for law, Mr. Shale began reading in the law office of Robert T. Herrick, of Hlawatha and he was admitted to the bar in the year 1892. In 1893 Acting Mayor Sam'l Davis, recognizing the young man's ability as a law student and counsellor appointed him City Attorney Dec. 1st to fill a vacancy then existing. So well did he fill the office and conduct the legal affairs of the city, that he was continued in the office by the changing city administrations until the spring of 1900 when he voluntarily resigned because of other more important as well as more lucrative legal business occupying his time. In 1895 Mr. Shale was elected justice of the peace for Hlawatha and as an illustration of his popularity among his fellow citizens he was nominated by both parties, running on two tickets. April 3rd, 1895, Mr. Shale was married to Miss Lillian Kingery, of his native state Ohio. One child is born to them. Mr. Shale is not much of a "jiner" although he belong to and is at the time of this sketch Senior Warden Hiawatha Lodge, No. 35, Masons. He is a member of the Modern Woodman of America and was three times elected clerk of the camp to which he belonged, it being a position of trust and responsibility. He is secretary of the lodge of Modern Brotherhood of American, being one of its charter members and is chairman of the Law Committee of the Life & Annuity Association of Kansas. Religiously, Mr. Shale and his family are Presbyterians.

A. G. Hobbs.

Judge A. G. Hobbs, who is not only a member of the Brown county bar but has served the county as probate judge, came to the west from far away Maryland. He was born near Baltimore the 4th day of September, 1837. At the age of one year he came with his people to Iowa. In 1844 he again removed, this time to Dephi, Iowa, where he studied law in an office until some time in the 60's when he was admitted to the bar. Judge Hobbs is a self educated man. He carved out his law career for himself while earning a living and reading law betimes until sufficiently able to successfully pass the required examination. In 1857 Judge Hobbs and Miss Emma F. Conner of Delphi, Iowa, were united in marriage. To this union there were eight children born, six of them living, Frank W., David S. and Mollie A. are all living at Spokane, Washington; Mrs. Nellie A. Miles lives at Mason City, Iowa; Mrs. Addie Rogers lives at Union, Iowa, and Charles L. is employed in the offices of the Rock Island railway at Horton. Mrs. Hobbs died in 1880 in Washington County, Kansas. After several years Judge Hobbs was married to Anna Mote of Steele City, Nebraska. They lived together for eleven years when Mrs. Hobbs died at their home in Hiawatha during 1895. No children were born to this marriage. In September, 1897, Judge Hobbs and Miss Lulu A. Arle were married in Hiawatha. Arthur G. Hobbs is a result of this marriage. Judge Hobbs first moved to Horton in 1886—soon after the town started. He lives there now and has a pleasant suite of rooms on the main street where he practices his profession. Religiously all of Judge Hobbs family were raised Methodists, the parents belonging to that denomination and teaching it to the children until they became men and women grown. He is an old time Mason, having joined a lodge in Iowa in the early days. Politically he never sought office, nor held one until elected probate judge of Brown county for the terms 1895 to 1898 inclusive, which office he filled with much credit.

to call his home, having been born at Green Springs, Seneca county, Ohio, August 24, 1864. He came to Brown county on March 4, 1889, and has been engaged in the practice of his profession since that time. Mr. Crockett began his professional career in Ohio, receiving the educational training necessary to become a good lawyer in that state. He read law for the three years Ohio compels her prospective attorneys to do in a law office at Clyde, Ohio, and, although qualified to be admitted to the bar at the end of the prescribed time, he took the lecture course and examinations at Ann Arbor and was afterwards admitted to practice by the Supreme Court of Ohio. For one year Mr. Crockett lived in Toledo, Ohio, and read law in the office of the circuit judge. It was in Toledo, too, Mr. Crockett was married on the 25th day of September, 1890, to Miss Myra Almond of that city. They have one child, Emille Irene Crockett. Mr. Crockett's family are all Presbyterians, members of the church at Horton. Mr. Crockett has been content with one lodge, belonging to the Independent Order of Odd Fellows. He has never been before the public in a political way, although always a republican, but he is at this time a candidate before the Republican County primaries for county attorney.

Robert F. Buckles.

R. F. Buckles, who has been a member of the Brown county bar since 1883, came to this county from Mt. Pulaski, Illinois, in which state he commenced the practice of his profession in 1881. He was born on the 16th day of June, 1850, in Logan county, Illinois, and attended the district school and working on his father's farm as has done so many young men who have obtained prominence in the professional and commercial life. He afterwards attended Eureka college in Illinois, then took a special course at Franklin college, New Athens, Ohio. For three years he taught school and then started to the Iowa State University, from the law department of which institution he graduated in 1880. Soon after coming to this county the leaders of his political party, Republican, recognized the worth and ability of the man and in 1884 he was nominated with scarce any opposition for county attorney and at the following election was successful, serving the county very ably that term. He was also elected by the people as mayor of the city of Hiawatha for the term 1895-97. On the 3rd day of April, 1885, Mr. Buckles and Miss Adeline Rothrock were married. They have two litical favor. He was elected by a handsome majority and is now serving that term. Mr. Archer was after which he studied telegraphy and held a position as operator for three years. In 1875 he came to Kansas and commenced to read law in the office of Simon Conwell at Seneca. He was admitted to bar in 1877 and opened an office at Seneca where he soon rose to the head of the profession. consecutive terms, state senator from Nemaha and Pottawatomie counties and judge of the 22nd Judicial district for one term, 1895 to 1898. Judge Emery was one of the delegates to the Philadelphia convention this year which renominated President McKinley. Judge Emery was married Sept. 19th. 1877 to Miss M. Lou Thompson of Waynesville, Ohio and they have an interesting family of six children, three boys and three girls.

Chas. W. Johnson.

C. W. JOHNSON.

Chas. W. Johnson was born Sept. 19th, 1834 in Hickman county Tenn. He is a son of Hugh and Lucinda Johnson. His father dying when Chas. W. was only six months old his mother afterwards married Benjamin Johnson, a brother of the deceased. After their marriage they moved to Bond county, Illinois where Chas. W. was reared and educated under the tuition of his uncle, the late J. P. Johnson, of Highland. In 1854 Mr. Johnson came to Kansas with his uncle and helped survey the boundary line between Kansas and Nebraska. He returned to Illinois and in 1858 entered McKendree College at Lebanon, where he was a student for two years after which he commenced reading law. Aug. 4th, Herndon, a former law partner of President Lincoln, and in April 1867 was admitted to the bar. In 1869 he moved to Hiawatha, Kansas and opened a law office. From 1874 to 1879 he lived in Atchison but returned to Hiawatha and in 1880 was elected county attorney. Mr. Johnson was married on March 25th 1868 to Miss Annie E. Ogden, of Oswego, New York and their family consists of two sons and three daughters.

He was appointed city attorney of Dayton and held this office for four years. During this time he compiled the city ordinances of Dayton, which compilation is a model of its kind. In 1893 he came to Hiawatha and began the practice here. In 1895 he was appointed assistant attorney general for Brown county by Governor Morrill and made a vigorous prosecution of the violators of the prohibitory law in the county. Last January he was elected secretary of the Brown County Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Company and moved to Morrill where he now resides. Mr. Reber was married in 1882 to Miss Ella Decker, daughter of Mr. David Decker of Leona. They have three sons and one daughter.

James Falloon.

James Falloon is a Canadian by birth having been born near Quebec on the 1st day of July 1846. His boy.

hood days were spent in Ohio however. When the war broke out Mr. Falloon was anxious to enlist but he was small for his age and the mustering officers would not pass him. He determined to go anyway and secured employment as a teamster and for three years and a half belonged to the army of the Cumberland in this capacity. When the war was over he returned to Ohio, ran a produce business in Cincinnati, railroaded it and read law until 1868 when he went to Corsicana, Texas where he was admitted to the practice. In the fall of 1872 he came to St. Joseph, and staid there six months and then moved to Hiawatha and opened an office. He soon secured a good practice and during the past twenty-eight years he has been connected with most of the big litigation in the county. His success in the Bradley, Gold and Bartley murder cases has given him the reputation of being a first class criminal lawyer. Mr. Falloon was married in Hiawatha on November 15th 1874 to Miss Mary I. Jones and they have a family of three boys Arthur L., Waldo W., and Frank G. Four years ago Mr. Falloon was the candidate of the fusion forces for state senator and carried Brown County notwithstanding its Republican majority. He was the fusion nominee for district judge two years ago and although the district gave over two thousand Republican majority Mr. Falloon was beaten by less than three hundred votes. At the Silver Republican Convention in Ft. Scott July 25th 1900 Mr. Falloon was nominated as a presidential elector on the Bryan and Stevenson ticket and this nomination was ratified by the Populists and Democrats in their conventions.

Samuel A. Kingman.

SAMUEL A. KINGMAN.

Among the settlers who came to Brown county in 1857 was Samuel A. Kingman who settled on a farm in the southeastern part of the county. He only tried farming one year and then moved into Hiawatha and opened a law office. He was born in Worthington, Massachusetts on June 28th, 1818 but for eighteen years before coming to Kansas had lived in Kentucky where he taught school, practiced law, served as county clerk and county attorney and as a member of the legislature. Politically he was a Whig until the death of that party when he allied himself with the Republican party. He at once became a power in Brown county politics and in 1859 he was elected a member of the constitutional convention which framed the Wyandotte constitution. At the first election under that constitution he was elected associate justice of the Supreme court and took his seat upon the bench when Kansas came into the Union in 1861. He was re-elected in 1862 but defeated for a renomination in 1864. In 1866 he was nominated and elected chief justice and re-elected in 1872. He resigned on account of ill health in 1877 and moved onto a farm near Topeka. Some years later he moved into Topeka where he now resides.

David Martin:

David Martin was born Oct. 16th, 1837 in Catawaba, Clark county, Ohio. His father was born in London, England; his mother near Bel-til March 1864 in Company C, 129 Ohio Infantry in Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia. He was admitted to the bar in the Supreme Court of Ohio in 1866 and began to practice fast, Ireland. He studied law for several years before his admission to the bar, part of the time in the office of J. Warren Keifer, in Springfield, Ohio. He served from June, 1863 un-at Marysville in Miami County, but in the spring of 1867 removed to Kansas settled at Atchison where he has since resided. He was city attorney of Atchison for three years from 1872 to 1875. In 1880 he was elected district judge of the 2nd Judicial district and was re-elected in 1880. When the district was divided and Doniphan, Brown and Nemaha counties became the Twenty-second district, Judge Martin stayed with the old Second than restricted to Atchison. In April 1895 he was appointed chief justice and elected that fall to fill out the remainder of the term by a majority of more than 80,000. He was a candidate for the Republican nomination in 1896 but the railroad interests of the state demanded and secured his defeat. In addition to the practice of law, Judge Martin is one of the lecturers of the Law School of the State University and every year delivers a course of twenty-five lectures on "Equity Jurisprudence." At the Populist convention held at Ft. Scott July, 25 1900 Judge Martin was unanimously nominated for Associate Justice and this nomination was endorsed by the Democrats and Silver Republicans.

William F. Means.

Judge William F. Means came to the bar of Brown county from Missouri, having been born in DeKalb county that state August 1st 1861. After graduating from the Missouri State University, he came to Brown county in 1887 first settling in the busy city of Horton to follow his chosen profession. He was well thought of by his fellow townspeople who soon accorded him a first place in the law business of the city. A Democratic mayor recognizing his worth and ability appointed him police judge of the city although he was Republican—the mayor was looking for ability in the legal sense and so would not let party lines be drawn and appointed Mr. Means to the office. Although born in Missouri, Mr. Means has always been a Republican. In the fall of 1890, Judge Means was nominated by his party for county attorney and was elected. He moved to Hlawatha and held this office for four years, very acceptably. On June 18, 1890, W. F. Means and Miss Mary Harris, of Horton, Kansas, were married at that place and Miss Mary Harris Means is a child of that marriage. Mrs. Means did not live long however, death claiming her June 8, 1891. On the 6th day of March, 1895, Mr. Means was again united in marriage, this time to Miss Fannle Ingels at her home in Hlawatha, Kansas. Miss Lucile Ingels Means was the name given the little girl that was born to them. Mr. Means' family are members of the Christian church at Hlawatha. He is a lodge man only in a measure—belonging only to the Knights of Pythias and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

Aaron R. May.

Aaron R. May was born in York, Penn. Feb. 28, 1840. He received an Academic course of education and afterwards read law in the office of H. W. Spangler. In 1867 he was admitted to the bar before the Hon. H. J. Fisher, and at once commenced to practice. In 1868 he opened a law office in St. Joseph, Mo., where he practiced until March, 1870, when he located in Hiawatha and formed a co-partnership with Hon. B. F. Kil-ticket and in 1892 was the candidate of his party for Judge of the 9th Judicial District. He returned to Hiawatha in 1896 locating on his farm adjoining town. Mr. May is a member of Hiawatha Lodge No. 35 A. F. & A. M; a charter member of Mt. Horeb Chapter No. 43 R. A. M. and also a charter member of Hiawatha Commandry No. 13, K. T. ley. This partnership continued until July 1880 when it was dissolved and he formed a partnership with the Hon. Ira J. Lacock. Mr. May was County Attorney for Brown Co. during the 71 and 72 and was city attorney of Hiawatha from 1875 to 1880 inclusive. In 1878 he was elected mayor of Hiawatha. In 1886 he removed to Washington, Co. Kansas and opened a law office. In 1890 he was elected County Attorney of Washington County on the Populist

Sample F. Newlon.

Sample F. Newlon, attorney at law, with an office in the First National Bank block, has served Brown county three terms in the office of county attorney. He is now completing the third term. Mr. Newlon was admitted to the bar in this county, coming here from his home in Pennsylvania in the fall of 1882, and after reading law for a time in the office of James Falloon in 1883 he was properly admitted to practice his profession in the several courts of the state. Mr. Newlon is a Pennsylvanian by birth, having been born not far from Pittsburg in that state. After receiving the education of the district schools of his county he went to college in Alliance, Ohio, where he was taught the higher branches. From there he was advanced to the Pennsylvania State Normal School at Millersburg where he took a thorough law course and after graduating there came to Brown county as above stated. In 1886 the Republican party gave him the nomination for county attorney and he was elected to that office in the general election in November. In 1896 he was again nominated by the Republicans and elected, being reelected in 1898. Sample F. Newlon and Miss Elizabeth Norman were married at her home in Alliance, Ohio, and to them a baby girl was born. She only living to the age of fourteen months. Mrs. Newlon died at their home in Hiawatha in November, 1892. As a "jiner" Mr. Newlon has contented himself with being a Knights of Pythias, valuable to the lodge and esteemed among his brothers. He is a member of Diamond Lodge, No. 236, K. of P. of this city. Religiously he comes from that sturdy old stock of Pennsylvania Methodism, having been born and raised in that denomination.

Albert H. Horton.

On October 31st, 1861, Gov. Robinson appointed Albert H. Horton, of Atchison, judge of the Second judicial district. Judge Horton opened court in Hiawatha on November 4th and held one term a year here until 1866 when he resigned the judgeship to accept the city attorneyship of the city of Atchison. Judge Horton was born near Brookfield, New York, March 12, 1837. He attended the public schools and the Farmers Hall Academy in New York and in 1855 entered the University of Michigan where he remained two years. He was admitted to the bar in 1859 and the next year came west and located at Atchison. He was appointed city attorney for Atchison in 1860 and elected to that position in 1861. In 1861 he was appointed district judge for the Second judicial district and was twice elected to this position which he resigned to resume his practice. In 1868 he was a presidential elector and was selected as messenger to carry the Kansas vote to Washington. In 1869 he was appointed United States district attorney and resigned this position in 1873. That fall he was elected to the legislature and in 1876 was elected state senator. In January, 1877, he was appointed chief justice to succeed Samuel A. Kingman, who had resigned. He was elected that fall and reelected in 1878, 1884 and 1890. In 1895 he resigned as chief justice to enter the law firm of Wagner, Horton & Orr.

Ira J. Lacock.

No member of the Brown County bar has been more intimately connected with the growth and prosperity of Brown County than was Capt. Ira J. Lacock. When the first regular term of court was opened in the county on April 16th, 1860. Mr. Lacock, then a young man fresh from college, was present and was enrolled as a member of the bar and for more than forty years he was identified with every public enterprise in the county. Mr. Lacock was a Pennsylvanian by birth and education—a graduate of Washington college in that state. He came to Hiawatha a Democrat but affiliated with the Republican party during the war and remained a member of that organization until his death. He was elected to the legislature in 1862, reelected in 1863 and elected for a third time in 1865. It was during this third term that an effort was made by the railroad companies to steal the school lands. Mr. Lacock resisted the steal. His constituents, who wanted a railroad beyond all things else held an indignation meeting and demanded his resignation which was at once tendered. The appreciation in which he was held by his fellow members was abundantly shown by the letter that twenty-seven of them signed and forwarded to him on that occasion, a copy of which will be found on page 50 of these "Annals." Time has thoroughly vindicated Mr. Lacock's action on that occasion and his friends proudly point to it as the grandest act in his whole life. Soon after this incident Mr. Lacock purchased the Union Sentinel and for nearly a year gave the people of the county an exceedingly interesting paper. He was elected county attorney three times—in 1862, 1878 and again in 1888. He was a Mason, belonging to the lodge, the chapter and the commandry. For a number of years he was master of Hiawatha lodge, No. 35, and the thoroughness with which he did his work won for him the admiration of all his masonic brethren. In 1870 he was elected by the grand lodge a custodian of the work for the jurisdiction of Kansas. Mr. Lacock was a very methodical man. For years before his death he did a large business for eastern friends who had interests in Brown County and his scrupulous honesty and attention to business were characteristic in a marked degree. He was a very sympathetic man and a tale of suffering or want would always open his purse. It is no exaggeration to say that he gave away more in charity each year than any man in Hiawatha. His was the kind of charity, however, that the public knew little or nothing about. It was a common thing for him to go into a store and order a bill of goods sent to some deserving family. These things never got into the newspapers and very often the recipients of his charity did not know who was their benefactor. Soon after coming to Hiawatha Mr. Lacock was married to Miss Clista Babbitt, daughter of Judge J. F. Babbitt. Three children were born to them but all have been dead for a number of years. Capt. Lacock's library was his pride. Among other things he kept a file of the Brown County papers which were carefully bound each year. This file he presented to the Academy a couple of years ago. It is the only complete file in existence and without it the "Annals of Brown County" could not have been compiled. Capt. Lacock died suddenly June 18th, 1900. He was addressing a meeting at the court house when without an instant's warning he dropped to the floor dead. The members of the bar passed the following resolutions, which will be spread upon the court records as a testimonial of their esteem:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Great Law Giver to call to his court our esteemed Brother, Ira J. Lacock, and

WHEREAS, His wife has suffered an irreparable loss; the community an energetic and useful citizen, and this, the Brown County, Kansas, bar the oldest and most brilliant member. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we extend to his widow our heartfelt sympathy, and the thought that his many virtues will be a solace to her in this hour of her sad bereavement. That though his removal from this court to that of the Supreme Judge leaves a place that cannot be filled, yet we, the survivors of this bar, will ever cherish his memory and strive to emulate his many virtues.

Resolved, Further, That we adjourn in a body to attend his funeral

That a copy of these Resolutions be presented to his widow, be published in the county newspapers, and be presented to our district court to be spread at large on its journal.

Witness the bar by its committee.

Flintoft Smith.

Flintoft Smith was born at Sarnia, Ontario, Canada, December 27, 1863, the son of a Canadian clergyman. He received his education at Kingston Collegiate Institute and Victoria College. After leaving college he located in Wayne county, New York, and studied law. Was admitted to the bar 1885. Came west on a trip in the summer of 1888 and decided to locate and went to Horton in October, 1888, where he has since been engaged in the practice of his profession. In December, 1888, W. F. Means and Flintoft Smith formed a partnership—Means & Smith, and continued in business together at Horton until, 1891, when Mr. Means was elected county attorney and moved to Hiawatha, after which the firm continued but maintained an office in each town, and in the general practice of their profession have had a reasonable success. Mr. Smith was married to Miss Lottie Sours, of Wayne county, New York, and has one child, Gray R. Smith.

Col. E. Bierer.

Colonel Everard Bierer was among the early settlers of Brown County. Although he did not remove here until October, 1865, when he located on a farm one mile east of Hiawatha. He had been here, however, in 1857 and made investments in real estate and returned to the east again. He is a Pennsylvanian, having been born in Unlontown, January 9, 1827. After receiving an education in the district and private schools of his county Col. Bierer was sent to the Madison college of his place where he graduated in the higher mathematics, the sciences, languages and English literature. After leaving college he read law in the office of Joshua B. Howell of his native city and was admitted to the bar in 1848, being only twenty-one years of age. Always a patriotic citizen it was but natural that when the war broke out Col. Bierer was interested in the cause of the union and on April 18, 1861, he quit the lawyer's office and organized a company of volunteers and entered the service of the United States as Captain of Co. F, 11th Regiment of Pennsylvania Reserve Volunteer Corps. He served in the Army of the Potomac and when the whole of Fitz John Porter's corps was broken and retiring Captain Bierer rallied part of the regiment with his company and was captured with his command June 2, 1862, and taken to Libby Prison, from which he was released August 14th of that year. Returning to the army he was severely wounded in the battle of South Mountain September 14, 1862, from which wound he is crippled in his left arm for life. Becoming convalescent on October 24th he was appointed Commandant of Camp Curtin, Harrisburg, Pa.; with the rank of colonel. Here he organized the 171st, 172nd, 173rd, 176th, 177th and 178th Regiments, Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, and November 18th was commissioned colonel of the 171st. September 26, 1863, he was mustered out of the service with his regiment. In January, February and March, 1864, Colonel Bierer served in the Veteran Reserve Corps, but resigned his command and retired permanently from the army. Although he was never a politician in the common understanding of that term as to having sought office—numberless times have the friends in the party to which he belonged insisted he make the race for office. In 1850 he was elected the first district attorney of Fayette county, Pennsylvania. In 1864 the Republicans made him the nominee for Presidential elector in Pennsylvania and he was elected. In 1867, two years after removing to this county, he was elected representative from the eleventh district to the Kansas legislature and once he made the race for congress in this district. On April 8, 1852, Col. Everard Bierer and Ellen Smouse were married at Brownsville, Fayette County, Pa. To them eight children were born, six sons and two daughters. Col. and Mrs. Bierer are both members of the Congregational church of Hiawatha. As a lodge man Col. Bierer belongs to the Masons and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

NEWSPAPERS AND EDITORS.

Brown County was detached from Doniphan County and given a separate organization in 1857 but it was more than four years before she had a newspaper published within her borders. Sol Miller's paper, The Chief, published at White Cloud did duty as an official county organ most of the time though in 1860 the publication of the tax list was given to the Champion at Atchison. It was not till May 1861, when Dr. P. G. Parker having secured the material of the defunct Doniphan County Dispatch at Troy began the publication of the Brown County Union at Hiawatha that the newspaper history of the county begins. Levi Morrill a brother of Gov. E. N. Morrill was the printer who took the first copy from the old rusty hand press and handed it to Jacob Weltmer who preserved it for many years as a souvenir. The office was located in the dwelling house of H. M. Robinson on the ground where C. H. Lawrence's two story brick now stands. The Union ran until Jan. 3rd, 1862 when the office was destroyed by fire and no effort was made to revive the publication. So far as can be ascertained there is not a single copy of the paper in existence.

The Chief again became the official paper of Brown County and continued as such until August 20th, 1864, when H. P. Stebbins began the publication of the Union Sentinel. It supported Lincoln and Johnson and was anti-Lane in state politics all for $2 00 per year payable strictly in advance. Ira J. Lacock furnished the money to buy the material for the plant. Mr. Stebbins continued as editor of the Sentinel until August 16th, 1866, when he was succeeded by Ira J. Lacock and J. W. Oberholtzer.

Mr. Lacock had just passed through an unpleasant experience in the legislature in which his Brown County constituents had demanded and secured his resignation as a member of the House because he would not vote to loot the school fund in the interests of certain railroad corporations and as might be expected under the circumstances he proceeded to make the Sentinel both breezy and aggressive.

On November 7, 1867, David Downer purchased the Sentinel of Messrs. Lacock and Oberholtzer and continued its editor and publisher until October 1st, 1870 when it quietly breathed its last. A. N. Ruley afterwards purchased the material for $290 00 and shipped it to the St. Louis Type Foundry.

On April 30, 1870 A. N. Ruley began the publication of the Hiawatha Dispatch and continued as its editor until April 4th, 1878 when it passed into the hands of W. T. Stewart who in March, 1882, sold out to D. W. Wilder, J. B. Campbell and Cyrus B. Bowman who changed the name to the Hiawatha World and later to the Brown County World.

Mr. Ruley in his Directory and Reference Book published in 1892 states that the Dispatch had no connection with the Union Sentinel so that the attempt sometimes made to claim the successor of the Dispatch as a legitimate offspring of the old Union Sentinel is a gross perversion of the newspaper history of the county.

Bowman soon retired from the World and J. B. Campbell disposed of his interest August 4, 1884 to M. E. Foote. Foote did not continue with the paper long and Mr. Wilder continued as the sole proprietor until March 1889 when Ewing Herbert, the present proprietor took control. From August 31, 1891 until May 1, 1892 the World ran a daily edition and again in 1899 it ran a daily for a few months.

June 21, 1874, Davis and Watson began the publication of the Brown County Advocate at Hiawatha. It started as an independent paper but soon landed in the Republican camp. July 23, 1874, Watson retired and S. L. Roberts took his place. February 20, 1875, D. L. Burger became interested in the publication. On October 9th, 1875, A. T. McCreary became a member of the firm and the name of the publication was changed to the Kansas Herald. In April 1876 McCreary retired from the firm and Burger and Roberts again took control.

On August 16, 1877, D. L. Burger sold his interest to M. E. Foote who on May 14, 1882, sold to T. L. Brundage. In April 1883 Mr. Brundage became the sole proprietor and on Nov. 29, disposed of his subscription books and business to the World and moved the machinery to Sabetha.

On September 7, 1878, the North Kansan, the first anti-Republican paper in the county made its appearance at Hiawatha. It was started by a stock company of which Col. E. Bierer was president and H. B. Coryell was secretary. W. F. Gordon was editor and publisher and the politics of the paper was advertised as Democratic Greenback. On December 14, Mr. Gordon was succeeded by J. P. Mulhoolen, H. C. Wey and Albert Lawrence as editors and G. R. Propper as foreman. This arrangement was continued until January 4, 1879, when C. B. Ellis took charge of the publication, ran it one week as a weekly, changed it to a semi-weekly, issued two numbers and then suspended publication.

The second attempt to run a Democratic paper was made by Geo. P. Christie and E. G. Moore who started the Kansas Sun June 7, 1879. Moore withdrew July 18, but Christie continued the publication until October 27, 1880 when it flickered out. John L. Parker bought up the machinery and took it to Highland.

December 10, 1881, S. R. and J. M. Wharton started the publication of the Weekly Messenger at Hiawatha. September 5, 1883, Geo. T. Williams began the publication of the Kansas Democrat. The two merged into the present Democrat, January 26, 1884, under the management of Williams and Bowman. Bowman soon retired and Williams remained the sole proprietor until March 20, 1890, when he sold the publication to Ben F. Hildebrand. On July 5, 1892, Mr. Hildebrand was succeeded by Grant W. and Wynne P. Harrington. W. P. Harrington retired from the paper in 1894 leaving Grant W. Harrington the sole proprietor.

February 17th, 1887 W. T. Stewart and E. J. Patch began the publication of the Free Press, a non-partisan paper at Hiawatha. July 14th Stewart retired and on Aug. 14th the paper declared itself a Republican organ. It suspended March 9th 1888.

On May 23rd 1889 Geo. W. Remegan started the Hiawatha Journal as a Republican paper. With the advent of the Alliance came a change in the policy of the paper which became the recognized organ of the Peoples Party. On Dec. 15th, 1890 Mr. Remegan sold out to the Journal Publishing Co , but remained for some time as manager for the company. He was succeeded by Geo. Holbein who remained in charge until May 10th 1891 when he was succeeded by Frank Moore. For a while during the campaign of 1892 H. A. White had charge of the paper but the management was soon restored to Mr. Moore. On Dec. 15th 1892 the Journal Publishing Company sold the paper to Ben F. Hildebrand who continued its publication until June 1895 when his interest was purchased by Grant W. Harrington who merged the Journal into the Democrat.

HORTON.

The first newspaper in Horton was the Headlight, issued October 29, 1886, by Brundige & Bear. It had a clear field for nearly a year and on October 3, 1887, began the publication of a dally. The daily issue was suspended September 6, 1888. Shortly after this Sam Bear disposed of his interest to Brundige, and in 1890 the Headlight and Telegram were consolidated under the name of Headlight with H. W. Brundige and H. E. Whitaker proprietors. The next year Brundige sold his interest to Will Clark and after a partnership of about six months Clark sold to Whitaker. In January, 1893, Harry Whitaker sold the Headlight to J. P. Dodds and C. J. Needham, of Sigourney, Iowa, who remained in control of it until February 13, 1894, when the plant was purchased by L. H. Smyth. Mr. Smyth remained in charge of the paper until 1897, when his interest was purchased by Bert Howard, the present proprietor.

On October 8, 1887, the Commercial was issued by Sherdeman & Co., with Will A. Powers as editor and manager. Mr. Powers was soon succeeded by Clyde McManigal, who became the sole proprietor of the paper December, 1892.

On January 19, 1899, Chas. R. Johnson and Lorin Law began the publication of the Semi-Weekly Leader, making the third paper in Horton.

Horton has also had her full quota of short lived papers. The first of these was the Gazette, issued June 1, 1887, as a semi-weekly by C. C. Barthuff. It suspended May 2, 1889, and the machinery was moved to Wathena.

On September 16, 1888, the Dally and Weekly Register appeared with Whitaker & Whitaker as editors. The dally suspended May 2 of the next year. On June 6, 1889, C. N. Whitaker disposed of his interest in the Register to A. B. Crockett. Mr. Crockett retired from the management January 23, 1890. The paper in the mean time had changed its name to the Telegram and on March 1st consolidated with the Headlight.

On January 1, 1889, the Brown County Star, a union labor organ, appeared with Fred Starr as proprietor and A. S. Abbott as editor. Abbott did not stay with the venture long and on February 12th began the publication of a labor paper called the People's Banner. Both ventures were short lived.

In 1896 W. C. Atkins started a chicken paper known as the Poultry Farmer, but it only ran a few months.

ROBINSON.

The first newspaper published in Robinson was owned by a stock company composed of business men. Dave Alley was editor and the first issue occured April 6, 1883. The paper was a three-column, four-page affair, size 9x12, Republican in politics. This venture ran for about six months, when the material was sold to satisfy outstanding claims and was bid in by N. F. Leslie, who was treasurer of the company.

In October, 1884, the Robinson Record was launched with N. F. Leslie as editor and N. O. Pierce as mechanical supervisor. During March, 1885, the Record gave up the ghost and the material was sold to A. N. Ruley, of Hiawatha, and later the plant went to Cuba, Kansas.

August 14, 1891, E. J. Patch issued the first number of the Robinson Reporter, a seven-column folio. This paper went the way of the others in March, 1892. The material was sold to parties in White Cloud.

July 7, 1893, Pool Grinstead issued the first number of the Index and continued the publication until January 1, 1894, when C. R. Arries purchased the plant and assumed editorial control. Arries continued in the work until February 1, 1899, at which time N. F. Leslie and H. M. Leslie bought the plant and took charge.

MORRILL.

Until July 5, 1882, Hiawatha was the only town in the county with a newspaper. On that date the Wharton Bros. started the Morrill Journal. It proceeded to fill the long felt want until the 18th of October when it suspended.

On July 9, 1886, Price & Shelton issued the Brown County Herald, but it only lasted six weeks.

On April 4, 1890, Pool Grinstead, having purchased the Hamlin News Gleaner, moved it to Morrill and began the publication of the Morrill News. Grinstead soon afterwards sold the paper to C. E. Stains, who continued its publication until November, 1891, when Chas. E. Dyche took charge of it. After a little more than a year Mr. Grinstead again took charge of the paper. In November, 1897, he sold the paper again to A. H. Eichelberger, who sold it to Mrs. Jennie McMillan, the present editor, July 1, 1898.

On December 9, 1894, T. K. Sawyer began the publication of the Morrill Indicator. He was succeeded by S. A. Haldeman and A. H. Eichelberger, who continued the publication until 1895, when finding it unprofitable they suspended publication and the machinery was moved to Netawaka.

EVEREST.

The first paper in Everest was the Reflector. It was issued June 5, 1883, with B. H. Patch as publisher and Bert Patch as editor. It ran until January 28, 1887, when it suspended publication. The machinery was moved to Hiawatha and used in the publication of the Free Press.

In 1888 Lowe & Green purchased the material and on March 9th issued Vol. 1, No. 1 of the Everest Enterprise. After running nine months the office caught fire and burned down. In the spring of 1889 the business men of Everest purchased a new plant and loaned it to J. B. Green, who resurrected the Enterprise. In the summer of 1890 Chas. R. Johnson bought a half interest in the plant. The next year N. F. Hess bought the paper and ran it until February, 1895, when he sold out to Chas. R. Johnson, who on December 1, 1897, sold to the present proprietor, L. A. Irsik.

HAMLIN.

July 20, 1889, Henry B. Barnes began the publication of the Hamlin News Gleaner. He continued its publication until March 29, 1890, when Pool Grinstead purchased the plant and moved it to Morrill and started the Morrill News.

FAIRVIEW.

On March 26, 1888, Col. S. O. Groesbeck issued the first number of the Fairview Enterprise and he has remained in continued and uninterrupted proprietorship ever since.

On the 29th of September, 1893, the Fairview Courier began its career with Eugene L. Smith and Cora Zook Smith as editors and proprietors. It was Republican in politics. On August 17, 1894, the paper passed into the control of the Fairview Publishing Co., but the Smiths were continued as its editors. This arrangement lasted until April 1, 1895, when the paper was sold to Chas. A. and H. J. Calnan who changed it to an Independent paper. On July 1st the Powhattan Post was consolidated with the Courier and the two ran as one paper until July, 1897, when H. J. Calnan resumed the publication of the Post at Powhattan, leaving Chas. A. Calnan the sole proprietor of the Courier, who continued to run it until the Fairview fire in 1899, which closed its career.

POWHATTAN.

On May 5, 1894, Chas. B. Walker began the publication of the Powhattan Post. He was succeeded on November 23rd by H. J. Calnan, who continued the publication of the paper until the next July, when he consolidated it with the Fairview Courier. In July, 1897, Mr. Calnan resumed the publication of the Post at Powhattan.

WILLIS.

Two efforts have been made to establish a paper in Willis. The first was on June 1, 1883, when J. M. Wharton issued the Willis Reporter. The second was in 1897, when W. A. Huff started the Willis Journal. Both ventures were short lived.

H. P. Stebbins.

H. P. Stebbins came to Kansas in 1859. In the fall of 1858 helped to build the telegraph line from Boonville, Mo., to Kansas City and Leavenworth. In August, 1859, he commenced setting type at Leavenworth. He began the publication of the Union Sentinel August 20, 1864, keeping it up for two years, doing all the work himself, job work, type setting, press work, rolling, etc. On August 16, 1866, he sold his interest in the Sentinel to Ira J. Lacock and J. W.

Oberholtzer and shook the dust of Brown County off his feet.

Dr. P. G. Parker.

The pioneer editor of Brown County was Dr. P. G. Parker, who began the publication of the Brown County Union in May, 1861. The paper ran until January 3, 1862, when the office was destroyed by fire. Dr. Parker entered the army as assistant surgeon of the 10th Kansas. He died some years ago at Louisburg, in Miami county.

A. N. Ruley.

A. N. Ruley was born near Lexington, Rockbridge County, Old Virginia, on February 6, 1837. His father, John B. Ruley, had there owned a farm, but as it was situated at the foot of the mountain, was rather rough as to topography, hills and gullies abounding, so that when the rains came the water rushed down with such velocity and in such volumes that the soil in time washed away leaving only rocky hills, and one by one the fields were abandoned and turned out to grow up with brush and briars. Thus the good land left had been reduced to such a small area that it became impossible to make a living upon it for so large a family—father, mother, two girls and seven boys. So, having heard wonderful stories of the possibilities of the west, arrangements were soon completed and the old farm forsaken. In the fall of 1845 the family made the trip across the Alleghanes to Highland county, Ohio, and in 1847 from there to Grant county, Indiana. Here in this wet and timbered country A. N. Ruley made his farming record assisting in cleaning off the trees and spice brush from wild land and making farms, supporting the family until 1856. The father having died and two older brothers having gone west to Oregon, Holt county, Missouri, he with the remainder of the family followed, where he entered the employment of his brother who conducted a clothing store and the postoffice. Tiring of this he set up a small business for himself which he continued until the fall of 1859, when the approach of war cut short circulation of money and paralyzed all business. Then he returned to Indiana and was there when Ft. Sumpter was fired upon, and returned to Missouri about August 1, 1861. At this time war was well on and business at a stand still. A confederate camp had been established at Rochester, in Andrew county, and a union army under command of Lieut. Governor Edwards, of Iowa, had crossed into Missouri and was headed towards Rochester. A company of Union men had been organized in Oregon but feared to start for the Union camp for the reason that the Confederate element predominated and companies of them were daily drilling near the town. Mr. Ruley, growing restless under the situation, found a young friend of like feeling, one C. W. Bowman, who was afterwards editor of the Holt County Sentinel, and they conceived a way out. There had been stowed away for years in a building several boxes of old flint-lock muskets and pouches used out on the borders in the Indian troubles and left in charge of old Col. Kelly, a prominent man of the place. These had been distributed among the Union men, and Ruley and Bowman having made arrangements with others to meet them at various places and secured some of these guns, and after moulding bullets until noon slipped out of town, followed a creek a couple of miles and into the big road north and by ten o'clock that night the army of Ruley and Bowman had increased to twelve men on foot and what was dubbed the flying dutchman on a pony, all armed with these old flint-lock muskets, wading the Nodaway river opposite Wiig Valley to make a junction with the Iowa Union forces. That night, one Vinsonhaler, at whose well the party had stopped for water, being a loyal man hitched up his team and hauled the warriors until daylight was approaching when, fearing to be caught in such business, he turned back. The party pursued their course, and although having sighted a detachment of the Union forces on their way to Maryville early in the forenoon did not overtake them until Maryville was reached at sundown. This little band was followed by disloyal farmers on horseback with corn knives and was warned all along route that they would be attacked, but they pursued their course, keeping the powder in the pans dry and their eyes to the rear as well as to the front. When the main army had been reached, the march made on to St. Joseph, and the town found sacked and the enemy gone south, tents were pitched in Pateetown, and in a few days a Major Kelly came down from Oregon and took Ruley and Bowman home, formed a company, entered the service in Col Kimball's regiment and went into camp in Savannah, Mo.

From this time on Mr. Ruley was in service of some kind until its close, with the exception of one winter when he taught the primary department of the Oregon public schools, although not out side of the state. He was orderly sergeant in one service and first lieutenant in another, was on horseback most of the time in much scouting and racing after bushwhackers. He served for a while as assistant aid de camp on General Craig's staff, with headquarters at the Patee Hotel, St. Joseph. Was deputy provost marshal under Capt. William Fowler for Holt and Atchison counties, keeping up the enrollment of these counties, furnishing the lists of headquarters at St. Joseph, assisting in running the draft in the old Occidental Hotel of St. Joseph and serving the draft notices and collecting the drafted men. He also held the position of registration officer.

At the close of the war he served a term as district clerk and ex-officio recorder and held various little positions of trust, school offices, city clerk, district deputy grand master of I. O. O. F., and editor and publisher of the Holt County Sentinel, the county paper and organ of the Republican party, which he sold in 1869 and came to Hiawatha March, 1870. On April 3, 1870, he issued the first number of the Hiawatha Dispatch, now the World, the name being changed by Wilder, Campbell & Bowman when they purchased the plant from W. T. Stewart, Mr. Ruley's successor.

After worrying through two grasshopper years at an every day loss Mr. Ruley sold the Dispatch to W. T. Stewart April 4, 1878, at a sacrifice of more than $2000. He was afterwards local editor of the Sun for a year or so, correspondent for several city papers and manager of the opera house from 1881, the year it was completed, until 1895. He held a small position at the Topeka asylum from July 1, 1895, to June 15, 1897. Mr. Ruley is the author of a city directory and reference book which is the best of its kind ever issued in the county, and another little book of history and statistics both of which are creditable to his ability as a writer and compiler.

Mr. Ruley has been married three times, February 3, 1869, August 15, 1877, and November 28, 1894. He has two sons and four daughters by the first marriage, all married now, and one child by the last marriage, a girl born in Topeka, December 12, 1895.

L. A. Irsik.

L. A. Irsik, the editor of the Everest Enterprise, was born in Shelbyville, Mo., November 15, 1857. In 1859 his parents drifted down the Mississippi river to St. Louis, and a year later moved to the Marak settlement northwest of Everest. They came as far as St. Joseph on boat and the rest of the way with an ox team. Later they moved to Nemaha county, but returned to Brown county in 1870 and settled on a farm one mile west of Everest. Mr. Irsik received his education in the common schools. In 1881 he and E. M. Kapietz opened a small country store at Marak and when the Missouri Pacific railroad was built through this part of the county in 1882 they moved it to Everest. Was in the mercantile business until the year 1893 with varied success, at one time owning the Jumbo Store, the largest store in Everest. In 1893 he sold out to An-draws & Lyons Bros., and entered into politics. Has been elected township trustee three successive terms, mayor of Everest once, and elected to various other offices. He now controls the insurance business of Everest and vicinity. Is clerk of the M. W. A. and has been for seven years, also secretary of the F. A. A. In 1883 he was married to Francis Milinowsky and has four children living. On December 1, 1897, he bought the Enterprise.

Henry J. Calnan.

Henry J. Calnan, the editor of the Powhattan Post, was born November 17, 1858 in Boston, Massachusetts. He learned the printing business when a boy and worked on all the principal daily papers in the west. When he was twenty-two he commenced to fire a locomotive engine on the C., B. & Q. and kept it up for three years when he was promoted to be an engineer. He ran a locomotive on different railroads in this country and Mexico until the fall of 1894, when he came to Powhattan and bought the Post. The following spring he bought the Fairview Courier and consolidated the Post with it at Fairview. This arrangement did not last long and he soon returned to Powhattan and revived the Post once more. He has made money out of the business and owns a good two-story building in Powhattan which he uses for an office and residence. Although he never expects to go on the railroad again he still retains his membership in the Order of Locomotive Engineers and is an honorary member of the lodge at Horton. During his railroad career he was in a number of wrecks but was fortunate in escaping without any serious injuries. In 1895 Mr. Calnan was married to Miss Martha Swisher, of Powhattan. They have one child, a son.

Benjamin F. Hildebrand.

Benjamin F. Hildebrand, who is the subject of this sketch, came into the newspaper history of Brown County on March 20, 1890 when he purchased the DEMOCRAT of Geo. T. Williams. He came from Pawnee City, Nebraska, where he had been running the only Democratic paper the county ever had. So successfully had his efforts made that paper several times were negotiations opened for it by prospective purchasers, which being finally successful Mr. Hildebrand moved to Hiawatha for a larger field. Mr. Hildebrand was born a farmer's boy on the prairies of Iowa near South English in Keokuk county on February 14, 1864. He only received a district school education until he went to learn the printing trade with A. E. and J. N. Hassler of Pawnee City, Nebraska at the age sixteen—his parents having moved to Pawnee county in 1878. It was there he "graduated" from the printing trade. Under skilled printers who took an interest in the "boy."

In 1888 he succeeded to the business himself. On June 14, 1888 he and Miss Minnetta Moore were married at Pawnee City. A BROWN COUNTY PIONEER.

"A gentleman who made the trip in 1849, afterwards related that while his party, consisting of thirty men, were camped near the head of Drummond's Branch, he, with the others, started out in search of game, and as they came upon the high prairie in sight of the timber at the northwest and at the south, they discovered a small herd of buffalo, and, after a short chase, succeeded in killing one in the timber nearly east of where Hiawatha now stands. From this description of the point where the buffalo was first discovered, it would seem that it must have been on or near the present site of Hiawatha; and the wood where it was killed was probably on or near the farm now owned by Dr. Seburn."—Morrill's History of Brown County, page 16.

Geo. T. Williams.

George T. Williams who founded the DEMOCRAT writes the following characteristic sketch from his Arkansas home:

"I was born and 'brought up' in Lewis County Missouri. Was born in 1857. Learned the "Art Preservative" as "devil" and chief factotem of broom and scuttle in the office of the La Grange Democrat where I served for seven years, advancing to the position of foreman, and was for several months editor. I was impressed with the notion that I could better my condition in the west. For a short time I set type by the thousand on the Saturday Democrat at St. Joseph, of which Geo. King was the editor John B. Campbell of the Brown county World discovered me and induced me to remove to Hiawatha as foreman of that paper. In this position I remained six months, severing my connections with the World to take a position with the Messenger, Sam Wharton owner and editor. rolls. I purchased the plant from good natured Tom Brown, the jolly farmer and capitalist and the principal creditor of the Messenger. In September 1883 I issued the first number of the Hiawatha DEMOCRAT. The paper was a success from the beginning and I am glad to say is still a popular and successful journal. Owing to my ill health I sold the paper in 1890 to Ben F. Hildebrand and came south, locating at Florence, Alabama, where I purchased an interest in the Herald and was made business manager. I disposed of my interest in the Herald in the early part of 1891, and came to Fort Smith. I purchased an interest in the Weekly Elevator and for nearly ten years have been actively identified with the business and editorial management of the paper. The Elevator is the political organ for Democracy of this section of Arkansas, has a circulation of 7500, and I am happy to state has been a paying investment.

THE BROWN COUNTY FAIR

The Brown County fair is an old settler. It came early and has endured all the trials and vicissitudes of the pioneers. It has prospered when the county prospered and suffered along with the rest of the community in the days of grasshoppers and the drouth. It has been an advertiser for the county second to none and its annual exhibit of fine cattle, horses and hogs, golden grain and luscious fruits has told the story of a rich and prosperous community and has spread our fame both far and wide.

These Annals record the fact that on June 11th, 1864 there was a meeting at the Court House to organize a County agricultural society. Ira J. Lacock presided and Wm. Hunter was secretary. Subsequent meetings were held and a constitution adopted which provided that any person might become a member by paying a dollar into the treasury. Ninety-two members were secured that year.

The first fair was held in the Court House October 13th and 14th, 1864. J. F. Babbitt was president, E. L. Pound was secretary and H. M. Robinson was superintendent. Jacob Englehart, W. B. Dickinson, S. W. Swazey, A. K. Youart, Thomas Ellis, Gregory Amann, J. G. Kelsey, I. B. Hoover, Mrs. B. F. Killey, Mrs. E. L. Pound and Mrs. W. B. Barnett were the superintendents of the various departments. On the second day Judge A. H. Horton delivered an address.

Every year since then, with two exceptions, there has been a fair in Brown county. In 1874 the grasshoppers, and in 1893 the World's Fair caused a year to be missed.

The organization perfected in 1864 was known as the Brown County Agricultural Society. It was a loose jointed organization. Any one who paid a dollar a year could be enrolled as a member and the election of officers was a feature of the last day's exercise each year. In 1865 fifteen acres of ground were purchased of W. B. Barnett, the same being a part of the present fair grounds. No buildings were erected and the fairs were held in a tent.

In 1874 the officers discovered that the organization had never been chartered and they proceeded to charter the Brown County Agricultural, Horticultural and Mechanical Association. This organization ran the fairs until 1880 when the Brown County Exposition Association was chartered and fell heir to the assets of the old Agricultural, Horticultural and Mechanical Association.

The Brown County Exposition Association had a capital stock and shares were sold at $10.00, the proceeds being used to buy more land and erect an exposition hall and other buildings. The improvements made exceeded in cost the money secured from the sale of stock and the grounds were mortgaged to cover the difference. Seventeen years experience convinced the stock holders that fair associations were not money making concerns and the stock holders decided to let the grounds go to satisfy the indebtedness.

This led to the forming of a new Association and in 1897 the Brown County Fair Association was formed with a paid up capital stock of $3,000.

This was divided into 30 shares of $100 each and were taken up by thirty citizens who were anxious to see a successful fair maintained in Brown County. This Association purchased the grounds at sheriff's sale and the fair this year is the fourth one held under its auspices.

The following table will show the dates when fairs have been held and the lists of presidents and secretaries under whose auspices they were conducted.

OUR LEADING CITIZEN.

Every county has its leading citizen. The man who by common consent is recognized as holding that position of honor in the community. The man who is preeminent as a leader in public enterprises, whose influence has always been for the betterment of the community and whom the people have honored with positions of trust and profit. That position in Brown county will be accorded without question to Governor Edmund N. Morrill. Pioneer settler, Territorial legislator, soldier, successful business man, state senator, member of Congress, Governor of Kansas—such a combination of honors will never fall to the lot of another citizen of Brown county.

Major Morrill, as he is familiarly known, was born in Westbrook, Cumberland county, Maine, February 12, 1834. His education was received in the common schools of the town and in the Westbrook Seminary. His father, Rufus Morrill, was a tanner and currier by trade and this business was taught to the son. In 1856 young Morrill at the age of twenty-two was elected a member of the board of school supervisors for his native town for a term of three years. He resigned this office at the end of one year to come to Kansas. He tells with pride that one of his official acts as a member of this board was to grant a certificate to Thomas B. Reed authorizing the future speaker of the House of Representatives to teach school.

In 1857 Mr. Morrill joined a colony which left the Pine Tree State to found a new settlement in the Territory of Kansas. The party headed for Brown county and settled a few miles west of where Hiawatha now stands. Here they laid out a town which they named Hamlin in honor of Hannibal Hamlin, then a senator from Maine. Mr. Morrill took a claim of one hundred and sixty acres near the town which, when the land came into the market, he bought from the government at $1.25 per acre. Here he erected a saw mill and began the manufacture of native lumber. This mill though burned out was rebuilt and successfully operated for three years.

In the fall of 1857 the Free State men determined to capture the legislative machinery of the territory and Mr. Morrill was picked on as the proper man to make the race for the legislature in the district composed of Brown and Nemaha counties and a committee was sent to notify him that he was the nominee. At the election which followed he received 136 votes in Brown county and 145 in Nemaha county against 72 in Brown and 38 in Nemaha for his Pro Slavery opponent E. M. Hubbard. Such was Mr. Morrill's introduction to Brown county and to the politics of Kansas.

In the territorial legislature he helped to repeal the "Bogus Laws" and distinguished himself in an effort to get under headway a movement to create a state out of the northern half of Kansas and the Nebraska territory south of the Platte river. In January 1858 he was elected to the legislature under the Lecompton constitution but as that movement failed no sessions were ever held.

When the war broke out Mr. Morrill enlisted. He was mustered into the service as a private in Company C of the Seventh Kansas cavalry on October 5th 1861. On October 10th he was promoted to the rank of sergeant and on August 9th 1862 he was commissioned commissary of subsistence while at Rienza, Mississippi by President Lincoln. He was with General Grant at Corinth and at the expiration of his service he held the rank of major by brevet. On October 26th 1865 he was mustered out of the service and returned to his Brown county home.

At the election in 1866 he was elected clerk of the court without opposition. During the year, a vacancy occurring in the office of county clerk, he was appointed to fill the vacancy and was elected at the fall election without opposition. He continued to fill the two offices for some time being reelected clerk of the court in 1868 and county clerk in 1869 and 1871. In the fall of 1872 he was elected to the state senate and served for a term of two years. He was again elected to the senate in 1876 and served for a term of four years. During this term he was made president pro tem of the senate and chairman of the committee of ways and means, the most important committee in the senate. In 1882 he was nominated by the Republicans as one of the "Big Four" and was elected to Congress as a member from the state at large. Two years later, the state having been redistricted he was elected from the first district and reelected in 1886 and 1888. In 1890 he declined a renomination.

In Congress Major Morrill was recognized as one of the industrious hard working members of the body. His specialty was in securing pensions for his old comrades and during his last term he was the chairman of the committee on Invalid Pensions. He drafted and put through Congress what is known as the Morrill dependent pension and disability act which has proven a blessing to many an old soldier.

In 1891 in recognition of his work for the old soldier he was elected by Congress as a member of the board of managers for the National Home for disabled soldiers.

In 1892 he was a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor but was defeated by Farmer A. W. Smith. Two years later he was an easy winner for the nomination and was elected defeating Gov. Lewelling who was a candidate for re-election. Two years later he was unanimously re-nominated by the Republicans but that proved to be a Populist year and he went down in the general defeat which overwhelmed his party at the polls.

Although actively engaged in politics for more than thirty years Major Morrill has not neglected his business interests. He had faith in Brown county and saw in her magnificent future growth the opportunity to make a fortune. In 1871 in company with W. B. Barnett and Lorenzo Janes he established the first bank in the county. When it was afterwards incorporated as a state bank he became its president and has so continued. He was also president of the First National Bank of Leavenworth for a number of years and a director in the Inter State National Bank of Kansas City, Kansas. He has also dealt extensively in Brown county land and has been a farmer and a stock raiser on an extensive scale.

On the 27th of November 1862 Mr. Morrill was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth A. Brettun of Livermore, Maine, daughter of William H. Brettun. She died in September 1868, and on Christmas day of 1869 he was again married, his second union being with Miss Caroline J. Nash of Boston Massachusetts. Three children have been born to this union: Susan B., wife of Cornelius B. Baker of Hiawatha, Grace W., wife of Charles Dixon president of the Dixon Live Stock Commission Company of Kansas City, and Frank N., who completed the academic course in Harvard University with the class of 1897 and the law course with the class of 1900.

Major Morrill is a member of the Masonic fraternity belonging to the lodge, chapter and commandery at Hiawatha and to the Shrine at Leavenworth. He is also a member of Hiawatha Post 130 of G. A. R. and a member of the Loyal Legion.

Major Morrill has always been a public spirited man and has given liberally to the upbuilding and support of all classes of public institutions but he will always be especially remembered in connection with two institutions of which Hiawatha is extremely proud—The Morrill Public Library and the Academy. In 1882 he made a proposition to the city of Hiawatha to furnish the city with a free library and reading room. The proposition was accepted and from this beginning has grown the present library one of the best public libraries in the state. In 1886 he fathered the movement which gave to Brown county the Hiawatha Academy. He has always been its most liberal supporter and is today the president of its board of trustees.

During his long and active business career in Brown county Major Morrill has won the confidence and respect of the entire community. He has been above the little sharp practices too common in business affairs. He has taken advantage of no man's necessities. His sincerity and honesty have never been doubted and the people have learned to trust him because they felt that their confidences would not be abused. Earnest, able, public, spirited, progressive. These are the characteristic which have secured for him the acknowledged position as the leading citizen of the county.

 May 30, 1899. The Willis State Bank is chartered.
 June 23, 1899. The State Bank of Everest is chartered.

The banking history of Brown County began on January 2nd, 1871 when W. B. Barnett, E. N. Morrill and Lorenzo Janes organized the pioneer, banking house of Barnett, Morrill & Co., at Hiawatha. Its banking capital was $12,550 and Peter Pfeiffer was its first depositor. The nearest bank at that time was in Atchison. For eleven years this bank had no rival in the county. Then the First National Bank of Hiawatha was organized. Next came the Farmer's Bank of Morrill. The building of the Rock Island road into Brown County brought two banks into the county at Horton. Then in rapid succession banks were organized all over the county until today every town in the county, except Baker, has a bank. Bank failures have been unknown in this county. Today there are an even dozen banks in the county.

Some idea of the magnitude of the business done can be gathered from a study of the published statements made to the Bank Commissioner and the Comptroller of the Currency in June last (1900). These reports show that the capital, surplus and undivided profits of the twelve banks amounted to $396,884 67. The buildings and fixtures owned amounted to $58,311.56. The individual deposits amounted to $1,336,684 42. The outstanding loans were $1,071,823 91 and the cash on hand was $577,498.51. These figures are simply astonishing but they serve to show as nothing else can that Brown County is an exceedingly rich and prosperous corner of the state.

THE MORRILL & JANES BANK.

The business of the Morrill & Janes Bank was established in January 1871 by Edmund N. Morrill, William B. Barnett and Lorenzo Janes under the firm name of Barnett, Morrill & Co. Charles H. Janes, son of Lorenzo Janes, entered the bank as cashier at the time the business was established in January 1871.

The firm of Barnett, Morrill & Co., was dissolved in February 1877, and the firm of Morrill & Janes, composed of Edmund N. Morrill and Charles H. Janes, succeeded to the business. The business was carried on by the firm of Morrill & Janes, until May 2, 1887, when the banking business of the said firm was sold out to The Morrill & Janes Bank, a state bank corporation.

The firm of Morrill & Janes continued in the real estate loan business which was an entirely separate business from that of the banking business, until the death of C. H. Janes, when it was turned over to the Banking Corporation.

The first board of directors was composed of Edmund N. Morrill, Charles H. Janes, Lorenzo Janes, A. J. Schilling and C. D. Lamme. The board organized by electing E. N. Morrill President, C. H. Janes Vice President and C. D. Lamme Cashier. There was practically no change in the directory until the death of Mr. Lorenzo Janes in 1894, whose place on the board was filled by the election of George H. Adams. The death of Mr. Charles H. Janes, occurring in 1896 and Mr. Samuel Bierer was elected to fill the vacancy.

The present board is composed of E. N. Morrill, C. D. Lamme, C. B. Baker, George H. Adams and Samuel Bierer. The active management is in the hands of E. N. Morrill President, C. D. Lamme Vice President and C. B. Baker Cashier.

Mr. Morrill is a native of Maine and settled in Kansas in 1857. He was County Clerk at the time of the organization of the Bank. Mr. Barnett is a native of Ohio and came to Kansas in an early day and was County Treasurer at the time of the establishment of the business. Lorenzo and C. H. Janes were natives of Vermont, the senior Janes not removing to Kansas until 1870. C. H. Janes spent about fifteen years in the City of New York having been connected with the National Express Co., as cashier, and afterwards with a bank in St. Albans, Vermont.

The present management and clerical force having been with the Bank as follows: E. N. Morrill January 1871, 30 years, C. D. Lamme January 1880, 21 years; C. B. Baker November 1891, 9 years; T. McLaughlin October 1888, 12 years; F. H. Smith February 1889, 12 years; Cora Younkman July 1897, 3 years; George H. Storch December 1899, 1 year. Wm. Alexander (porter) about 20 years.

Barnett, Morrill & Co., commenced business with a capital of $12,550, which was increased from time to time as the business required, until the capital of the present corporation is $100,000, with surplus and undivided profits of more than $20,000. The deposits ranged from nothing at the beginning to more than $400,000. During the past thirty years this institution has invested for non-residents principally in real estate mortgaged more than two and one-half million dollars without the loss of a penny to the investor.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF HIAWATHA.

The First National Bank of Hiawatha was chartered to begin business November 16, 1881 with a capital of $50,000 divided among twenty-four stockholders, seven of them being residents of Brown County. The balance of the stock was owned principally in Galesburg, Ill. Among the original promoters are found the names of M. S. Smalley, Samuel A. Fulton, Edgar R. Fulton, Josiah C. Thomas, Henry F. Macy, Elias Moser, David Babbit, Everard Bierer and Johnson Beatty. Elias Moser is the only member of the present board of directors who was of the original stockholders, he having served in that capacity continuously from the organization of the bank. M. S. Smalley was its first president and Samuel A. Fulton its first cashier.

March 22nd, 1881 S. A. Fulton having purchased the corner 65 feet by 25 feet where the bank building now stands, a three story brick building was erected. The I. O. O. F. lodge of Hiawatha owning the upper story, the bank and J. C. Thomas owning the first and second stories of the building. Sept. 3rd, 1890 fire totally destroyed the three story brick building, leaving building, vault and contents a mass of smoking ruins. By some skillful work of the officers and the fire department, the safe was protected and its contents saved without injury. The books of the bank were all badly injured, but fortunately the most important of them were sufficiently preserved to enable a complete new set to be made. On the morning after the fire the board of directors held a meeting in the bandstand and decided to obtain plans and erect a new building at once. Business was resumed without delay in the west side of Hill Bros'. hardware store. By February 1st 1891 the new building was ready for occupancy.

Mr. Chas. P. Waste, the former cashier, who is now engaged in business at Galesburg, Ill., was with the bank for eighteen years during most of which time he was its cashier. Of the present officers Mr. Charles Knabb has been president of the bank since 1894. Mr. Lewis E. Chase its vice-president has been an active member of the board of directors for eighteen years. Wm. Knabb cashier has been with the bank for twelve years, J. W. Howe assistant cashier for fifteen years and J. F. Meisenheimer who recently joined the force had just completed his second term as treasurer of Brown County.

The board of directors at present is composed of the following well known citizen.: Elias Moser, Dr. W. W. Nye, Lewis E. Chase, Chas Knabb, Eli Davis, Dr. Geo. C. McKnight and Wm. Knabb. The bank's business has grown gradually from the beginning until its present showing is a credit to the community.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF HORTON.

The First National Bank of Horton organized in October 1887 with Scott Hopkins as President, Alex Dunn as Vice President and F. M. Wilson as Cashier and it has never made any change in the personnel of the officers. The first board of directors were John S. Hopkins, Gordon Dunn, Alex Dunn, Jr., Scott Hopkins and F. M. Wilson. Gordon Dunn retired in favor of Dr. W. W. Ralston and at his death Hugh Caughey was elected to fill the vacancy. This is the only change that has been made in the board of directors. The bank has a capital stock of $50,000, a surplus of $10,626.81 and deposits of nearly a quarter of a million of dollars.

THE BANK OF HORTON.

The Bank of Horton was chartered March 10th, 1887. The organizers were M. A. Low, General Attorney for the C. K. & N. railway; H. A. Parker, chief engineer of the C. K. & N.; C. F. Jilson, secretary and treasurer of the C. K. & N.; W. W. Guthrie and E. W. Sandison. J. W. Parker was the first president and Frank Krebs the first cashier. Frank Krebs died May 17th, 1889 and was succeeded by Geo. Hovey the present cashier. In 1892 W. R. Honnell became president of the bank and A. F. Moore vice president. In 1891 the building in which the bank was located burned but the bank lost nothing except its fixtures. The capital of the bank is $25,000. Its surplus and undivided profits are more than $16,000. It always has been a depository for the Rock Island railway and its deposits exceed two hundred thousand dollars.

BANK OF ROBINSON.

The Bank of Robinson is recognized as one of the solid substantial well managed dividend paying institutions of Brown County. It was organized June 10th 1890 as a private bank by J. N. Mills, J. M. Idol and Frank Idol. This arrangement continued until 1892 when B. B. Idol bought the interest of Mr. Mills. On August 7th 1895 the bank incorporated as a state bank under the laws of Kansas with B. B. Idol, J. M. Idol, Frank Idol, Wm. Idol and H. F. Idol as directors. B. B. Idol was elected president, J. M. Idol vice president, Frank Idol cashier and Wm. Idol assistant cashier. J. M. Idol died the latter part of that year and S. E. Felchter was elected to succeed him as a director and as vice president. These are all the changes that have taken place in the more than ten years of the bank's history. The active management of the bank has from its start been in the hands of its efficient and painstaking cashier Frank Idol assisted since 1895 by his brother Wm. Idol.

The bank has a capital and surplus of $16,000. It owns its own building and is equipped with the modern banking conveniences, screw door time lock safe, etc. The average deposits of the bank are about $100,000 which shows that the institution enjoys the confidence of the people of Robinson and the surrounding territory.

THE FAIRVIEW STATE BANK.

December 10th, 1888, the Fairview State bank was organized and charter secured. December 18th a meeting was held by the prospective stockholders to perfect the organization. H. C. Haines, T. J. Brady, George A. Gullid, of Sabetha, J. H. Vandalsem, J. M. Boomer, W. F. Sanderson and J. S. Belk, of Fairview, were designated by the charter as directors at said meeting and the number of directors was increased from seven to nine and C. F. Joss and E. M. Brown were elected as such directors. The board then elected the following officers: John T. Brady, president; W. F. Sanderson, vice president; John S. Belk, secretary. January 7th 1889, at a called meeting held that date, John T. Brady resigned as president and H. C. Haines resigned as director. Henry Isley was then elected director and also as president. Fred E. Graham was elected cashier. The authorized capital was $50,000. On the 14th day of January '89 the bank started to do business with $10,000 of the capital stock being paid in. On the first day of business the deposits were $1,884.30 and loans $1,570.85. January 1st '90 the deposits were $25,567.05, and loans were $33,516.42. At the close of business December 30, 1899, the deposits were $65,602.52. The paid up capital and surplus now is $20,000. The bank has always done and is now doing a good business. The management is on the conservative plan. In the fall of '92 the brick banking house was erected, which stood the fire test last October 31st and provided the fire wall which saved the east end of the block from being wiped out. The building is 25x46 with spacious banking room and directors room. Fred E. Graham was cashier of the bank from its organization until October 1st '90, when he resigned and C. D. Graham was elected as cashier. That he did his part acceptably to the board and patrons is evident from the fact that he has held the position continuously since and is serving his ten years more. The following constitute the present board of directors: W. F. Lambertson, Henry Monroe, Sr., Fred Isley, E. M. Brown, C. F. Joss, Fred E. Graham and Henry Isley. Of the above number four have been continuously members of the board since the bank opened for business. The first vacancy on the board caused by death was last June when A. A. Frink died. That he was highly esteemed by his fellow members of the board was fittingly demonstrated by the resolutions adopted. The present officers are: Henry Isley, president; W. F. Lambertson, vice president; C. D. Graham, vice president; V. R. Shintaffer, book keeper.

The bank of Reserve was chartered May 15th 1898 with a capital stock of $6,000. J. M. Hillyer, Elliot Irvin, A. Leigh, Irvin Willey and J. M. Clark formed the first board of trustees. J. M. PIONEERS OF BROWN COUNTY.

Captain John Schilling.

In all the long list of Brown County pioneers, who have done something to make them remembered, there are none better known than Capt. John Schilling. These Annals record the fact that for more than forty years he has been one of the active forces in the county and has figured prominently in business, in public enterprises and in politics.

He was born in Germany near Bingen on the Rhine, Jan. 1st 1837. He attended school in his native land until 1848 when the German Revolution drove his parents from the Fatherland and they came to Hudson, N. Y. where they made their home until 1851 when they moved to Kalamazoo, Michigan. Here young Schilling continued his education in the common schools of New York and Michigan. On the 6th day of March 1857 John Schilling settled in Brown county and preempted a claim one half mile south of what is now Hiawatha. In November of that year he was married to Susan Meisenheimer, a daughter of Martin Meisenheimer, who was a soldier under Napoleon at the battle of Waterloo in 1815, but then a Brown county pioneer.

When the war broke out Mr. Schilling enlisted and was elected as captain of Company I of the 13th Kansas. He served to the end of the war and was with the 13th Kansas in all its important engagements including the battle of Prairie Grove, Ark. At the close of the war Capt. Schilling established the firm of Schilling and Meisenheimer and commenced a general merchandise business in Hiawatha. In 1870 this firm was changed to J. Schilling & Co., and later to J. Schilling & Bro. In 1882 Mr. Schilling disposed of his interest in the mercantile business to his brother Adam Schilling and became president of the Union Loan & Trust Co., from which he retired in 1892 and returned to his fine country home south of the city of Hiawatha where he now lives to enjoy the comforts of a successful business career.

Politics has always been Captain Schilling's delight and recreation. Very few Republican conventions have been held in Brown county since the war in which he has not only been a delegate but one of the controlling forces. For a number of years he was chairman of the county committee and in 1881 the convention was so well pleased with his remarks in opening the convention that it decided to adopt his speech in lieu of a platform. He has also been a delegate to more Republican state conventions than any man in the county and Schilling of Brown county is known all over the state.

For twenty-one years Capt. Schilling was a member of the school board of Hiawatha. In 1876 he was appointed County Commissioner to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Captain A. Walters and for four years was chairman of the board of commissioners. He was also the first Mayor of Hiawatha. In 1880 he was elected a presidential elector and cast his vote for Jas. A. Garfield and Chester A. Arthur. In 1882 he was elected a member of the state legislature. In 1888 he was elected to the state senate from the district composed of Brown and Doniphan counties. In 1896 he was a delegate to the National Convention at St. Louis which nominated Wm. McKinley for president.

Captain Schilling is an earnest and enthusiastic Mason. He is a member of Hiawatha Lodge No. 35, a charter member of Mt. Horeb Chapter No. 46, R. A. M. and a charter member and Past Eminent Commander of Hiawatha Commandery No. 13 Knights Templar. He is also a member of Diamond Lodge Knights of Pythias and Hiawatha Post 130 G. A. R.

Captain Schilling's family consists of five sons and two daughters. The oldest son Simon died a few years ago in Marshall county. Jacob G. and Martin V. are prosperous Brown County farmers. Albert J. resides at Leavenworth and has a lucrative position with the Missouri Valley Bridge Co. William, the youngest son and the two daughters, Anna and Ella reside with their father.

Gregory Amann.

Gregory Amann has enjoyed the distinction for years of having lived on the townsite of Hiawatha longer than any other man. The town was laid out in 1857 and Mr. Amann located here that same year. Mr. Amann was born in Wurtemberg, Germany November 17, 1835 and learned his trade as a carpenter and bridge builder in his native land. In 1853 he came to America and worked at bridge building on the railroads in Kentucky. In 1855 he came to Leavenworth and in 1857 to Brown County. He took up a claim on Mulberry Creek in Walnut Township but continuing to work at his trade. That same year he located at Hiawatha and for more than forty years has been busy putting up buildings and bridges. There are very few Brown County bridges of any importance and not many of the good buildings which do not bear his imprint.

In 1861 Mr. Amann wanted to enlist in a Kansas regiment but there being no Kansas regiments recruiting just then he walked to St. Joe and enlisted in Company E of the Twenty-Fifth Missouri. He was mustered out after six months' service and returned to Hiawatha but later was enrolled in the state militia and helped repel the Price Raid.

In addition to being the oldest settler in Hiawatha Mr. Amann enjoys the distinction of being a member of the first petit jury ever drawn in the county; the first initiate of a Masonic lodge in the county and a member of the first city council of Hiawatha. He has served the city three years as mayor being elected the first time in 1873, again in 1882 and again in 1883 and is now and has been for some years, a member of the Hiawatha Board of Education. He is a Mason and belongs to the Hiawatha Lodge, Mt. Horeb Chapter and Hiawatha Commandery. He is also a member of Hiawatha Post of the Grand Army.

Mr. Amann was married in 1867 to Mrs. Ella Warnake and they have three children—Horace who is associated with his father in the hardware business under the firm name of G. Amann & Son, Herman who is with the firm of Blush, Mize & Silliman of Atchison and Clara who is book keeper and stenographer in the DEMOCRAT office.

Hartwin R. Dutton.

Among the earliest and cleverest of Brown County politicians stands H. R. Dutton. He was born in Alleghany County New York July 20, 1824. By profession he was a civil engineer and early in the fifties came to Iowa to practice his profession. Finishing his work there he joined the crowd that was headed for Kansas and reached Brown County in 1857. Here he commenced to speculate in land warrants, town lots, etc. did Morrill and Hoover and that this was the reason that Hiawatha won over Carson. Politically Dutton was what is now called "a slick man." He was a member of the last Territorial legislature being elected November 8, 1859. Under the first election under

JOHN D. WELTMER

He laid out the town of Hiawatha and was president of the town company. In 1857 he engineered the deal which made Hiawatha the county seat. Speaking of this W. W. Guthrie, who knew all about the matter, says that Dutton knew how to place town lots to better advantage than he did the constitution he was elected to the state senate from the district composed of the counties of Atchison and Brown. John A. Martin was his colleague. Wm. Tholen who was elected state treasurer did not qualify and in March 1861 Dutton was appointed by Gov. Robinson to fill the vacancy. At the next election he was elected to serve out the term. Just before his term of office expired he left the state and went to Chicago where he secured the agency for a life insurance company. He died near Zanesville, Ohio November 12, 1883 and was buried by the Knight Templars.

Thurston Chase.

It will probably always be a mooted question as to who was the first white settler in Brown county. For years it was supposed to be Thurston Chase although there is evidence now to show that a party of Powhatan settlers beat him in about thirty days. On May 11th 1854 he took up a claim on the southwest quarter of 11 3-18. President Pierce had not yet signed the act organizing the territories of Kansas and Nebraska. In February 1855 Mr. Chase brought his family here from Missouri. This claim he sold the next year and bought one northwest of Hiawatha. He was a free state man and canvassed the county during the border ruffian trouble with a free soil petition which was forwarded to President Buchanan. At the breaking out of the rebellion he took a party of twenty-five men to St. Joe where they enlisted in the Missouri militia, Mr. Chase being elected second lieutenant of the company. In the spring of 1862 he returned and help recruit Company H. of the 13th Kansas and came within two votes of being elected captain of the Company. He served as a private in this Company for about three months when he was discharged on account of sickness. Upon his recovery he helped recruit Company H. of the 14th Kansas Cavalry and served with it as Orderly Sergeant to the end of the war. When he was mustered out he returned to his Brown county farm where he continued to reside until about 1890 when he moved to Hiawatha. Here he died in 1892 and was buried in the Hiawatha cemetery. Mr. Chase was an original member of the first Methodist Church in the county, a member of the first school board organized in the county and a member of the first jury summoned in the county. He was married four times and a number of his children still reside in Brown county.

John D. Weltmer.

John D. Weltmer, the present county clerk, is not only a pioneer but he is a Brown County product as well. He was born November 19, 1859 in Walnut Creek Township, now Hamlin Township, and is a son of Jacob and Elizabeth Weltmer, who were among the earliest of Brown County's settlers. Mr. Weltmer received a good common school education and then started to teaching. For ten years he taught in the Brown County schools, three of them being in his own home district. For four consecutive terms he was elected trustee of Hiawatha Township giving universal satisfaction to the people of the Township. At the Republican primaries in 1899 he received the nomination for County Clerk and at the election following was elected to that office by a majority of 1034 over his fusion opponent. He is a member of Hamlin lodge A. F. & A. M. and Oak Leaf Camp of I. W. A. He was married August 17, 1882 to Miss Hattie Moore, daughter of Dr. E. W. Moore formerly of Hamlin. Their family consists of three sons, Luther, aged 18, Frank, aged 13, Ivan, aged 3 and a daughter, Nelle, aged 8. Both Mr. and Mrs. Weltmer are members of the Christian Church at Hlawatha.

H. M. Robinson.

On April 1st 1858 H. M. Robinson located in Hlawatha and started a harness shop on the ground where C. H. Lawrence's brick building now stands, the family living upstairs. When the Brown County Union was started it had its office in the same building with Mr. Robinson's shop. This building burned down on January 3rd 1862. He was elected constable of Irving township, which then included Hlawatha, in 1860, was deputy sheriff under J. H. Schenck and I. B. Hoover and was elected sheriff in 1863 and re-elected in 1865. After leaving the sheriff's office he worked for W. B. Barnett in the store and in the county treasurers office for a year or so and then in the summer of 1869 went to the Montana silver mines. In February 1870 he was made agent of the St. Joe and Denver City railway and on the 22nd day of that month opened the station at Robinson. Soon afterwards he was transferred to Hlawatha where he acted as agent for fourteen years. On retiring as agent he was put at the head of the freight department which position he continues to hold. Mr Robinson is a Mason belonging to Hlawatha lodge, Mount Horeb Chapter and Hlawatha Commandry. He is now Recorder of the Commandry a position he has held for the past four years.

Moses P. Proctor.

On March 20th 1855 Moses P. Proctor took a claim in Mission township, made the foundation for a cabin, broke some ground and returned to Missouri for the winter. On April 10th 1856 he returned with his family, consisting of his wife, his three boys, Washington, William and John and his daughter Matilda who in November of that year became Mrs. Thurston Chase. Mr. Proctor was born in Madison county, Kentucky in the year 1800 and resided there until 1850 when he came to Holt county, Missouri. He was a strong Democrat and had been a slave holder in Kentucky but he wanted to see Kansas a free state and cast his lot with that party. In September 1857 he was nominated for county treasurer by the Free State Convention at Hlawatha and was elected, being the first elective treasurer of the county. Owing to ill health he resigned in December of that same year. Later he moved to Doniphan county where he died in the fall of 1871 having burst a blood vessel while loading a load of wood.

Abraham Leigh.

High up on the list of successful physicians and Surgeons of North-eastern Kansas stands the name of Dr. A. Leigh of Hlawatha. He was born in Holt county, Mo., January 12th 1849 and is the oldest son of Dr. Jonathan Leigh and Salina Brown Leigh. A. Leigh was seven years old when the family moved to Iowa Point, Kansas so that he is a Kansas pioneer. He was educated at Highland University where he received the degree of Master of Arts. After leaving school he clerked for seven years in his father's general merchandise store in Highland. He then served for two years and a half as foreman with Pennick & Loving, wholesale druggists of St. Joe. He then returned to Highland and read medicine in his father's office. His first course of lectures was in the Physicians and Surgeons College in for three years. He returned to Kansas in 1885 and located at Hiawatha where he has a very extensive and successful practice. His specialty is the treatment of the diseases of the eye, ear and surgery.

Dr. Leigh belongs to the Masonic fraternity being a member of the

Dr. Leigh was married in 1876 to Miss Nancy G. Bailey, daughter of Phillip and Nancy Bailey of Worthington Mass. Their family consists of two children, a daughter and a son. The daughter, Bessie, is a graduate of the Hiawatha Academy and the Boston School of Expression and is now the Professor of Elocution and English History in Buchanan College at Troy, Mo. Warren, the son, is a student at the Hiawatha Academy. Dr. and Mrs. Leigh have one of the most pleasant and attractive homes in the city and their hospitality is proverbial.

T. J. Marion.

Mr. Thos. J. Marlon the present County Surveyor of Brown county is a native of Essex County, England and about January 1st 1849, having finished his education at the Manchester Grammar School and like most English boys raised in a seaport town, being anxious to "go to sea" and roam, he shipped as a sailor on the "London" one of Grinnell's "Swallow Tail" line of Packet ships and after a rough voyage of fifty-four days arrived at New York, and then immediately re-shipped as a sailor on the bark "Gertrude" and landed at Mobile, Alabama on April 1st where, having fully mastered civil engineering in the old country, he immediately secured employment on the preliminary survey of the Alabama and Tennessee River Railroad in which employment and in civil engineering in the drainage of swamp lands and rice plantations in Louisiana and Mississippi he continued until May 1856 when he married and immediately started with his wife to Kansas "Territory" but stopped on his way, and taught school in Andrew county, Missouri for about two years and about the last of June 1858, moved to Kansas "Territory" and arrived in Brown county, and pre-empted and entered from the United States Government the quarter section of land that is now the family homestead. In 1862 and 1863 he served in the Second

Nebraska Cavalry in General Sully's famous fighting brigade consisting of the Second Nebraska and Sixth, Iowa Cavalry and fought at the battle of White Stone on September 3rd 1863, when the murderous Sioux Indians who had massacred so many settlers in Minnesota in 1862 under their war chief "Little Crow," were entirely defeated and all their teepies, tents and plunder was captured and burned. After being honorably discharged with his regiment by reason of expiration of term of service, he served in the White Cloud Company, Doniphan County Regiment of Kansas State Militia in the "Price Raid" and assisted in preventing the threatened rebel invasion of Kansas. In 1873 he was employed on the United States Survey in the then unorganized territory of south-west Nebraska. Mr. Marion has been elected and re-elected several terms to the office of County Surveyor of Brown county which position he now fills.

Our respected fellow citizens of Hiawatha, Mr. George Seaman and Mr. Stephen Hunter were comrades with Mr. Marion in the Second Nebraska Cavalry, and with him, served in that regiment all through that Sioux Indian campaign.

Morris Fraley.

There are few, if any men, now living who can claim any longer residence in Brown county than Morris Fraley of Irving township. Mr Fraley was born in Montgomery county New York, Jan. 16, 1837 and lived in his native state until 1842 when he came to Holt county Mo., where he worked at the carpenter trade. In the fall of 1856 he became a resident of Brown county and located a claim on the north-east quarter of section 29, township 1, range 18 which place he still owns. The records show but one transfer, that of James Buchanan to Morris Fraley. In 1857 he removed to White Cloud where he remained for three years and then returned to Brown county where he farmed for two years and then returned to White Cloud where he resided for five years working at his trade and freighting across the plains. He then returned to the Brown county farm where he has since resided. During the war he enrolled as a member of Company C of the 9th regiment of Kansas militia and served until the close of the war when he was discharged at White Cloud. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church and a charter member of White Cloud lodge A. F. and A. M.

Mr. Fraley cast his first vote for James Buchanan for President. He was a free state man however and so voted for Abe Lincoln in 1860. He voted for Lincoln again in 1864 and for Gen. Grant the first time he ran for the presidency. He returned to his first love, the Democratic party, in 1872 and has voted that ticket ever since. He has never taken an active part in politics and aside from the fact that he has been a member of the school board almost continuously for forty years, has never held office. Mr. Fraley was married Jan. 12th 1860 at Council Bluffs, Iowa to Miss Jennie Mawhehny, a native of West Virginia. Mrs. Fraley died in 1887 and two years later Mr. Fraley was married again to Miss Martha Dickson a native of Scotland. Six children have been born to the second marriage; Jennie, James, Emery, Lester, Nye and Mabel. Mr. Fraley owns 240 acres of Brown county land all enclosed and under a high state of cultivation with a fine supply of pure water, large orchard and other fine improvements. He is a stockholder and one of the promoters of the Brown county Fair Association and ranks as one of Brown county's most progressive and successful farmers.

Joseph D. Hardy.

Hon. Joseph D. Hardy, who has twice represented Brown county in the legislature at Topeka, is a pioneer of the class of 1858. He came to Brown county in March of that year and preempted the land comprising part of the land where he now lives. He located however at Hlawatha and commenced freighting from White Cloud to Hlawatha and pursued this and various other pursuits until he began to improve his land. In August 1860 on account of the extensive drouth he returned to New York and in August 1862 enlisted in Company F of the 118th New York Infantry and served until the close of the rebellion. He retained his Brown County claim however and in 1866 returned to it and has since resided there.

He has increased his holdings until to day he owns 360 acres of rich and well improved with a fine residence, large barn and graneries, fine orchards and other extensive improvements. In 1873 when the Grange movement was organized in Brown county Mr. Hardy became one of the charter members of the Fairfield Grange. In October of that year a Farmers' Convention was held at the court house and a county ticket was nominated. Mr. Hardy was nominated for the legislature and at the following election received 922 votes as against 467 for his Republican opponent, J. G. Spencer. He was unanimously renominated by the Reform party two years later and although he led his ticket by more than 100 votes was defeated by M. C. Willis, the Republican candidate, the vote standing Hardy 641, Willis 699. In 1887 Mr. Hardy was nominated by the Democrats for the legislature and made the race for the third term polling more than his party vote.

Mr. Hardy was an active member of the Alliance at its organization in 1889. At the first Peoples' Party convention held in the county in July of that year he was elected a delegate to the state convention at Topeka where he was made chairman of the credential committee. At the county convention of the party that year he was made the nominee for the legislature and later in the campaign was endorsed by the Democratic county convention. At the fall election he received 2408 votes, his Republican opponent, A. Carothers receiving but 2050. Two years later he was renominated by the Populists and again endorsed by the Democrats, but the county went Republican that year and he was defeated for reelection along with the rest of his ticket. He was a delegate from Kansas to the Peoples' Party National convention in 1896 which nominated Wm. J. Bryan for President and Tom Watson for Vice-President. He was also a delegate to the Peoples' Party National convention at Sioux Falls, S. D., in 1900 which nominated W. J. Bryan for President and Chas. A. Towne for Vice-President.

Mr. Hardy was born at Westport, Essex county New York August 2nd 1835. His father was a soldier in the war of 1812 and his grandfather was a soldier in the Revolution. He received the advantages of a common school education and taught a number of years in his native state before coming to Kansas. He is a student of economic and political questions, has a well selected library on these subjects and keeps fully abreast of the times. Mr. Hardy was married in June 1866 in New York to Margaret Orminston daughter of John and Margaret Orminston of good old Scottish stock. They have two daughters, Isabella, and Linda a graduate of Kirksville school of Osteopathy. Mr. and Mrs. Hardy are both members of the Congregational church.

Isaiah P. Winslow

Most everybody in Brown county knows Squire I. P. Wilson of Padonia. He was one of the Maine pioneers who came to Kansas in 1857 to help make this a free state. The Squire was born in Casco, Maine, Jan. 23, 1825. He worked on a farm summers and attended school winters until he was seventeen years of age when he learned the trade of a tanner and currier which he followed until he came to Kansas. In 1857 he became interested in the Kansas struggle and determined to come and help make Kansas a free state and so became a Member of the Saco association which had been organized for that purpose. He preempted the land adjoining the town of Padonia where he now lives and has increased his holdings until now he has 200 acres. In 1858 he was elected justice of the peace and served continuously in this office for thirty-two years when his mantle fell upon his son James for a two years term at which time it was returned again. He has been a stalwart Republican all his life and has been frequently honored by his party. He has been township trustee and county commissioner and has held various other minor offices. For forty-one years he has been the clerk of the Padonia school board. Squire Winslow is one of the oldest masons in length of membership, if not the oldest, that there is in Brown county. He was made a Master Mason in 1845 and affiliated with the Hiawatha lodge soon after its organization. He is also a member of the Mount Horeb Chapter and Hiawatha Commandery

MR. AND MRS. J. M. MARCUM.

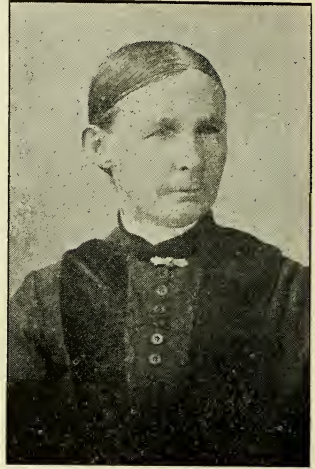

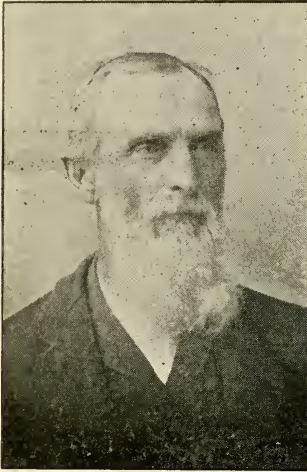

No. 13, K. T. Mr. Winslow was married in 1856 to Hanna S. Leavitt, of Parsonsfield, Maine. Their family consists of two sons and three daughters; James, a prosperous farmer of Padonia township, Mary, wife of H. G. Wilson of Padonia, Julia, wife of Albert Vaughn, now deceased, Carrie, wife of Clinton Longfellow of Padonia and George who lives at Cook, Neb., where he has been a railroad operator for the last twelve years.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Marcum.

On the first day of March, 1901, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Marcum celebrated their golden wedding at the family home four miles north of Robinson. Ten children, fifteen grand children, and one great grand child have blessed this union of half a century. The children are all married, but one, and with two exceptions they all live in Brown County. They are: Mrs. John Stoffer, Mrs J. A. Batson, Mrs A. C. Stillwell, Mrs. James A. Winkler, Mrs. Lon Stoffer and Mrs. David Work, all of Robinson township, Mrs. J. W. Rogers of Fostoria, Pottawatomie county, Kansas, Joshua Marcum of Blackwell, O. T., James Marcum of Robinson and John Marcum of Hiawatha.

Mr. Marcum was born Sept. 13, 1832, in Lee county, Va. When he was sixteen he went to Tasswell, Tenn., where he attended Glen University and then served a three years' apprenticeship as a tanner. Mrs. Marcum, whose maiden name was Nancy George, was born in Patrick county, Va., on July 9th, 1832. They were married March 1st, 1851, and emigrated that fall to Andrew county, Mo., where they lived until the spring of 1856, when they moved to Kansas, settling at Iowa Point, where they lived until 1860, when they moved over into Brown county and preempted the family homestead, where they have lived for more than forty years. They have seen all the hardships and vicissitudes of pioneer life in the early Kansas days and are now enjoying the rich rewards of their labors, being blessed with excellent health, possessed of a fine home and surrounded by their children and grandchildren.

Mr. Marcum has been a life long Democrat and prides himself on the fact that he has voted that ticket ever since he arrived at his majority. Both Mr. and Mrs. Marcum are earnest Christians but hold to the belief that there is no warrant in the Scriptures for church denominations and so have never connected themselves with any sectarian denomination. They are active members of the Church of God and belong to the congregation which worships at the Green Door school house.

Jacob J. Weltmer.

In 1856 Kansas had no law to legalize marriages and so pioneer Jacob J. Weltmer and Elizabeth Belk, daughter of the pioneer John Belk, left their cabins on the Walnut and went to Buchanan county Missouri and were married. The journey was made with an ox team, the fashionable method of transportation in that day. Mr. Weltmer's claim was near Padonia in what is now Hamlin township. Here they lived until 1863 when they moved to their present farm three miles west and one half mile north of Hiawatha. Mr. Weltmer was born near Harrisburg, Pa., May 30, 1833. In 1851 he came to Missouri with his parents who located about twenty miles from St. Joseph. In 1855 he walked to Brown county and took up his claim. Mrs. Weltmer was born in Kentucky in 1835 and came to Missouri when quite young. To them have been born seven children five of whom are living. They are, William W. of West Portland, Oregon, John D. present county clerk of Brown county, Lewis O., Charles H. and Mrs. J. H. Wiskerson, all of Brown county. Mr. Weltmer has been treasurer of school district No. 2 for nearly half a century and has always taken a warm interest in educational efforts. He is a strong Republican and has been a delegate to a great many of his party conventions. In 1867 he was elected county commissioner, without opposition serving in this capacity for a term of three years. He is a Mason having belonged to Hiawatha Lodge No. 35 since 1863. Both Mr. and Mrs. Weltmer and their entire family are members of the Christian Church. Mr. Weltmer remembers when Dr. Parker started the Brown County Union in 1861. He was present when the first paper was taken off the press and carried this copy away with him and for a number of years preserved it as a curiosity. Mr. and Mrs. Weltmer have been through all the trials and hardships incidental to a pioneer life in Kansas. They are honored and respected by all who know them and have the satisfaction of seeing their children grow up honored and respected and successful members of the community which they helped to found.

John Belk.

One of the active pioneers who is remembered with the most kindly feeling by the early settlers is father John Belk of Padonia. He was a Kentuckian and was born April 27 1811.

He never owned slaves and was opposed to the institution of slavery. In 1837 he left Kentucky and after one year's sojourn in Illinois came to Missouri and preempted land in the Platte Purchase. The atmosphere in the Platte Purchase was not congenial for a man of abolition tendencies, and the first opportunity that presented itself he left for the new Kansas country. He took his claim in the southwest part of Padonia township in 1854 before the surveyors had run their lines. Here he lived during the rest of his life and the land is owned today by his heirs without the scratch of a pen either in the way of a transfer or a mortgage ever have been put on record against it. The patent from James Buchanan to John Belk tells the whole story.

His two sons, William and King, came to Brown county with their father and also took claims on the Walnut. Mr. Belk had ten children, eight of whom grew to manhood and womanhood. They were Elizabeth, wife of Jacob J. Weltmer; William, now a resident of Cawker City; James K., a resident of Liberal, Mo.; John C., now in the Klondyke, and Frances, Nathan, Jeremiah and Sidney, who are dead. His son Sidney was a soldier boy. He died in the service and was brought home to Padonia for burial. Mr. Belk was a Republican and a Methodist. He was chairman of the board of supervisors of Irving township in 1859. He died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jacob J. Weltmer, Jan. 20th, 1894, and was laid to rest in the Padonia cemetery.

GEORGE W. SEAMAN.

Geo. W. Seaman.

George W. Seaman, the deputy sheriff and jailer of Brown county, is one of the earliest pioneers in the history of the county. He is the son of Squire I. N. Seaman and Julia A. Hayes and was born at Port Clinton, Ohio on January 20, 1846. The family came to Brown county in 1856 and located in the southern part of Loch-nane township in the territory now belonging to Jackson county. Their first home was a log cabin with a dirt floor and a blanket for a door. It was on Mr. Seaman's land that John Brown's Battle of the Spurs was fought in February 1859. Brown was headed for the North with eleven runaway slaves and Marshal Woods was out with a posse looking for him. Woods and his posse reached the Seaman farm ahead of Brown. In a little time Brown's wagons could be seen coming from the direction of Topeka. Wood became excited and began to hand out buck-shot by the handful to Squire Seaman. Mr. Seaman asked what he was to do with them, he having no gun, and was told to protect himself. As Brown's party came nearer Woods' flight increased and he exclaimed My God there is 500 of them and yelling to the men to conceal themselves he jumped on his horse and started for Atchison as fast as he could ride Long before Brown reached the Seaman farm the last of Woods posse had disappeared in hot fight. Woods was last seen going through Muscotah thirteen miles away bareheaded and still on the run. The subject of this sketch is probably the only living witness of the battle which John A. Martin dubbed the Battle of the Spurs.

The Seaman farm was also a station on the underground railway and is the place to which Nigger Bill Jones sent Col. Ege's nigger as described on page 28 of these annals. In 1862 George W. Seaman then a lad of sixteen ran away from home and enlisted in Company G of the Second Nebraska. This regiment saw fourteen months service under Gen. Sully against the Sioux Indians and was then mustered out Mayor Steve Hunter and County Surveyor T. J. Marion were comrades of Mr. Seaman in this period of his army service. Mr. Seaman next enlisted in the Fourth Kansas Battery with his father and youngest brother and later was transferred to Company M of the 16th Kansas Calvary regiment. He was with the party that helped chase Quantrell out of Lawrence and assisted in repelling the Price raid. He was mustered out May 15, 1865 and then attended St. Benedict's College at Atchison for one year. In 1866 he went to Montana and spent two years in mining and contracting. In 1880 he moved to Colorado where he lived for twelve years. Here he was engaged in mining, merchandising and publishing a paper. He also served one term as postmaster. In 1893 he returned to Brown county locating on his farm near Claytonville where he lived until last year when he came to Hiawatha to serve as deputy sheriff. He is a mason, a member of the G. A. R. and belongs to the Royal League and the Knights and Ladies of Security. He was married in 1871 to Miss Anna E. Smouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Smouse of Hiawatha. They have six children: Samuel, now a resident of Colorado, Julia B., wife of U. G. Hauber, of Mission Township, Ella May, wife of G. V. Koch, a prominent business man of St. Joe and one of the Board of Alderman of that city, Pearl B., Frederick H. and Allaretta. Both Mr. and Mrs. Seaman are members of the United Brethren church.

James B. Mitchell.

James B. Mitchell, the pioneer druggist of Robinson, was born in Washington county, Wisconsin, in 1850. He came to Wathena with his parents in 1859 and resided there until 1874. Here he learned the drug trade and began business for himself. He was clerk of Wathena one term and township clerk of Washington township for two terms before leaving Doniphan county. In 1874 he moved to Robinson where he has conducted a drug store and book business ever since. He was postmaster of Robinson for eleven years and has been a member of the school board of district 26 a good share of time since he has resided in Robinson. He is a strong Republican and has been a party worker ever since reaching his majority. He was his party nominee for county treasurer in 1889 but a party feud led to his defeat by a small majority. In 1894 he was elected clerk of the District court and re-elected in 1896, serving the county four years faithfully and well and to the satisfaction of all who had business with his office. He is a prominent member of the I. O. O. F. and the Woodman fraternalities and possesses the confidence and esteem of his neighbors and associates. He was married Oct. 16, 1872, at Wathena to Miss Etama Bell. They have six children, Maude E., Grace, wife of F. B. Castle, of Troy, Minturn, Vernon, Margaret and Nelle.

Major G. Ham.

Major Gillespie Ham was born in Fleming county, Kentucky October 16th 1848. He came to Kansas in 1857 with his parents who located near Kennekuk, Atchison County.

Young Ham's earliest political recollections are of a man on a black horse riding through the settlement carrying the word to the free state men not to vote. This was when the Lecompton constitution was submitted. Later on when at a subsequent election the free state men had decided to vote this same man went through the settlement carrying the word.

MAJOR G. HAM.

When the war broke out Mr. Ham wanted to enlist but was rejected on account of his age. He then drove a team to Colorado and there enlisted in Company K of the Second Colorado Cavalry. He saw nine months of army life but the exposure to which he was subjected left him a cripple for life.

Returning to Atchison County he fitted himself for teaching and taught for 114 months in Atchison and Brown counties. In 1882 he moved to Willis in this county. He was elected trustee of Mission township in the spring of 1885. That fall he was elected Register of Deeds and moved to Hlawatha. In 1887 he was reelected Register of Deeds serving for four years in this office. His term of office out he opened an abstract office in this city and has built up a good paying business in that line. He has served on the city Council twice and has been chairman of the Republican County Central Committee four times.

Mr. Ham was married in 1875 to Miss Mary Kessler. Their family consists of three sons and one daughter: Nancy Alice, Wm. B., who has charge of the Democrat's pressroom, Harry, and Edmund N.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbrdge Chase.

Elbridge Chase, the veteran Padonia grain buyer is one of the pioneers of Brown County. He was born in Limington Maine July 24, 1836 and was educated in the Academy in his native town. In 1858 he came to Illinois but only stayed one year and then pushed on into Brown County and took a claim. He stayed here about a year and then in 1860 he went further west and established a trading post on the Santa Fe trail at Pawnee Rock. The Indians were hostile and in less than a year the post had to be abandoned and Mr. Chase returned to Brown County. He was one of the participants in the celebrated battle of Padonia in which the Missouri raiders were put to route. In the fall of 1861 he enlisted in the Missouri State Militia at St. Joe and saw six months service against the bushwhackers before his company was mustered out. He then returned to his Brown County farm near Padonia. There were no cattle or hogs or grain in the country to ship out and for two winters Mr. Chase and his father James M. Chase, familiarly known to the old settlers as Uncle Jimmie Chase bought furs and shipped them out. This was the first ready money that had ever been brought into the county and was a great boon to the settlers. From that time until 1880 Mr. Chase engaged in farming and stock raising and in buying and shipping stock. In 1882 when the Missouri Pacific was built across Brown County Mr. Chase moved into Padonia and in conjunction with his son Eddie A. Chase opened the mercantile establishment of E. Chase & Son. In addition to handling merchandise the firm bought and shipped grain and stock. The firm was dissolved some years later and the store was closed out but Mr. Chase still continued in the grain and stock business. He also has extensive cattle interests in the western part of the state.

In 1863 Mr. Chase was elected county surveyor but refused to qualify. He is a Democrat in politics but takes little active interest in political affairs. He belongs to no lodges and to no church. He has always taken an active interest in all efforts to build up the county and is recognized as a public spirited citizen. His neighbors like to do business with him and he handles practically all the grain and stock that is shipped from the Padonia station.

In August 1863 Mr. Chase was married to Almira Z. Grover a Brown County school teacher and daughter of J. Grover one of the pioneers. Their family consists of two children, Eddie A., a prosperous Brown County farmer and Etta, wife of W. R. Browning of Padonia.

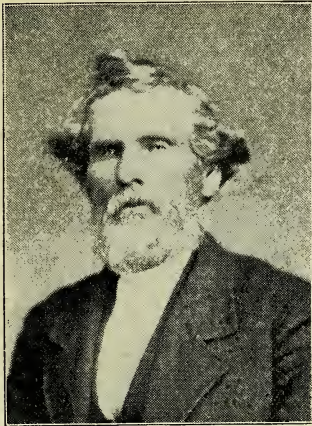

MR. AND MRS. ELBRIDGE CHASE.

Joseph L. Armstrong.

Joseph L. Armstrong died at his home near Willis on Oct. 4, 1901, aged 80 years and 3 months. He was born in Tennessee on July 4, 1821 and went from there to Illinois. In 1857 he moved to Brown County and settled three and a half miles east of where the town of Willis now stands. In Illinois he was married to Miss Sarah C. Herndon and they have raised a family of six sons and four daughters. When they located in Brown County there were no white men living near them and the Indians were their only neighbors.

Although he took little active part in politics and seldom attended the conventions, Mr. Armstrong was a staunch Democrat and never failed to go to the polls and vote the Democratic ticket. His was one of the four votes cast in Brown County in 1864 for Geo. B. McClellan. There were two votes cast for McClellan in Locknane precinct and two in Page's precinct, but only one was counted in Page's precinct, so the record at the county clerk's office shows only three votes. Mr. Armstrong used to tell the following story about the missing ballot. Party feeling ran so high that year that it was not safe for a man to say he was a Democrat. A few days before election he was in Atchison and brought home fourteen Democratic tickets with him. He thought he could count that many men among his neighbors who would vote that ticket but when he went to see them he found them all afraid and a man named Jas. D. Harrison was the only one who would take a ticket and go with him to the polling place at Page's house. The tickets when folded could not be told from Republican ballots and no comment was made when they voted. Everything moved on swimmingly until the votes were being counted out that evening. When the first McClellan ticket was taken out of the box the judge who was reading the ballots off said, "Here's a McClellan ticket. What had we better do with it?" Another one of the of the judges said it was a legal ballot and would have to be counted with the rest of the ballots. Pretty soon the other ticket was reached and this same judge said, "Here is another one of those dammed things," and he proceeded to tear the ticket up and throw it on the floor, so Mr. Armstrong does not know whether it was his ticket or Harrison's that was counted. An effort was made to find out who it was that had had the nerve to vote for McClellan but Messrs. Armstrong and Harrison concluded that discretion was the better part of valor and so kept their own counsel.

Mr. Armstrong was converted in early manhood and united with the Presbyterian church but afterwards cast his lot with the Wesleyan Methodists and was a member of the church at Willis at the time of his death.

Frank L. Willis.

County Commissioner, Frank L. Willis, is a Brown County pioneer. He was born in Union County, Tennessee, Feb. 22, 1856, and is the son of Hon. M. C. Willis, who played a very prominent part in the early settlement and development of the country. The family came to Brown County in 1856 and settled near the south line not far from Kennekuk. The nearest school in those early days was at the Indian Mission building which stood on what is now the east end of the Horton townsite and here Mr. Willis commenced his education. The teacher was Miss Irvin, afterwards Mrs. D. W. Wilder, and Mr. Willis recalls how Mr. Wilder, then a young editor at Elwood, used to come out on the stage to see the school ma'am.

Mr. Willis grew up with the country and prospered with it. To day he owns a fine four hundred acre farm on the Hiawatha and Horton road, well improved and well stocked. Mr. Willis was married in 1882 to Miss Mary J. Stanley daughter of J. D. Stanley of Horton. Their family consists of three girls, Bessie, Lulu and Clara, and four boys, Stanley, Carl, Paul and Homer. Mr. and Mrs. Willis are members of the Presbyterian Church at Horton and Mr. Willis is a member of the Woodman Camp at Willis.

FRANK L. WILLIS.

Mr. Willis was raised a Republican and has always taken an active interest in political affairs. He was treasurer of Mission Township for four or five years, and in 1894 was elected trustee serving one year and declining to be a candidate for reelection. In 1897 the nomination for Commissioner was forced upon him. The district was supposed to be safely anti-republican but after a spirited campaign Mr. Willis won out by a majority of 21. Last year he was re-nominated and elected to succeed himself for another three years term.

He has familiarized himself thoroughly with the counties business and makes a splendid official.

The Idol Family.

The Idol family is justly esteemed as one of the most influential families in Brown County. The father of the family J. M. Idol was a Kansas pioneer, coming here in 1856. He was born near Salem, North Carolina in April, 1833 and lived in that state until he was nineteen years old, when he moved to Missouri, residing three years in Lafayette County and one year in Holt County. In 1856 he crossed the river into Kansas Territory and became one of the original settlers of White Cloud. He resided near here until the spring of 1861, when he moved to Walla Walla Valley, in Washington Territory, where he resided until 1867 when he returned to Brown County and settled in Irving township. Here he resided until his death which took place Nov. 10, 1895.

He was a successful farmer and business man and his fine farm of 320 acres was one of the best in the county and was well and carefully stocked with high grade animals.

In 1890 Mr. Idol in connection with his son Frank and J. N. Mills started the Bank of Robinson. In 1895, when the bank incorporated as a state bank, he was elected its vice president and held this office until the time of his death.

Mr. Idol was a public spirited citizen and could always be counted on to help along any public enterprise. In politics he was a strong Democrat and always took an active part in his party conventions. In 1881, he was nominated for county commissioner and notwithstanding the fact that there was a large Republican majority in the district, he was elected by a handsome majority and he was the first as well as the last commissioner the Democrats ever elected in Brown County.

Mr. Idol was a Mason, belonging to the lodge at White Cloud and the Chapter and Commandry at Hiawatha. His funeral was conducted by the Knight Templars of the Hiawatha Commandry, who accompanied the remains to their final resting place in White Cloud cemetery.

Mr. Idol was married in 1857 in Doniphan County to Miss Jane

Hobbs, a native of Missouri. Five sons and three daughters were born to them. The oldest son, Edward, is a prosperous farmer and breeder of fine Durham cattle and lives on the old homestead in Irving township. Frank is the cashier of the Bank of Robinson and William is his assistant. This is recognized as one of the strong, well managed financial institutions of Brown County and is deservedly popular with the people of Robinson and vicinity. Raymond, the youngest son, is a resident of Saratoga, Wyo., where he is engaged in the lumber business. Luemma, the eldest daughter, was the wife of Granville Arnold of White Cloud. She has been dead a number of years. The second daughter, Flora, is the wife of Dr. E. N. Wilson, a prominent physician of Los Angeles, Cal. The third daughter, Cordella, is the wife of F. M. Pearl, the brilliant Hiawatha lawyer. One son, James, died in infancy. The boys, like their father, are all successful business men and all Democrats.

Edward is one of the largest farmers and stock breeders of Irving township. He makes a specialty of fine cattle and has some of the best short horned blood in the state in his herd. He is a Mason, belonging to the White Cloud lodge, Mt. Horeb Chapter at Hiawatha and Hiawatha Commandry Number 13. He was married in 1895 to Miss Ida Weathers of Doniphan County.

Frank is a graduate of the Gem City Business College. He has been the cashier and manager of the Robinson Bank ever since its organization and to his good judgment and business ability the success of the institution is largely due. He is popular with the people and they like to do business with him. He has been mayor of Robinson twice, and has been a member of the school board for a number of years. In 1893, he was nominated by the Democrats for county treasurer but declined to make the race. He is a Mason, belonging to the Robinson lodge, of which he has been Master and the Mt. Horeb Chapter at Hiawatha. He was married in 1893 to Miss Bessie Truex, of Robinson. They have three children, two sons and a daughter. Their home is one of the best in the city of Robinson.

William is the assistant cashier of the Bank of Robinson. He was educated at Ottawa University. He was the nominee of the fusion forces for the legislature last year and although the county went more than 800 Republican, he was beaten by only about 200 votes. Irving township, where he was born and raised, though Republican by forty majority, gave him a majority of forty-three and Robinson, where he has been in business since reaching his majority, though Republican by sixty-three gave him a majority of 130. No stronger testimonial of his popularity could be had. He is also a Mason, belonging to the Robinson lodge, Mt. Horeb Chapter and Hiawatha Commandry Knights Templar.

Alfonso Robinson.

Alfonso Robinson has been a resident of Brown County for nearly forty-five years. He was born in Franklin County, Maine February 1st, 1835. When he was fifteen years old the family emigrated to Wisconsin settling in Green Lake County. The journey was made from Franklin County to the sea coast by stage; thence to Boston by sea; thence to Buffalo by rail; thence by boat up the lakes to Detroit; thence across Michigan by rail; thence by boat to Milwaukee; and thence by wagon and team to their destination. This is interesting as it shows the methods of traveling in vogue a half century ago. In 1857 Mr. Robinson, then a boy of twenty-two joined a party headed for Kansas. In the party were Jesse, Sam and Thomas Chandler and their families, making seventeen in all in the party. They traveled overland to St. Joe where they crossed the river into Kansas. Here the women and children were left in camp and the men drove to Claytonville the county seat of Brown County and from there started out to look for claims. Mr. Robinson selected his claim early in June and he has resided on it ever since. His place is back from the creek bottom on the high ground and commands a fine view of the country for miles in all directions. It is fenced and cross fenced with hedge, has a good orchard, a commodious and well arranged house, a barn that holds fifty tons of hay, a dozen horses and twenty cows, a granary that holds 4000 bushels of corn and 2000 bushels of grain, a large tool shed and numerous other improvements. In addition to this home farm Mr. Robinson owns another well improved quarter section two miles away and a quarter of well improved land in Oklahoma.

After settling on his claim Mr. Robinson engaged for a time in the freighting business. In February 1860 he married Frances A. Chandler, daughter of Thomas and Hannah Chandler. Four daughters were born to them; Emily, who became the wife of Jno. Engleheart of Hiawatha; Hanna who became the wife of Jas Neel of Hiawatha; Ada who became the wife of Jas. Carr of Hiawatha and Alice who became the wife of M. L. Robinson. Mrs. Robinson died in 1879 and in 1881 Mr. Robinson was married to Miss Josie Butterfield, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Butterfield of Hiawatha. Mrs Robinson is also a native of Maine and came to Kansas in 1863. Five children have been born to them; Sarah, now deceased, who became the wife of L. F. Hundley of Hiawatha and Frank, Dana, Alpha and Edwin.

Mr. Robinson came to Kansas a free state man, and took an active part in the early campaigns which took Brown County out of the control of pro-slavery element. He belonged to the state militia and helped repel the famous Price raid. He affiliated with the Republican party until the Alliance movement when he went with the People's Party organization and has since voted that ticket. He belongs to no lodges and no church.

Stephen Quaif.

Stephen Qualfe was born in Warwickshire, England in October 1831. His first schooling was had in the vestry of the village church and one of his fellow students was the afterwards celebrated George Elliott. In 1840, the family emigrated to New York. Here the subject of this sketch lived until 1857, when he came to Iowa. He staid here only one year and then pushed on to Brown County reaching here in June 1858. He worked in Highland and helped make the brick of which the University building is built. In the fall of 1859, he bought the place where he now resides and moved onto it in 1861. A neatly painted sign at the front gate proclaims the fact that the place is known as "The Walnuts" and that its present owner, Stephen Quaife has been there since 1859. In an article of his in the Robinson Index some years ago, he tells how the country looked at that time. He says:

STEPHEN QUAIFF.

"Brown County at that time was a vast prairie with here and there a settler on the creeks. It seemed to be the custom of all early settlers to locate in the timber along the streams. I have seen these old fellows go through their timber and pick up bark and chips and stand them up against the trees; they thought it was too valuable to leave lying on the ground. How beautiful the country looked at that early day! Great flocks of prairie chickens would rise up as you walked along. Here and there a deer would be seen feeding along with the cattle of the pioneers. Talk about the beauty of Brown County at the present day! It can't be compared to its beauty as it looked at that early date, fresh as it were from the hands of its Creator. The present townsite of Robinson was settled by Ira Smith. I think he represented Brown County in the legislature at Topeka, though I am not sure. He lived in a double log house that stood near where Mr. Holcomb lives. Among the early settlers that are alive and were here before I moved onto my place are Squire Martindale, Mr. Carol, Harry Cheal, John Dowell, Squire Cole, 'Fon Robinson and George Norton; the latter was a small boy at that time. The first town of Robinson was a half mile south of the present site. It was laid out by Capt. O. H. McCauley and, I think, Mr. Ellis.

The first store I remember of was kept by Sam Moorehead and his partner Sam Moore. The mail was brought on a buckboard from Hiawatha via Claytonville and Robinson to Atchison. I remember how we used to gather at the post-office and watch for the mail. How we would watch for the two horses to show their heads on the hill south of town. Sometimes we would be disappointed as it would turn out to be some farmer's team coming to town. Then we would go home to return another day.

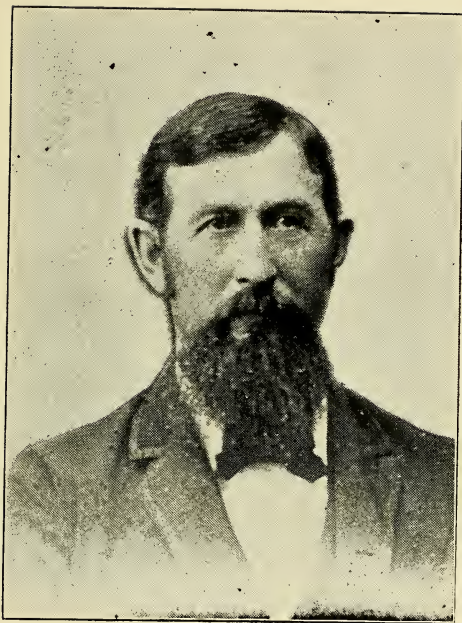

The first school kept in Brown county was a mile due south of my place on what is known as the Krey farm; the teacher's name was Shields, of Hghlanl. The school house was built of logs. There was a graveyard laid out near the schoolhouse and quite a number were buried there. They have all been taken up and moved away to other cemeteries.

The first school in Robinson township that I recollect of was a subscription school kept in a log house on what is called the Jordan farm just east of the Dan Williams place. The teacher's name was Nancy Middleton. There wasn't a whole book in the school, the children had to use the books that their parents used when they went to school. The seats were cottonwood slabs that the early settlers contributed."

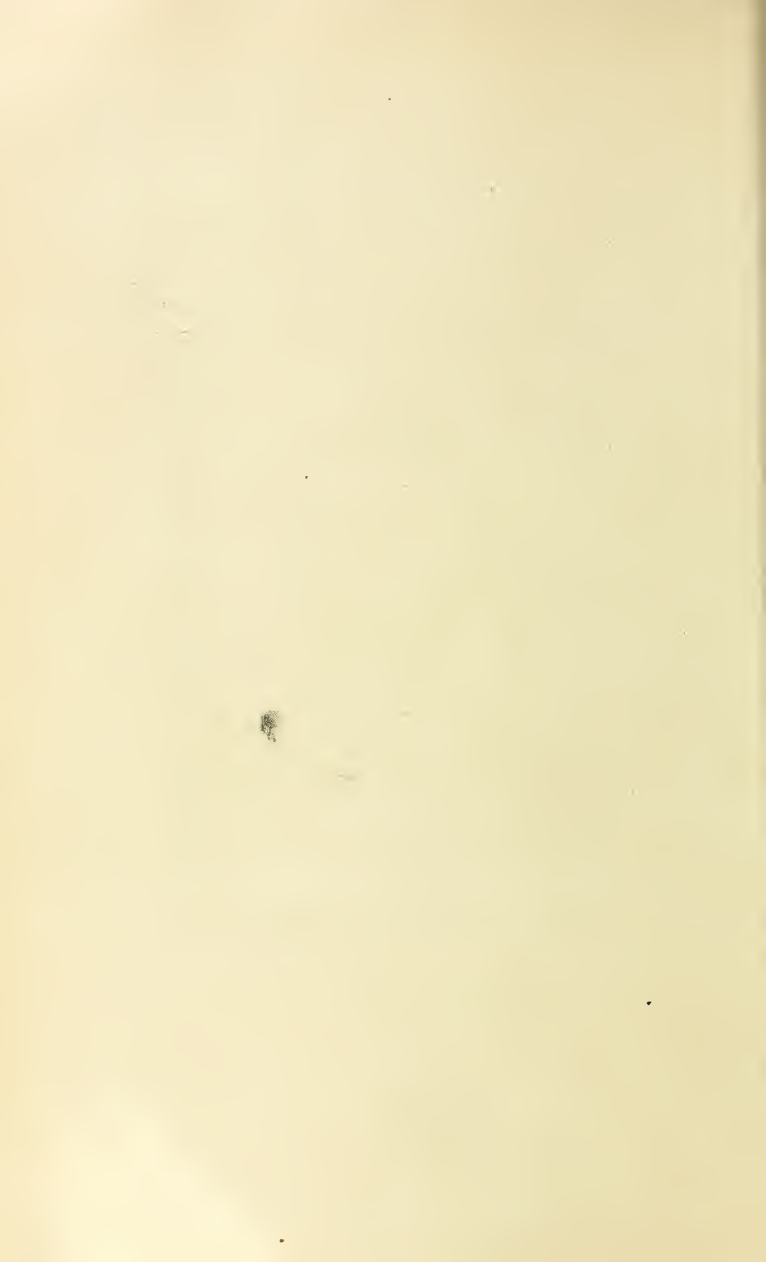

Mr. Quaif was married April 17, 1859 to Miss Mary Ellen Abrams, daughter of Henry Abrams, who came to Kansas in 1854. They have raised a family of five children. Effie, born in 1868, Walter born in 1871, Stanton, born in 1873, Asa born in 1876 and Charlie born in 1890. The daughter is the wife of C. J. Goodrich, a teacher in the government school for Indians at Walters, Cal. The boys, Walter, Stanton and Asa are industrious young farmers who own their lands adjoining the old homestead. Charlie, the youngest, is still at home.

When Capt Lacock organized his company of state militia, he found that Mr. Qualf was a musician and sent for him to come and drill a fife and drum corps for him. Mr. Qualf remembers Worth Babbitt, Albert Melsenheimer, Frank Chandler and Ike Selleg as members of this band which no doubt was the first of its kind in the country. The band went with the company in the spring of 1861, when it went to Holton to attend the organization of the 3rd regiment and attracted a good deal of attention.

In August 1862, Mr. Qualf enlisted in Company H of the 13th Kansas, and was made musician for the company. He was the only man in the regiment who was a musician and he trained and had the charge of the regimental band. He served until the close of the war, taking part in the various services of the regiment.

Mr. Quaff was raised an Episcopalian but joined the Methodists during his stay in Iowa and has since affiliated with that church. He is a strong Republican, having voted that ticket without a break from Fremont to McKinley. He belongs to the G. A. R. Post at Robinson but has no other lodge affiliations. Last year he was elected Justice of the Peace for Robinson township, the only office he has ever held. He has not had a case in his court since his election and thinks the boys played a good joke on him when they elected him.

Henry H. Norton.

Various motives prompted the men who came to Kansas in the territorial days. The great majority of them came simply to make a home, some came to help establish the institution of slavery here and others came with the avowed purpose of helping to make Kansas a free state. Henry H. Norton belonged to this last class. He was born in New York, Dec. 24, 1823. His father, Dennis Norton, was born in England and on coming to America affiliated with the Democratic party. Henry did not follow in his footsteps but became a black abolitionist. He believed thoroughly that slavery was wrong and he did not hesitate to make known his beliefs. He was married in Columbus County, New York Oct. 21, 1843 to Hannah Dibell, also a native of New York state. They lived in New York until 1857 when they came to Kansas and pre-empted a claim in Hiawatha township. Mr. Norton died in 1867 and Mrs. Norton in 1901. They raised a family of five children. Amella E., the oldest, was born in Saquoit, New York Feb. 6, 1845. She became the wife of Lieutenant Dudley Sawyer. Eliza was born Nov. 9, 1846. George Henry was born at Paris, N. Y., May 19, 1849 and is the only one of the family now living. Frank Lowell was born April 6, 1852 and died at Hiawatha in 1900. Dibell Wright was born April 29, 1861 and died at Hiawatha in 1901.

Mr. Norton was an educated man and took a great interest in educational matters. He was the moving spirit in the organization of a school district in his neighborhood in 1860 and was the first clerk of the district. He was an aggressive free state man and was often threatened by the pro-slavery element for his utterances. He believed in fighting the battle in the open and was never a promoter of the underground railway. He was only 47 at the time of his death but had lived to see not only Kansas a free state but slavery wiped out of existence in this government.

Geo. H. Norton.

Geo. H. Norton, the well known Hiawatha township farmer and stock raiser was eight years old when his father, Henry H. Norton, pre-empted his claim in Hiawatha township. This was in June, 1857. The family came from New York, where George was born, May 19, 1849. He was the oldest son and the conspicuous part his father played during the free state troubles brought him into frequent contact with the pro-slav ery men and left a vivid recollection of these times on his mind. His father was an educated man and wanted to give his children all the advantages of the schools that he could. He was instrumental in the organization of School District No. 6, Dutch Bellvue, as it is called. The pioneers met out on the prairie behind a haystack out of the wind and organized the district. Henry Norton was elected clerk and rode through the district and solicited help from the farmers to get out the logs for the school house. When all was in readiness the whole neighborhood turned out and helped put up the building, finishing up the day's work with a dance at the Norton Cabin that night. In this school house George received his education, attending school in the winter and working on the farm, summers. His father died in 1867, before the pioneer days were hardly over, and the cares and responsibilities of the family were santed on his young shoulders. This task he faithfully performed and he knows full well the trials and vicissitudes of those early pioneer days. He has also shared the rewards which awaited the man who had faith in Kansas and stayed with her. To-day in addition to his interest in the old homestead which his father pre-empted in 1857, he has 200 acres of choice Brown County land which he has bought and paid for out of his savings. A fine residence, good orchard, substantial buildings, well-fenced fields and plenty of good stock all testify to the fact that the place is the home of a progressive, up to date prosperous Brown County farmer. Mr. Norton has always taken an active interest in the educational work of his neighborhood and for sixteen years was a member of the school board in his district. In 1893 he was elected trustee of Hiawatha township by a good substantial majority. He has always been a stalwart Republican and could have had all kinds of favors at the hands of his party had he desired them. He believes thoroughly in the educational value of the Farmers' Institute and always takes an active part in its program. He is a Mason belonging to the Hiawatha Lodge, No. 35, A. F. & A. M., but has no other lodge affiliations.

Mr. Norton was married on March 26, 1878, to Miss Luella J. White, daughter of Len T. White, of Hiawatha. Four children have been born to them. The oldest daughter, Nora, is the wife of Truman Jacques, and the second daughter, Beryl, is the wife of Lewis A. Day, two energetic farmers of Hiawatha township. The son, Walter L., is dead. The youngest daughter, Florence, is a school girl and lives with her parents.

Noah Hanson.

Noah Hanson was born in Windham, Cumberland county, Maine, December 14th, 1814, died at Carson, Brown County, Kansas May 5th 1899. He came of good sturdy Quaker stock, both his father and mother being of English descent. He received a practical education at the district school and also at Alfred and Parsonfield Maine Academies and at the Friends school in Providence, Rhode Island. He commenced to teach when he was seventeen years of age and taught fifteen winters, working on the farm summers.

In 1845 he went to Portland, Me., and engaged in merchandising which business he followed until 1857.

He was married in 1847 to Mary C.

NOAH HANSON.

Windslow of Windham who still survives him. Five children were born to them, Howard Byron, Martha E. now a resident of Kansas City and Irving M., Walter H. and Oscar A. residents of Brown county.

Mr. Hanson was an ardent abolitionist and in 1857 joined a colony for Kansas. One of those of whom Whittier sung—

"They crossed the prairies as of old,
The pilgrims crossed the sea
To make the west, as they the east
The homestead of the free."

Major Morrill, I. P. Winslow, J. G. Leavitt and W. G. Sargent were also members of the party. They reached Brown county early in the spring and Mr. Hanson at once pre-empted the northeast quarter of section 28 in what is now Walnut township.

In 1859 he was appointed postmaster at Carson by President Buchanan. This place he held for over twenty years, the office being kept at his residence.

He helped organize the first school district in the county and was its first director and as such superintended the building of the first school house in the county.

In 1861 Mr. Hanson was elected a County Commissioner serving in this capacity for two years. He was elected County Superintendent of School in 1864 and re-elected in 1866 and 1868. In addition to holding these offices he was trustee of Walnut township for seven terms.

Mr. Hanson took an active part in the Alliance movement. He was a delegate to the convention which organized the People's Party in Brown county in 1890 and has participated in most all of the party conventions since that date.

Mr. Hanson has been gradually failing since January but the end came peacefully and quietly. The funeral services were conducted from the family residence last Sunday by Rev. L. P. Jones of the Seneca Universalist church. The pall bearers were Jacob Weltmer, J. M. Boomer, A. Kesler, J. D. Halgh, Henry Stafford and Felix O'Neil and the remains were laid to rest in the Old Fairview cemetery—Kansas Democrat May 11, 1899.

George J. Englehart.

A history of the Brown County pioneers would not be complete without a sketch of Ex-Mayor George J. Englehart of St. Joseph. He was born in Hohensultzen, Germany, near the city of Worms, January 23, 1831. When he was yet an infant his family emigrated to Ohio and settled on a farm near Mansfield. Here Mr. Englehart lived until he was sixteen and then he secured employment in a dry goods store in the same place. From here he went to Cincinnati, but in 1855 he caught the gold fever and made the trip to California and went to work in the mines. Here he staid for three years, meeting with success. On July 3, 1858, he took passage on the steamer Golden Gate and one month later landed in New York. For a time he worked on the old home farm in Ohio and then he decided to come to Kansas. He made the trip by boat up the Missouri to Iowa Point, which was then the landing place for the pioneers of northeastern Kansas. Kansas City was unknown in that day and St. Joseph gave little or no promise of ever being a city. From Iowa Point, he walked out to Hiawatha, where his brother Jacob, had a claim, he being the first settler in what is now Hiawatha township. There were only a few scattering houses in Hiawatha and Mr. Englehart, with that shrewd business judgment which has always characterized him, saw an opportunity for starting a general store. He returned to St. Louis in February 1859 and purchased a stock of goods, paying for them with the gold he had dug out of the California mines. Associated with him in business was his old partner in the California mines, Raymond Fairchild and the firm became Englehart & Fairchild. This firm not only did a general merchandise business but handled grain as well and Sol Miller who ran the White Cloud Chief chronicles a shipment of 3,000 bushels of wheat from that firm in 1862. Mr. Englehart was an ardent free state man and at once took an active part in shaping the politics of the county. In August of that year (1859) the free state men held a convention at Hiawatha to nominate a county ticket and made Mr. Englehart their nominee for County treasurer. He was elected and re-elected two years later serving the county four years in this important office. During the war he belonged to the Brown County Battalion of the state militia and helped to repel the Price raid in 1864.

In 1866 Mr. Englehart sold his interest in Brown County to his partner and went to St. Joseph, where he went into the wholesale business. Here he has prospered and for years he has been recognized as one of the foremost business men of St. Joseph. He is a large stock holder and the president of the Johnston Woodburn Hat Co. and the Englehart Davidson Merchantile Co., two establishments which do an immense business.

In 1886 Mr. Englehart was nominated by the Republicans of St. Joseph for mayor and elected by a small majority. Two years later, he was renominated and re-elected by one of the largest majorities ever given a candidate in that city. In 1890 he was nominated for state senator but declined to make the race. He has been president of the St. Joe Board of Trade and is justly esteemed as one of the most progressive citizens of St. Joseph.

Peter Pfeiffer.

In the year 1856 Peter Pfeiffer then a lad of eighteen years, came to Brown County. Forty-five years later sees him a prosperous farmer with four hundred and fifty acres of rich land in Brown County, the President of a bank and director in the Fair Association, president and promoter of the Farmers' Institute and a live, wide awake, public spirited citizen. Mr. Pfeiffer was born in Frankfort on the Maine in Germany in 1838. He came to Boston in 1854 remaining there until the Kansas troubles in 1856. Then he came west and cast his lot with the Free State men of the new territory. Finding that he was too young to enter land he entered the employ of the government at Ft. Leavenworth as a wagon master and continued in the government service for nine years. He was with Gen. Albert Sydney Johnson in his expedition to Salt Lake and conducted the Territorial officers over 600 miles of roadless territory to Arizona. In 1865 he returned to Brown County and settled on the farm he now occupies.

PETER PFEIFFER.

He was married in 1865 to Mary McCoy daughter of Daniel McCoy, one of the pioneers who came to Brown County in 1857. Their family consists of three children, Daniel, who is a ticket agent on the Pennsylvania railroad; Harry, a prosperous young farmer of Hamlin and Adaline, who graduated from the Hiawatha Academy last year. Mr. Pfeiffer is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Padonia. He belongs to Hamlin lodge No. 185 A F. and A. M. He was one of the original stock holders of the bank of Hamlin and at its reorganization in 1897 was elected its president which position he now holds. Recognizing the value of a Fair Association and a Farmers' Institute to the farmers of the county, he has been earnestly working for both institutions. He is a stock holder in the Fair Association and has been one of its directors a good share of the time for the past 20 years. He is at the present time president of the Farmers' Institute. He is a progressive, public spirited, esteemed and respected by all with whom he comes in contact.

Raymond Scott Fairchild.

Raymond Scott Fairchild or "Scott Fairchild" as he was familiarly known, was intimately connected with the early history of Brown County. He was born Dec. 9, 1817, in Batavia, N. Y. Sometime after this, his parents moved to Lucas County, Ohio where the subject of this sketch grew to manhood. Here he was educated in the country school, attending school in the winter and working on the farm in the summer. When he was fourteen years old, he quit school entirely and hired out as a farm hand. He was afterwards employed for a short time on the Dayton & Ohio R. R. In 1854, he went to California by the water route, arriving in San Francisco sick and with only $1 00 in money. He went to work in the mines and in a few years had enough to bring him back to the east and start him in business. His partner in the mines had been Geo. J. Englehart and in 1858, they came to Hiawatha and started the firm of Englehart & Fairchild. This was at that time the only store in Brown County. The first stock of goods cost $2,500.00, but this was afterwards increased to about $6,000.00. In 1865, Mr. Englehart sold out his interest to Major E. N. Morrill, the firm being known as Fairchild & Morrill. Mr. Morrill soon retired and Mr. Fairchild continued the business alone until 1875.

Mr. Fairchild was married in Hiawatha, Aug. 6th. 1862 to Maggie E. Selleg, the eighteen year old daughter of A. J. Selleg. Three children were born to them, Ernest, Hal and Fay. Ernest is a Hiawatha township farmer, Hal is the up to date plumber of Hiawatha and Fay is the wife of Wm. Heffner, Jr., a Hiawatha township farmer.

Mr. Fairchild was made an Odd Fellow in California and was active in organizing the Hiawatha lodge. He was also a Mason, belonging to Hiawatha Lodge 35, Troy Chapter 16 and Washington Commandry of Knights Templar of Atchison. He was a Universalist and a Republican. Both Mr. and Mrs. Fairchild have been dead for several years and are buried in the Hiawatha cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moser.

John Moser, who now lives in comfort and luxury in a pretty modern residence in east Hiawatha, is the oldest living settler in Hiawatha township, Jacob Englehart was the only settler in the township when, on the last day of March 1855, Mr. Moser, Christian and Rudy Zimmerman and their families moved into the township.

Mr. Moser was born near Bern,

MR. AND MRS. JOHN MOSER.

Switzerland on March 26, 1826. He received a common school education and was employed with his father as a brick and tile burner until 1854 when he came to America. He spent one summer in Andrew County, Mo. and the next spring pushed on into the new Kansas Territory and preempted his claim in Hiawatha township. Here he has prospered and added to his holdings until now he owns 360 acres of the choicest Brown County land handsomely improved with a brick residence, good barns and other conveniences. Some years ago he rented his farm and moved into Hiawatha city.

During the war, Mr. Moser belonged to the Brown County Battalion of State Militia and helped repel the Price raid. In politics, he was always a Republican until the all-ance movement struck Brown County, since which time he has affiliated with the Populist party.

In 1852, Mr. Moser was married to Maglema Wenger, also a native of Switzerland. Five sons and three daughters were born to them, John, the oldest son was killed in a street car accident during the World's Fair at Chicago; Fred, Arnold, Eli and Frank are prosperous farmers of Hiawatha township. Elizabeth is the wife of Frank Norton, deceased, Anna, is the wife of Rev. J. K. Young, of Abilene; Mary, lives with her father in Hiawatha. Mrs. Moser died in 1896 and is buried in the Hiawatha cemetery. Both Mr. and Mrs. Moser have been active members of the Evangelical church of Hiawatha for many years.

Seth Barnum.

The first resident of Hiawatha was Seth Barnum. He was a Vermonter and was born in Addison County in the Green Mountain state Jan. 17 1806. He was the son of Ellhu and Tamer Barnum and a relative of the great showman P. T. Barnum. His grandfather was a soldier in the Revolutionary war and was killed in one of the skirmishes with the Indians. Mr. Barnum received a practical education in the Vermont schools. He resided in his native state until 1850 when he moved to Crawford County Pa. Here he resided until 1856 when he started for Illinois with his family making the pilgrimage with three teams and three wagons. The presidential campaign was at a white heat and the family saw all phases of it as they crossed the country. Being an ardent abolitionist Mr. Barnum was enthused over the situation in Kansas and determined to move there and help make it a free state. The winter of 1856-7 was passed at New Boston Ill. Here he traded his two span of horses for four yoke of oxen that he might have a breaking team and as soon as the weather permitted in the spring he pushed on to Kansas. Hiawatha was reached early in the spring. The journey from Ill. was made with four yoke of oxen and one span of horses.

A town had been staked out and the town company was building a hotel on the corner where the Morrill and Janes bank now stands. Mr. Barnum preempted the claim adjoining the town on the south and the family lived in a tent until the hotel was enclosed when they moved into it. This hotel was the only public building in Hiawatha for a long time and it was in this building that Chief Justice Pettitt held court in 1859. Mr. Barnum did not keep the hotel long, but having built a residence a few lots west of the hotel he moved into that and Andrew G. Sellegg succeeded him as proprietor of the hotel. The Barnum residence was afterward moved onto his claim south of town where it still stands. Here Mr. Barnum resided until his death which took place Dec. 31 1893. Mr. Barnum was married in Vermont to Miss Polly M. Partch. Fourteen children were born to them, of whom three are still residents of Brown County. They are Celinda, wife of Edw. S. Peiffer of Hiawatha, and John S. of Hiawatha, and Samuel G. a resident of Walnut township. Mrs. Barnum died in 1873 and Mr. Barnum was married again to Miss Rachel Ramsey who still survives him.

Mr. Barnum took an active interest in all efforts to build up and advance the community. He was a Universalist and helped to organize that society in Hiawatha. He was a strong abolitionist and an ardent free statesman and naturally cast his lot with the Republican party. He was public spirited in all things and is remembered most kindly by all the old settlers.

Edward R. Cornelison.

It will doubtless always be a question as to who was the first white settler in Brown County. Edward R. Cornelison, an honored and respected citizen of Reserve was certainly one of the first and there is certainly no man living in the county today who was here when Mr. Cornelison marked his claim on Walnut Creek. He first came to the county in 1854, and marked his claim and then returned to Missouri for his family, returning the next spring when the actual settlement was made.

Mr. Cornelison, or uncle "Ed" as every one calls him, was born in Madison County, Ky, Jan. 8th 1826. His grandfathers on both his father's and mother's side were soldiers in the Revolutionary war, the one serving in North Carolina, and the other in Delaware. Both emigrated to Kentucky after the war where the parents of Mr. Cornelison were born.

On Nov. 26 1846. Mr. Cornelison was married in Madison County, Ky. to Miss Elizabeth A. Gillisple, also a native of the blue grass state, having been born near Richmond, May, 5th, 1830. They at once emigrated to Andrew County, Missouri, where they lived until 1855, when they moved to Brown County. They continued to live on their Brown County homestead until 1894 when they moved into town of Reserve Here Mrs, Cornellson died Nov. 21, 1895 and was laid to rest in the Hart cemetery. She was held in high esteem by her neighbors and was greatly beloved by her family, to whom she had been a faithful wife and mother. Both Mr. and Mrs. Cornelison have been members of the Christian church for many years and Mr. Cornelison is the senior elder of the church.

Four sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Cornellison; John, Frank, a merchant at Reserve, Robert, who is in the grain business at Reserve, Henry, who died at the age of 23 years and William, who is engaged in the grocery business at Fairfield, Nebr.

Mr. Cornelison has been a successful farmer and business man He has added to his original homestead until it has grown to 480 acres. It is mostly upland and is in a high state of cultivation, well improved and with a good orchard. There is also a hundred acres of native timber on the place. In politics, Mr. Cornelison has always been a Democrat. He served a year as treasurer of Padonia township and was justice of the peace for six years. In 1880, he was his party nominee for county commissioner and in 1884 for the legislature but his party was in a hopeless minority. He cared little for political honor but rather preferred to give his attention to his business affairs. It is nearly half a century now since he first saw Brown County and now surrounded by his friends and neighbors who honor and respect him, he can look back upon a well spent life for he has always been a valuable and useful member of the community.

Isaac F. Martindale.

Isaac F. Martindale was born near Greenfield, Hancock County, Ind., December 6, 1832 and lived in his native state until the year 1856. He spent one year in Iowa but in February 1857, he located in Brown County and pre-empted a claim. The next year it was wanted for a townsite and he sold out to a company from Parkville, which located the old town of Robinson upon it. Mr. Martindale then pre-empted a quarter in section 20, town 3, range 18, which he still owns. Here he spent the active years of his life devoting his energies to cultivating the soil and to the raising of feed and shipping of stock. In this, he prospered and from time to time he added to his farm until now it comprises 385 acres. This tract is highly improved with a fine residence, good barns, extensive feed lots and large orchards. The Meadowbrook school house is located on one corner of this farm. In addition to this fine farm Mr. Martindale also owns a fine property in the city of Robinson, where he now lives.

Mr. Martindale was raised a Democrat but on coming to Kansas he cast his lot with the free state men and helped organize the Republican party in the county. He has been one of the strong adherents ever since. He was the first free state constable in Claytonville township. This office he held for three terms. He was, then elected Justice of the Peace for one term. Later, he held the office of Justice of Peace in Robinson for two terms. During the war he was a member of Company C of the Brown County Battalion and was 3rd Sergeant when the company was called out to help repel the Price raid in 1864.

Mr. Martindale was married on March 24, 1859 to Miss Lucinda Abshear - daughter of Abraham Abshear, one of the pioneers. Seven children were born to them, Minerva Alice, born in 1861, who became the wife of Thomas Glover, of Garfield County, Colo., James A. born in 1863; Calvin, born in 1865; Cora, born in 1868, now the wife of John Proctor of Willis; Anctia, born in 1871, now wife of William Snyder, of Robinson; Isaac F., born in 1875 and William, born in 1881. Calvin, the second son was married in 1898 to Miss Myrtle Nellans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis Nellans, of Robinson. They live on a farm near Robinson and have two children. Isaac F. was married in 1899 to Miss Ida Conkle, of Missouri. They now live on the old homestead.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Martindale are members of the Methodist church at Robinson, which they helped to organize more than a quarter of a century ago.

John A. Dowell.

John A. Dowell is one of the well known pioneers of Brown County, who came here in the 1857. He was born in Warren County, Va., March 22, 1830. He lived here until 1847 when he removed to Licking County, Ohio. Here he staid until 1856, when he came to Tama County, Iowa, but the next year he came to Kansas. He pre-empted the land just across the road from where the Prairie Springs school house now stands and transformed it from the raw prairie into one of the finest improved farms in the state, with a fine residence, good bank barn and improvements. He dealt in fine cattle and horses and did much to improve the breed of the fine stock in this county. This farm he sold in 1890 and went to the Indian Territory but realizing that no place is quite so good as Brown County, he disposed of his interests in the territory and returned bought the farm east of Robinson, where he resided until recently when he moved into Robinson still retaining his farm however.

Mr. Dowell was a free state man during the territorial troubles and his life was often threatened by the pro-slavery element. He was a Republican in politics and was usually a delegate to the county conventions of that party until 1890, when the Alliance movement struck Kansas. He took an active part in the Alliance work and upon the organization of the County Alliance, he was made Lecturer. He was an active worker in the People's Party and helped to organize it in Brown County. He was never a seeker after office and aside from serving as a member of the school board for a number of years, has never held an office.

He was married in November 1858 at White Cloud to Miss Mary C. Northern. They have six children, Emma, wife of Charlie Kelley, of Santa Anna, California; Elmer E. of Robinson; Charles, of Hamlin; Hattie, wife of Harry Thomas, of Fairview and George H. and John, of Santa Anna, California.

Mr. Dowell is a member of the I. O. O. F. fraternity having joined it at Wyandotte, I. T.

Isaac B. Hoover.

Isaac B. Hoover was one of the first settlers in Brown County and was prominently identified with its early history. When the free state men met in Hiawatha in 1857 to nominate a county ticket Hoover was named as one of the commissioners to locate the county seat and was elected at the ensuing election together with the rest of the free state ticket. I. B. Hoover, Isaac Chase and I. P. Winslow formed the board and they took the county seat away from Claytonville and located it at Carson. When Carson school district No. 1 was organized in 1859 Mr. Hoover was named as clerk. He was chosen chairman of the board of supervisors of Walnut Township at the spring election that year. In the county election in 1860 he was elected a county commissioner. In 1861 he was elected sheriff of the county and reelected in 1863. He had no children and some time before his death he decided to leave his property to the Hiawatha Academy. It was his generous bequest on his part followed by that of his wife at her death which enabled that worthy institution to carry out its good work. Mr. Hoover was a loyal and enthusiastic Mason and was a charter member of the lodge, chapter and commandry at Hiawatha. At his death which occurred July 23, 1890 he was laid to rest by the Sir Knights of the Hiawatha Commandry. Mrs. Hoover survived her husband until May 10, 1896 when she was laid beside him in the Hiawatha cemetery.

Although prominently identified with the history and progress of the county there seems to be few people who know much about his history. Hon. W. W. Guthrie of Atchison under date of March 29, 1901 wrote of him as follows:

"I found Hoover living on a claim which took in a part of the Hatfield grove, when I went to Brown County the last of June, 1858, and that he went from Illinois, a single man, in the early part of that spring. He was a blacksmith by trade and had a shop at his claim until elected sheriff when he removed to Hiawatha, the court records, will give the date of his election and the time of holding his office. He has been a soldier in the Mexican War and landed at Vera Cruz with General Scott's army. At the close of that war he took an active part in the affairs of Brown County, and was at the head of an anti-horse thief association of which there was great need in that day, and captured the Hatfield horses, which were stolen in mid-summer of 1857, in the Kaw river timber without being able to get a shot at the thief, but afterwards assisted Hatfield in recovering large damages out of property found in that county, in the first law-suit that I had in Kansas, and out of which Hatfield, Hoover and I divided the profits in gold. When the Civil War broke out, he organized a militia company on Walnut creek, which furnished a good many volunteers later on. He was one of the County Commissioners who located the county seat at Carson where it remained until located by election at Hiawatha. His next public office was that of sheriff to which he was elected with practically no opposition. He with Morrill, Burnett, Joel G. Kelsey, Gregory Aman, myself, (the man who raised the walnut trees on the south side of the road about two miles, and the Robinson man who was county commissioner, and long since dead—just now I cannot think of the name of either) organized one of the early Masonic Lodges at Hiawatha.

I think he was married just following his election as sheriff and moved into my house, near the northwest corner of the square, and lived there during his term of office and during which I left the county and could not tell about his life in Hiawatha after that except that he carried on a blacksmith and wagon shop in the east part of town until well along in years, and retired from his business in affluent circumstances, several years before his death.

To sit down and talk about an old acquaintance on short notice, this is about as good a sketch as I can furnish the items for. Everybody knew him to be an honest, fair and moral man, who had very few advantages for education in his early life, and who, having no relatives in Kansas concluded to place his property where it would enable other young man to accomplish in the world what he might have done to a much better advantage, had he had any school advantages in his boyhood.

Charles Knabb.

Charles Knabb president of the First National Bank of Hiawatha was born in Berks County, Pa., August 31, 1836, and is the son of William and Margaret Knabb. His great grandfather emigrated to America from Prussia and was among the early pioneers of Berks County. The house he built is still owned by the Knabb family and in it the subject of this sketch was born. Mr. Knabb spent his boy hood days on the farm receiving the education furnished by the district schools of that section and supplementing it by six months study at an Academy. In 1857 he came to Iowa but after a three months sojourn there came to Leavenworth in this state. Here he began teaming. The excitement over the Colorado gold fields created a demand for freighters and for five years Mr. Knabb followed that business. The Indians on the Kansas plains were not at all friendly to the whites at this time and Mr. Knabb and his associates had many thrilling experiences during this time.

In 1868 he came to Brown County and purchased a half section of land on Wolf Creek in Robinson Township and began farming and stock raising. He has been successful in this line and for years has been recognized as one of the largest feeders in the county. He has added from time to time to his holdings until now he owns upward of 1,500 acres of land all of which is well improved and in a high state of cultivation.

Mr. Knabb has been a leading stockholder in the First National Bank for a good many years and in 1894 he was elected its president. Under his able management the bank has prospered and is recognized as one of the institutions of which Brown County is justly proud.

Mr. Knabb is public spirited and progressive. He is a stockholder in the County Fair Association and has been treasurer of the Association for a number of years. He is also an active worker in the Farmers' Institute and is always ready to help along with his counsel and his purse any public enterprise.

In politics Mr. Knabb is a Republican but takes little active part in political affairs. He was elected trustee of Claytonville township in 1870 and reelected in 1871. The next year the township divisions were changed and Mr. Knabb was thrown into Robinson township. Here he was again elected trustee making three years service in that office. In 1880 there was a vacancy in the office of County Commissioner and Mr. Knabb was appointed to fill it. He was nominated as his own successor by the Republican convention that fall and elected at the November election.

Mr. Knabb was married in 1865 to Miss Sarah Getcher a daughter of John and Rebecca Getcher of Berks County, Pa. Two children have been born to them, William the cashier of the First National Bank of Hiawatha and Cora E. wife of Dr. Geo. C. McKnight of Hiawatha. Both Mr. and Mrs. Knabb and their children are members of the First Presbyterian Church of Hiawatha of which Mr. Knabb has been a trustee for many years.

Thomas J. Hart.

In August, 1856, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Hart settled on Walnut creek in what is now Padonia township, and pre-empted a quarter section of land Iowa Point was their nearest trading point and the trips to and from this source of supply were made with an ox team. Material for a small frame house was hauled from the Missouri River and the work of making a home in the new territory was commenced. Gradually well tilled fields took the place of raw prairie and timber land. Other lands were added until the farm had grown to a thousand acres, all in a high state of cultivation and well improved in every respect.

Mr. Hart "Uncle Tommy Hart" as he was familiarly known to everybody, was a native of Ohio. He was born in Richmond county Feb. 25th 1826. When eleven years old, his father moved to Andrew county, Mo.

where Mr. Hart continued to reside until he came to Brown County. He lived on the place he had pre-empted in 1856 until December 13th, 1895, when he passed away and was laid to rest in the Hart cemetery by his brethren of the Masonic fraternity.

Few men have lived in Brown County who were more universally respected by all who knew them. He was a successful farmer and a man of sterling integrity. He was a member of the Christian church for many years before his death. In politics he was a Democrat, but he never cared for political preferment.

Mrs. Hart's maiden name was Nancy J. Gillispie. She was born Oct. 2nd, 1827, near Richmond, Ky. Her people were of that sturdy Virginia stock which settled Kentucky and from them she inherited that generous hospitality which has characterized her Brown County home for half a century. Her father died when she was a child and her mother married again and moved with her family to Missouri. Here she became acquainted with Mr. Hart and they were married on Sept. 2nd, 1847. Nine children were born to them, William, Henry, a prominent farmer of Padonia township, Thos. J. a leading farmer and stock-buyer of Reserve, Mary Jane, wife of R. M. Stewart of Reserve, Margaret who died in childhood, Jackson a successful Padonia township farmer Sarah E. wife of J.M. Davis, of Reserve, Harvey W. a successful farmer and now trustee of Padonia township, Robert, who died in childhood, and Perry F. who now owns and successfully operates the old home stead. All of the children it will be noted reside in Brown County and there are frequent family reunions at Grandpa Hart's.

Owen Jones.

May 15th, 1902, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Jones of Mission Township, surrounded by six sons, one daughter, and twenty grandchildren, celebrated their golden wedding. Forty-five years of their married life has been spent in Brown County and none are more highly esteemed in all the county than are this worthy couple. Mr. Jones was born in Merionethshire, North Wales, Feb. 2nd, 1828. He spent his boyhood days on the farm and was early trained to habits of thrift, industry and economy. Mrs. Jones was the daughter of Richard and M. Williams, and was born in Wales, July 27, 1829. They were married May 15th, 1852, and bidding "good bye" to friends and kindred they at once started for the New World. The voyage to New York took six weeks in those days.

For two and a half years Mr. and Mrs. Jones lived at Utica, New York, and then came to Iowa where they lived a couple of years. In 1857 they started on an overland trip to Kansas with two yoke of oxen, four cows and their household goods. The settlement was made on the southeast quarter of section 25; Township 4, Range 17, Mission Township, and here they have resided ever since. For six months they lived in a covered wagon and then moved into a sod house which Mr. Jones had erected.

When Judge Sam'l A Kingman decided to move to the new town of Hiawatha, Mr. Jones bought the logs in his cabin and put them up on his own place. In 1883 he erected his present commodious residence. Fortune has been kind to Mr. Jones. He has been thrifty and industrious and nature has responded year after year with bounteous harvests. His surplus earnings have been invested from time to time in other lands until now the Jones homestead consists of 1250 acres and is known as the Walnut Grove Farm. In addition to this Mr. Jones is a stock holder and President of the bank of Everest and is interested in many other enterprises. Mr. Jones was a stalwart Free State man and took an active part in the trying scenes of the Territorial days. His neighbors were, many of them, radical pro-slavery people and Mr. Jones carries to this day a scar inflicted upon him in a bout with the first pro-slavery sheriff of the County. During the war Mr. Jones served in Capt. M. C. Willis's Company of the State Militia, during the Price Raid, enlisting at Kennekuk in 1864. For years Mr. Jones was an ardent Republican and to use his own expression used to sit at the feet of Horace Greeley of whom he was an ardent admirer. Thoroughly honest and independent he tied himself to no political party or sectarian creed. In 1896 feeling that the free coinage of silver would add to the prosperity of the country he gave a hearty support to Mr. Bryan

Eight children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Jones. William O., was born in Oneida, New York, July 14, 1853, and now resides in Quenemo, Franklin County. He is married to Miss Rebecca Meisenheimer and has a family of two sons and two daughters. Catherine A., the only daughter, was born in June 1855. She is the wife of W. H. Ryherd a resident of Atchison County, Kansas, and is the mother of six children, two sons and four daughters. Richard C. was born Feb. 16, 1860 in Brown County. He read law in Hiawatha, and was admitted to the bar in 1882, being the first child born in Brown county to achieve that distinction. For three years he served as City Attorney for Hiawatha and Deputy County Attorney. In 1885 he moved to Gove County Kansas where he resided for ten years, during which time he practiced his profession and was twice County Attorney of that county. Here he also joined the Masonic fraternity and was Worshipful Master of the Lodge of Gove City. In 1895 he returned to Brown County and started the State Bank of Everest of which he is the cashier and principal stock holder. He was married in 1884 in Hiawatha to Desmond D. Wright; they have two sons, Owen C. and Richard Harold. Lincoln A. was born March 25, 1862, and is now a resident of Atchison County. He was married March 8, 1890 to Miss Hogan of Missouri. They have a family of four daughters and one son. Owen, Jr., was born April 14, 1865 and is a prosperous Brown county farmer. Greeley was born June 30, 1868. He now resides in Gove County, Kansas where he is interested in the banking business and where he has extensive cattle interests. He was married in 1891 to Miss Roger and has a family of two daughters and one son. George was born Aug. 30, 1871 and is a resident of Brown County. He was married in 1898 to Miss Graham of Missouri. They have one son.

Chas. L. Carroll of Robinson Township was born in Richmond, Coblenden County, Vermont December 3, 1827 and came from there in May 1858 to Sumner in Atchison County. Here he resided for ten months and then moved to Robinson in Brown County where he has since made his home. He took a prominent part in the early territorial affairs and county politics. He has always been a stalwart Republican and has sat in most of the conventions held by that party in this county. He has served as Constable, Clerk and Treasurer of Robinson Township. In 1873 he was the nominee of the party for County Commissioner but was defeated in the land slide to the Farmer's Ticket of that year. Two years later he was given the nomination and elected by a handsome majority. During the Price Raid he was enrolled in Capt. Swazey's Company of the 19th Regiment of the Kansas Militia.

Mr. Carroll was married in Washington county, Vermont to Miss Lucy Scribner. Three children have been born to them; Ellen, who died

J. S. Tyler

In infancy; Chas. E., who died in 1890 and Alice who is the wife of Jas. E. Curtis, a resident of Robinson Township. Mr. Carroll has been a member of the Methodist church for a good many years. He was one of the incorporators of the Hiawatha M. E. church in the spring of 1866, the first chartered church in the county. That fall he helped to incorporate the Mount Carmel M. E. church of Claytonville Township. In 1875 he was one of the incorporators of the Robinson M. E. church to which he now belongs. He was one of the organizers of the Fair Association in Brown County, served as one of its Vice Presidents and later was a member of its Board of Directors.

Mr. Carroll has been a successful farmer and his fine half section farm is justly considered one of the best in Robinson Township.

John S. Tyler.

John S. Tyler, the successful farmer, stock raiser and public spirited citizen of Walnut Township, also enjoys the distinction of being one of the earliest settlers in the County, having marked his claim on Delaware Creek April 7th, 1856. Mr. Tyler was born in Griswold, New London, Connecticut, Nov. 16th, 1825, and is the son of Henry C. and Harriette (Hyde) Tyler and a grandson of Henry Tyler of Revolutionary War fame. He was educated in the common schools of Connecticut and taught one winter before reaching his majority. When he was twenty-one he removed to Dubuque, Iowa, where he spent two years in lead mining. He then went to New Orleans for his health and resided there one winter. Then he moved to Harding, Illinois where for six years he was engaged in the lumber business and in farming.

In 1856 he joined the tide of immigrants to Kansas and came to Brown County, Drummond's place, near Hiawatha, was at that time the only house west of Highland. Mr. Tyler crossed the county into Nemaha on a prospecting tour, but reaching the conclusion that he had passed by the best land, returned and located on Delaware Creek, where he has since resided. Here he entered into stock raising and farming in both of which he has been most successful. He raises and handles much stock and is an extensive feeder. His home farm contains 800 acres. It is all enclosed by substantial fences and is all in cultivation. It is well supplied with water by means of springs and wells and the Delaware River, which runs through the center of it. He has a large thrifty orchard on the premises and a small vineyard. The property is well timbered, having 80 acres of oak, elm and walnut trees. The improvements are all good. In addition to his home farm Mr. Tyler has lands in other counties, which brings his holdings up to 1700 acres.

Mr. Tyler has always taken an active part in the public affairs of the County. He was formerly a Whig, but joined the Republican party at its organization. In 1859 he was appointed assessor of the County, making the second assessment ever made in the County. In 1869 he was elected County Commissioner, and served two years. He was again elected Commissioner in 1877, but did not qualify. He was appointed however to fill the vacancy and served until the next general election.

During the Rebellion he was a member of Capt. Coleman's Company of the 22nd Regiment of Kansas Volunteer Militia, and helped to repel the Price Raid. In 1864 he was appointed Postmaster at Tyler's and held that position until the office was discontinued more than ten years later. Mr. Tyler is a zealous worker in the Baptist church, holding his membership with the church at Fairview, where he has been Deacon for a good many years. He is also an earnest Sunday School worker, and holds a life membership in the Baptist Missionary Society.

In June 1866 Mr. Tyler was married to Miss Harriett Chase, who was born in Maine, Oct. 18th, 1840. She was a daughter of Jas. and Abigail Chase, who came to Brown County in 1859. Mrs. Tyler taught the first public school in Brown County. The contract was made July 4th, 1860 and was for a three month's term in Old Carson, District No. 1. The school house was not entirely completed and there was three days' delay after the teacher reported for duty. There were about 20 scholars enrolled during the term. Mrs. Tyler afterwards taught at Padonia, Powhattan and in a large public school composed of colored pupils in South Leavenworth, before her marriage to Mr. Tyler. Four children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Tyler. Augustus H. who died at the age of twenty. Jas. C. born July 1871, a graduate of Ottawa University and also of the John Hopkins University, and now a resident of Great Bend, Kansas. Lois, born in 1873, now the wife of G. W. Haflich of Fairview. John H. born January 1, 1881 now a student of the Ottawa University.

Henry W. Honnell.

One of the first settlers of Mission Township was Henry W. Honnell, now a resident of Horton. In 1856 when the Presbyterian Board of Missions was organized it assigned the Rev. Wm. Honnell to the Indian Mission in Brown County, Kansas, Territory. His younger brother Henry came with him to his new charge and took a claim near the town of Lodiana. Mr. Honnell was born in Green County, Penn., April 12, 1833 and was the seventh son of William and Ellen Honnell. He grew to manhood in Ohio where the family moved and was educated in the common schools of that State. He was an ardent free state man and with his brother helped very materially to make the sentiment in his locality. He helped organize the Republican party in the county and has sat in many of its county conventions. In 1873 when the Grange movement was making history in Kansas he was nominated on the Farmer's ticket for Coroner and elected. He has also filled the position of Justice of the Peace but these honors were not sought by him as he did not care for political preferment. He has been successful as a farmer and stock raiser and now owns a fine farm of 320 acres equipped with all the modern improvements.

Mr. Honnell served on the first jury that was ever drawn in Brown County and has always been identified with every movement for the business, social and moral improvement of the county. His nearly half a century residence in the county has been filled with his good works and he is esteemed and respected by all who know him.

Mr. Honnell was married February 1857 to Miss Miranda J. Moore, daughter of Jeremiah Moore another pioneer who came to Brown County from Kentucky in 1856. Six children have been born to them of whom four have grown to manhood and womanhood and reside near their parents with families of their own. Mary Ellen the eldest daughter was born October 4, 1858 and was the first white child born in Mission Township. She is the wife of E. H. Keller of Horton. William R. was born November 26, 1860. He is the President of the Bank of Horton, has served the county in the State Legislature and is now the Government Agent for the various Indian Tribes in Kansas. Ulysses G. was born April 13, 1864. He was the proprietor of the Horton Telephone Exchange, but he sold this some time ago and is now the superintendent of a gold mine in Liberal, Colorado. Lizzie was born December 24, 1866 and is the wife of S. R. Frammer a prosperous Mission Township farmer. Both Mr. and Mrs. Honnell are members of the Presbyterian church at Horton and Mr. Honnell has been an elder of the church for many years.

Peter Berney.

A history of the early settlers of Brown County would be incomplete without a sketch of that successful farmer and business man, Peter Berney of Mission Township. He was born in County Carlow, Ireland, Dec. 25, 1817 and lived in his native country until the Spring of 1845 when he immigrated to America locating in New York State where he resided for four years. He then removed to New Orleans where he resided one winter.

He thence removed to St. Louis where he resided three years and was engaged in the extensive saddlery firm of T. Grimsley & Co. From St. Louis Mr. Berney removed to N. Y. State where he was foreman for his brother Thos. Berney an extensive contractor engaged at that time upon improvements in the city. In 1856 he removed to Des Moines, Iowa where he spent the winter and in May 1857 he came to Kansas preempting a quarter section of land five miles west of Syracuse, Doniphan County. He came to Kansas with a land warrant of 120 acres and $40 in cash. In 1866 he sold his Doniphan County quarter for $3600 and purchased a farm in Mission Township, which he called the Myshall Hill Farm after the parish in Ireland where he was born. Here he engaged extensively in farming and stock raising and improved his farm with a comfortable home, extensive and convenient barns and sheds, good orchards and fences. He added to his holdings until at the time of his death which occurred Feb. 20th, 1898, he was the owner of more than 1800 acres of land and his estate exceeded $100,000 in value. He was a devout Catholic all his life. In religion or politics or any other belief entertained by him he believed in advocating them and when any man entered into an argument with him on religious subjects he had to be well posted or he would suffer defeat. He could quote Scripture and was well posted on the interpretation of it both from a Catholic and Protestant standpoint. He was public spirited and philanthropic and gave liberally to all public purposes. He built the Catholic church at Everest and later when a church was needed at Horton he furnished the money that erected the building and he continued to be its most liberal contributor until the day of his death. In politics he was a Democrat thoroughly posted in the positions held by that party and ever ready to contribute to its success.

He was married in the Cathedral at St. Louis Nov. 26th, 1851 to Miss Ann Purcell, who was born in County Wicklow, Ireland March 13th, 1827 and who came to America in 1849. Four children were born to them: Nicholas born in Doniphan County, May 30th, 1859, married to Miss Eliza Garety of Atchison County; Joseph born in Doniphan County Aug. 5th, 1861, married to Anna Whalen of Doniphan County; Bridget Ann now deceased; and Peter born in Doniphan County March 30th, 1867 married to

Anna Sullivan of Macolm, Illinois
The three sons still live on the lands left them by their father and are all successful farmers and stock raisers and like their father devout Catholics and strong Democrats. Mrs.
Berney died Apr. 15th, 1900 and is buried beside her husband in St.
Leo's Catholic Cemetery.

He was with Grant in the Belmont expedition but later in the campaign was taken down with pneumonia and was discharged after a ten months' service. Recovering from this he re-enlisted on August 12th 1862, in Company G of the 85th Infantry and served to the close of the war, taking part in the battles of Perryville, Murfreesburo, Chickamaugua, Chattanooga and the battles of the Atlanta campaign. In October 1866 he entered the Chicago Business College and graduated in February of the next year. He then taught in the Bryant and Stratton business college at Quincy until 1870 when he came west landing at Hiawatha on the 1st day of March. Upon the organization of the town of Hiawatha he was appointed city clerk and served in that capacity for two years. In 1870 he was elected clerk of the court and served one term. His successor Henry Anderson died in office and Mr. Aten was appointed to fill out his term. In 1874 he was elected Mayor of Hiawatha as the temperance candidate and reelected in 1875. It was during this administration that the Hiawatha Club defied the city and was driven out of business. In 1889 Mr. Aten was appointed one of the three commissioners to negotiate with the Kickapoo and Pottowatomie Indians for taking their lands in severalty and later was apa soldier in the war of 1812. Mr. Aten's father and mother were both born in West Virginia. There they were married and removed to Illinois in the spring of 1840. Mr. Aten worked on a farm and attended school winters until the breaking pointed special allotting agent for both tribes. Mr. Aten joined the Odd Fellows in 1868 in Quincy, Ill. He has been an active and enthusiastic member of the order ever since and has risen high in its councils. He was Grand Patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Kansas in 1894-95; Representative of the state in the Supreme Grand Lodge in 1895-96; and is now serving as Grand Treasurer of the Grand Encampment. He is also a member of the Grand Army and has been twice elected Post Commander of Hiawatha Post 130. Ten years ago when Col. John A. Martin died Mr. Aten was elected vice president of the Army of the Cumberland to succeed him and has been annually reelected ever since.

Mr. Aten's business is that of a land, loan and insurance agent. He has a substantial stone office on the south east corner of the public square and in the thirty years that he has been a resident of Hiawatha he has loaned thousands of dollars for eastern parties and disposed of many an acre of Brown county land to new settlers.

For the past two years he has spent his leisure time compiling a history of his regiment, the 85th Illinois, for publication. The book is now in press and is a volume of more than four hundred pages. It gives a straight narrative of the regiment from its organization to the time it was mustered out and then follows it up with a biography of each member of the regiment. The members of the regiment are scattered now into all parts of the Union and it has taken an immense amount of labor and the writing of more than a thousand letters to secure the necessary information but the work has been a labor of love and the book comes from the press one of the most complete regimental histories ever published.

Mr. Aten was married September 15th 1870 at Quincy, Ill., to Maria L. Burbidge and their family consists of two daughters—Edna B., a successful Brown county teacher, and Stella W., who will graduate from the State University at Lawrence next June.

Elias Moser.

About once a decade things shape up so that the Democrats of Brown county have an opportunity to elect a county officer. Then they nominate Elias Moser and with "Get there Eli," as their battle cry carry him through in triumph. This has happened three times in Brown county; first in 1867 when Mr. Moser was elected sheriff; again in 1885 when he was elected sheriff over Geo. T. Woodmansee, the regular Republican nominee and the third time in 1889 when Mr. Moser was elected county treasurer over J. B. Mitchell, the regular Republican nominee.

Mr. Moser was born in Ragersville, Ohio June 15th 1841. He was raised in Missouri, however where his parents, removed when he was a boy. Here he enlisted as a soldier in the Fourth Missouri Volunteer Cavalry of the State Militia raised in 1861 and afterwards with the Fifth Regiment of the State troops. He came to Brown county in the spring of 1865 and purchased a quarter section of land east of Hiawatha. In 1881 he entered into partnership with Peter McGilvary in the implement business in Hiawatha under the firm name of Moser & McGilvary. Two years later this firm was succeeded by Moser and Meyer Brothers. Mr. Moser retired from this firm in 1895 since which time he has devoted his time to real estate transactions and the care of his numerous properties.

Mr. Moser was one of the originators of the First National Bank and has been a director in that institution ever since its foundation. He is one of the promoters of the Brown County Fair Association and has served on the board continuously since its organization and for the last three years has been its Superintendent of Grounds. Mr. Moser is a whole souled, good natured man whom everybody looks to as a friend and it is said that an examination of the records in the court house would show that in the last twenty years he has signed more bonds for his friends and neighbors than any half dozen men in the county. It seems to be the understanding that any worthy citizen who is in need of a friend can always find one in Elias Moser.

Harry M. Kenderdine.

Harry M. Kenderdine was born in Philadelphia, Penn., Sept. 16th 1844. His parents were members of Friends Meeting which made him a birthright member of that society and he is still a member of Green Street Meeting in Philadelphia. The family moved to Iowa in 1852 and settled in Henry county where his father engaged in farming and merchandising. He received his education in the Public Schools and the Iowa Wesleyan University. At the commencement of the Civil war he enlisted in the 1st Iowa Cavalry being at the time not 16 years old. After remaining in camp six weeks on muster in of the Regiment, he was refused on account of age. With a number of others he went to Keokuk, Iowa and succeeded in getting into the 17th Iowa Infantry. He served as a private eleven months and was then promoted to Second Lieutenant, then First Lieutenant and Captain of his Company, A, and later was commissioned Major of the Regiment, being the youngest officer from Iowa to receive a Field Commission. His Regiment went from St. Louis to Shiloh Tenn., through the campaigns about Corinth and Iuka, Miss., at the siege of Vicksburg, where the Regiment lost two thirds of its number, in the battles about Chattanooga, down through Georgia with Sherman to the sea, up through the Carolinas and marched in the grand review at Washington, D. C. in 1865. The Regiment had from first to last thirteen Field officers of whom our townsman is the only one alive.

In 1873 he married Miss Carrie E. Toble at Keokuk, Iowa and came to Hiawatha settling west of town and engaged in farming. For two years the grass-hoppers eat up all the crops and coming to the conclusion that feeding hoppers was not profitable he went to St. Louis and engaged in railroad work. After railroading in Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Tennessee and Texas he returned to Hiawatha in 1895 and was employed by the Grand Island and Missouri Pacific Railways. He is a Knight Templar, Past Commander in the G. A. R. and Past Master in the A. O. U. W. His wife is an officer and efficient worker in the W. R. C. The children are George L. an operator on the Grand Island railway at Elwood, Kans., Elizabeth Assistant Postmistress Kansas State Senate at Topeka, Julia V. clerk in the Interior Department at Washington D. C. and Karl a student in the Hiawatha High School.

Willard W. Nye.

These Annals record the fact that in October 1877. the North Kansan announced that Dr. W. W. Nye had permanently located in Hiawatha. He has been with us ever since and has succeeded in building up an extensive practice not only in Brown county but he is repeatedly called in consultation to all points in north-eastern Kansas. He is a thorough student and keeps in advance with his profession and he numbers his patients and friends by the score.

Dr. Nye was born in Bangor, Maine and educated in Knox Academy at Galesburg, Ill. He left school to enter the army and took part with his regiment in the battle of Lexington where he was taken a prisoner when not yet fifteen years old. He was paroled in September of that year and re-enlisted in the Eighth Kansas under Col. John A. Martin and participated in the hard and gallant services of that regiment. He was discharged on account of ill health and returned to Illinois where he later re-enlisted in the 139th Illinois regiment. At the close of the war he returned to Galesburg and resumed his studies in the Knox Academy. In 1870 he began the study of medicine and in 1871 and 1872 attended a course of lectures at Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia. He then practiced his profession in Colorado until the winter of 1876 when he returned to the medical college, completed its course and graduated in the spring of 1877.

Dr. Nye was married in Illinois Nov. 10th 1873 to Miss Margaret J. McChesney. Their family consists of three daughters, Grace, Ella and Margaret Grace, now deceased. was the wife of Ewing Herbert, proprietor of the Brown County World, Dr. Nye is a member of the Knights of Pythias and of the Grand Army.

Dr. S. A. Moor.

Dr. S. A. Moor was born August 11, 1864 in Montreal Canada. His parents died when he was quite young and he went to New York City to live with a brother. He was educated in the New York City schools graduating from the High school with the class of 1883. He then came to Hamburg, Iowa where he served for two years as assistant postmaster. The postmaster dying he was appointed to fill the vacancy and served in this capacity for two years more. From Hamburg he went to Hastings, Nebr., where he worked in a wholesale house. In 1891 he entered the St. Louis Medical College graduating with the class of 1895. After graduating he came to Hiawatha and commenced practicing. He has been very successful as a physician and his practice has grown steadily until it is one of the best in Hiawatha. A year ago Dr. Moor was elected a member of the board of education for the city of Hiawatha. Dr. Moor was married in 1891 to Miss Lillie N. Selby of Hastings, Nebr. They have two children Margaret, aged six, and Wendel, aged four. Dr. Moor is a member of the Episcopal church and of Hiawatha lodge No. 35 A. and A. M.

Prof. William Redmond.

Hiawatha feels justly proud of her splendid school system and of the able educator who is at the head of it. Prof. William Redmond is a Hoosier by birth. He was born at Ridgeville, Ind., May 4th 1869. His parents emigrated from Ireland to the Hoosier state in 1854. Three of Mr. Redmond's relatives were par-participants in the celebrated battle of Vinegar Hill where the Irish people made a determined stand against the English in the year 1798. One member of the family now occupies a seat in the English Parliament and another is a prominent official in the government of Australia.

After that he did post graduate work in History and Political Science in The Chicago University. As a student says Prof. Fellows of Chicago University, "he was accurate and tireless. Some of the subjects that he worked out are read before classes in the universities that he attended."

PROF. WILLIAM REDMOND.

Young Redmond was educated in the country schools of Indiana and Ridgeville College. He then taught school and worked on his father's farm for six years and secured the means for a more extended course. He entered Indiana University in 1892 and graduated with the class of 1896. While in Chicago University he was elected a member of the Historical Society of which he is still a member. In the fall of 1897 he came to Hiawatha as Principle of the High School. This place he held for two years when he was unanimously elected to succeed Prof. Leatherwood as

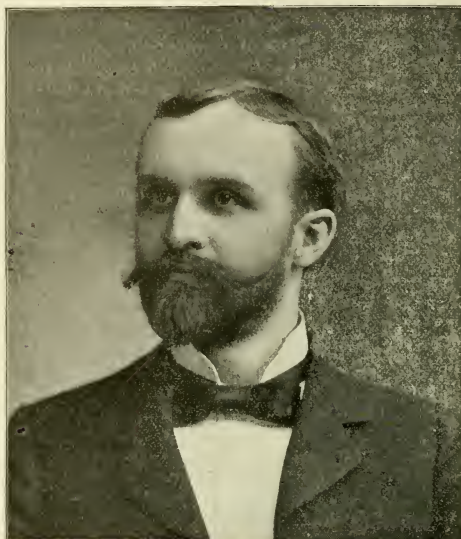

J. FRANK. MEISENHEIMER.

Superintendent of the city schools. Under his management the schools have prospered and he has demonstrated that he is an educator of ability and power.

J. Frank Meisenheimer.

J. Frank Meisenheimer, who has just completed his second term as treasurer of Brown county, has the distinction of being the first native Brown county boy to be elected to a Brown county office. He is the son of Jacob Meisenheimer, one of the pioneers of Brown county and a wealthy farmer of Hiawatha township. He was born May 1st, 1863 and received a good common school education. He was raised on the farm and then came to Hiawatha where he followed the mercantile business for some years. When his Uncle Eli Moser was elected county treasurer he appointed Frank as his deputy. This position he filled so acceptably that he was retained by Mr. Moser's successor, S. W. Moore, through his four years' incumbency of the office. Mr. Meisenheimer was elected as Mr. Moore's successor in 1895 and reelected as his own successor in 1897 and Brown county has never had a more thorough, capable and painstaking official. After leaving the treasurer's office Mr. Meisenheimer entered the First National Bank where he is now employed.

Dr. William Muse Campbell.

On the 17th day of March 1873, there was born in Robinson to Rev. William G. and Elizabeth Muse Campbell, a son, William Muse Campbell. The boy grew and developed into that sturdy boyhood and youth that lays the foundation for successful men. His education was in no sense neglected for he took delight in his studies and kept in the front of his classes and educational pursuits. His common school education was received at Robinson where his father was pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church and a member of the Kansas Conference. The father died while William was still in the school days and at the age of 15, leaving a widow and family of young children to fight the battles of life as best they could. The young man did not allow discouragements to beset him but set about facing the difficulties that confronted him. At the age of 17 he chose the medical profession and began to study in real earnest, having only the highest degree of medicine and surgery as his life's ambition. He graduated from the Northwestern Medical College of St. Joseph in 1893 and soon after engaged in practice in Fairview, Brown County. Here for two years he healed the sick and alleviated suffering, obtaining for himself a large circle of friends and a practice that would be a credit to older practitioners. Feeling the desire to be known in medicine and surgery he went from Fairview to the celebrated Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia. It was while here he was elected to the Chair of Physiology in the Central Medical College in St. Joseph and much to the regret of his Fairview friends he located in St. Joseph and formed a partnership with his uncle Dr. O. B. Campbell. In 1897 Dr. William M. Campbell left St. Joseph on account of poor health, resulting from too close confinement to his chosen studies but in a few years returned to St. Joseph and took up his practice again locating in a handsome suite of rooms in the Ballinger building, Seventh and Edmond streets. His fame, both as a physician and surgeon is widespread and he is often called upon in consultation and to perform difficult operations. He is a member of the Masonic orders, an Odd Fellow and Medical examiner in as many fraternal orders as he can find time to attend. In his early life he received every encouragement and sympathy from his mother, a woman well known in Brown County to the older settlers especially, for her energy and lofty ambitions, for nobility of purpose and strength of character and it is with natural pride he sees in his increasing successes the fruition of her prophecies and his fond hopes.

Dr. Lee Roy Yates.

Lee Roy Yates was born in Lincoln county, Kentucky, on May 4th, 1837 and died at Hlawatha February 21st 1897. At an early age he removed with his parents to Stanford, the county seat of his native county. Here, at Stanford he grew to manhood and was educated at Stanford Seminary. He read medicine in the office of A. G. and Wm. Huffman, graduated from the medical department of the University of Louisville in 1857. Returning to Stanford he at once began the practice of medicine, continuing in the practice of the profession of his choice until May 1862.

The opening of the war in 1861, found him, like many of his age, a citizen with no knowledge of or experience in military affairs. He had also hoped with the loyalists of Kentucky, that the Union might be preserved without his being compelled to take up arms against his neighbors and kinsmen. But the seeming success of the Confederate armies in 1862 demanded fresh sacrifices on the part of all lovers of the Union. And the call for additional troops at this time, was responded to by multitudes of men who had hoped to see the end of the war without being compelled to take a personal share in its hardships.

Among those who laid aside all thoughts of peaceful business to devote themselves to the restoration of their country, was Mr. Yates. On May 7th, 1862, he enlisted as a private in Company E, Rock-Castle and Lincoln county, Kentucky, Home guards and the patriotic service of this company of Home Guards was recognized by the Nation when it was mustered in and out of service of the United States with sixty days pay in accordance with a resolution of Congress approved Feb. 8th 1867. On August 1862 he enlisted as a private in the Sixth Regiment Kentucky Volunteer Cavalry, and was assigned to duty as commissary sergeant. He was commissioned First Lieutenant and Commissary of the Regiment on September 15th 1862. He participated in several skirmishes and in the various minor engagements near Brentwood Franklin, Springhill, Christiana, Wartrace and Cowan Station in Tennessee. He was also in the battles of Chickamauga and Nashville. Taking part in all the battles, actions, raids and skirmishes in which his regiment was engaged until March 2nd 1864 when he resigned to accept a commission as acting Assistant Surgeon U. S. A. He was assigned to duty in charge of the hospital train bearing the sick and wounded from Chattanooga to Louisville Kentucky, and continued in this arduous service until June 1st 1864, when he was assigned to duty in Ward 4, General Hospital No. 14, Nashville, Tennessee, remaining in that position until the end of the war, when he tendered his resignation which was accepted May 1st, 1865.

Early in the summer of 1865, he opened a drug store in Huntsville, Alabama, but his had been a regiment of fast riders and hard biters and exposure, hardship and privations of his army life developed a disease from which he never fully recovered, and failing health compelled him to dispose of his business and return to his former home in October of that year. He engaged in the practice of medicine at Stanford, until September 1869 when he was appointed Assisant Assesor of Internal Revenue and continued in the United States Revenue service until May 1877. December 1st, 1877 he removed to Hiawatha, Kansas, where he engaged in the drug and book business until the day of his death.

He was elected mayor of Hiawatha to fill an unexpired term in November 1886, and was re-elected for a full term of two years in the spring of 1887. During his term the splendid system of water works, now in successful operation was established. Since 1890 he had been an efficient member of the Board of Trustees of the Hiawatha Academy, and a leading member of the Methodist Church. He was a member of Hiawatha Lodge No. 32, A F and A. M. a Past High Priest of Mt. Horeb Chapter R A. M. and a member of Hiawatha Post 130 Grand Army of the Republic, serving as Post Commander for the year ending December 31st, 1896. He represented the Department of Kansas in the National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic at the Pittsburg Encampment and was Aid on the staff of the Commander-in-chief during the following year.

Mr. Yates and Udora Belle Brown were married at Gallatin, Tennessee September, 25, 1867. They have four children living, Brent K., Jesse O., Nellie and Carrie all residents of Hiawatha.

RESIDENCE OF L. C. CLARK, Hiawatha Township.

Levi C. Clark.

Levi C. Clark was born in St. Lawrence county, New York, Feb. 1st, 1849, and was educated in the schools of that state. In 1867 he came west and located at St. Joe, where he lived until 1875, when he came to Kansas and located in district Forty-Four in Powhattan township. Here he was engaged in farming and stock raising until three years ago, when he moved to Hiawatha township and located one mile west of the city of Hiawatha, where he has a fruit farm and nursery. Here he has an acre of raspberries, one and one-half acres of blackberries, an acre of grapes and a fine orchard of plums, cherries and peaches. He still owns his Powhattan farm, which is rented.

For six years Mr. Clark was a justice of the peace of Powhattan township and a member of the school board practically all the time he lived in Powhattan. In 1880 when the Harmony Alliance was organized at District Forty-Four, it being the first one in Brown county, Mr. Clark was elected its president and continued an active member of the Alliance as long as the organization was in existence. The next year when the first People's Party convention was held in the county, Mr. Clark was chosen as its chairman. He was a delegate to the state convention which organized the party in the state and also to the congressional convention which met in Holton later in the year. At the Holton convention Mr. Clark was unanimously nominated for congress and made the race as the Peoples' Party candidate for that office, making a thorough canvass of the district. In 1894 he was the Peoples' Party nominee for the legislature and was endorsed by the Democrats. In 1897 when the Silver forces met in joint convention to nominate a county ticket, Mr. Clark was made the nominee for register of deeds. All of these nominations were given to him without solicitation on his part and over his protest, and they serve to show the appreciation in which he is held by his fellow citizens. Before the advent of the Peoples' Party Mr. Clark was a Republican and last fall, believing that the expansion theories of that party were correct, he returned to his first political love and supported President McKinley for re-election.

L. C. CLARK.

Mr. Clark is a member of the Masonic fraternity, but belongs to no other order. He was made a Mason at Wetmore, Kansas, but since moving to Hiawatha has transferred his membership here. He was married in 1873 to Miss Sophia Smith, of Savannah, Mo., and their family consists of four children; Harvey E. Clark, of Bakersfield, Cal., Mrs. Della M. Randall, of Wetmore, Asa E. and Fred S., both pupils in the Hiawatha schools.

John M. Clark.

John M. Clark the present county treasurer of Brown county was born July 12th, 1861 in Bolivar, Pennsylvania. When eight years old his parents moved to Ohio and five years later came to Brown county. Mr. Clark attended the district schools in Brown county and then took a course in the Bryant and Stratton Business College in St. Louis, graduating from there in the spring of 1881. He farmed two years in Washington county and then came to Horton where he opened a cigar factory and continued in this business until 1899 when he was nominated by the Republicans and elected county treasurer. While a resident of Horton he served as a member of the city council and then as mayor of the city, which position he held at the time of his election as county treasurer. Mr. Clark was married May 5th, 1892 to Miss Emma Hilburn of Frankfort, Kansas. They have three children, Howard, aged eight, Bessie, aged six and Paul, aged three.

Leland E. Tupper.

Leland E. Tupper, the principal of the Hiawatha Academy, was born in Bakersfield, Vermont, March 2, 1856 and is the son of Jackson Tupper and Caroline Parkhurst Tupper, both natives of Vermont. The Tupper family is of English descent, the founder of the family in America leaving England for the New World in 1660. The subject of this sketch grew to manhood in the Green Mountain State. He was prepared for college in Barre Academy under the noted Dr. Shedd Spaulding and then entered the University of Vermont from which institution he was graduated with the class of 1880. Upon his graduation he was elected principal of the Craftsbury Academy at Craftsbury, Vermont. He held this position for four years and then became president of the Essex Classical Institute. This position he held for two years and then accepted the pastorate of the Congregational Church at Post Mills, Vermont. In 1887 he returned to the work as a teacher and went to Williamsburg, Kentucky under the direction of the American Missionary Association. For five years he worked under the direction of this Association, preaching and teaching until 1892 when he was elected to the principalship of the Hiawatha Academy and moved to this city. He has now served his eighth year as the head of the Academy. Under his management the standard of the school has been greatly raised and its graduates are enabled to enter any of the more advanced colleges of the United States. In 1882 Mr. Tupper was united in marriage to Miss Alice Crane, a daughter of George and Sara Denny Crane, of Northfield, Vermont. They have one daughter, Lelia Evelyn Isaac Morgan.

Although not born here, Brown County claims Isaac Morgan as one of the boys she has adopted because of his real worth. Prof. Morgan was born in Wales on the 19th of April, 1862. He came here with his parents about thirty years ago and it has since been his home. Here he received his common school education and later was a student at the University of Kansas. For the last fourteen years he has been superintendent of the Sabetha schools, an institution that employs eleven teachers and has almost six hundred scholars. As an educational man Prof. Morgan is well known among his fellows. He has conducted twenty-two Normal Institutes in Brown and Nemaha Counties and has been a member of the board of examiners of both counties. At one time the people of Nemaha county demanded that he should be their county superintendent but politics not being to his liking he refused the nomination, preferring to give his entire attention to his chosen profession of educating the young. He is held in high esteem by all the members of the State Teachers Association and has done his share towards building up this laudable organization. Several times he has been honored with important offices in this Association and he is at present a member of the board of examiners of North-eastern Kansas Teachers Association. Religiously Prof. Morgan is a devoted Baptist and is president of the Baptist Young People's Union of North-eastern Kansas. His church and his life profession receives his conscientious endeavors and when Prof. Morgan starts out to do a thing his friends know that it is done with ability and with a conscientious regard for being right. His success in teaching and in superintending schools is an inspiration to many a young teacher and has been the means of right living to many a young scholar who has been favored by being under his instruction. Mr. Morgan is a Mason, belonging to the lodge, the chapter and the commandry. He is also a member of the Knights of Pythias.

Jacob G. Schilling.

Jacob G. Schilling is one of the prosperous farmers of Mission township who has made money out of the Brown county soil and who now owns 240 acres of rich land and a fine residence and good improvements. He is the second son of Capt. John Schilling and was born in Hiawatha, May 5, 1862. He was the first graduate of the Hiawatha High School being the one lone member of the class of 1881. In 1883 Congressman Morrill appointed him to a cadetship at West Point and he spent one year in that institution. At the end of that time he returned to Brown County and has been a successful farmer ever since. Two years ago he asked for the Republican nomination for County Treasurer. The primary system was used for the first time that year and in the triangular fight which followed for the office of treasurer, Mr. Schilling received a plurality of the popular vote and carried a majority of the voting precincts but the solid vote that Horton sent up for its candidate, Mr. Clark, increased his percentage so that he secured the nomination. The campaign over, Mr. Schilling went back to the farm and last year raised 1500 bushels of wheat and $1000 worth of corn which leaves him in better shape financially than he would be if he had secured the office sought. Mrs. Schilling's maiden name was Lettie Moore. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Moore, of Hiawatha. They have two children, John and Harold.

George M. Davis.

George M. Davis, the present Register of Deeds of Brown county, is a Vermonter by birth. He was born in Windsor county, Vermont, March 11, 1865 and is a son of Milton F. and Lucy Davis now of Mission township. His father and mother came to Kansas in 1868 and settled near the county line between Jackson and Brown counties. Young Davis was

MR. AND MRS. A. F. MOORE.

Educated in the common schools of Brown county, the Lawrence Business College and the Campbell University at Holton where he graduated in 1886. After leaving college he returned to Brown county and farmed until 1897 when he received the Republican nomination for Register of Deeds and was elected at the ensuing election. Two years later he was re-nominated by acclamation and re-elected. Previous to his election as Register of Deeds he served three terms as township clerk of Misslon township. Mr. Davis was married May 15, 1889 to Miss Maggie Spence daughter of John Spence of Misslon Township. Mr. Davis belongs to the Odd Fellows, the Knights of Pythias and the United Workmen. He is at the present time Noble Grand of the Hiawatha lodge of Odd Fellows.

A. F. Moore.

Ohio has contributed many worthy sons who have helped to bring Brown County up to her present high state of development and among them is A. F. Moore, the well known and highly respected farmer and fine stock raiser of Misslon Township. Mr. Moore was born in Carrol County in the Buckeye state on February 13, 1839, of good Scotch-Irish stock. In 1850 he went to Fulton County, Illinois with his parents and settled on a farm near Ellisville. Here he lived until 1867 with the exception of three years when he was a traveling salesman for a hardware firm.

In the spring of 1867 he started west with a covered wagon containing his household goods and in June located on the farm where he now resides in Mission Township, two miles east of Horton. Here he has prospered. The farm today comprises 480 acres. It is under a high state of cultivation with plenty of barns and shed room and feed lots for the fine stock that is kept on the place. Short horn cattle, Poland China hogs and fine horses are Mr. Moore's specialties and he owns some of the best blood in all these lines that can be found in the county.

Mr. Moore is also a director and the vice president of the Bank of Horton, a position he has held since 1891.

Mr. Moore cast his first vote for Abraham Lincoln for president and for many years he was an active member of the Republican party. In 1894 he was nominated by that party for County Commissioner and was elected by a majority of more than 300 votes. He broke with his party on the silver question in 1896 and supported Mr. Bryan for president on that issue. In 1897 he was nominated for Commissioner again at the silver convention held in Horton and although he ran ahead of his ticket he was beaten by a few votes. In 1900 he was again nominated for this same office and once more led his ticket by a handsome vote but he could not overcome the large Republican majority in the district. As a County Commissioner Mr. Moore left a record of good service of which he may well feel proud.

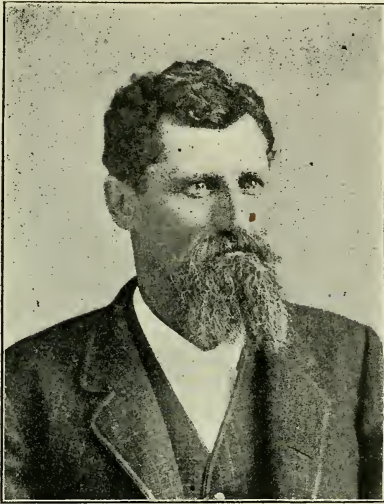

Mr. Moore was married in October 1866, in Monmouth Ill., to Miss Mary J Brownlee a native of Morrow county Ohio. Mrs. Moore was a graduate of Iberia College and a teacher. Last fall she was stricken with pneumonia and died after an illness of only three days. She was a lady of culture and refinement, a good mother and a model wife, and she is sincerely mourned by her friends, her neighbors and her family.

Three children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Moore—Frank, wife of Phillip Olzman of Straight Creek, Jackson County, Brick a resident of Wyoming and Maud who lives with her father.

Samuel Detwiler.

Samuel Detwiler, the well known farmer and fine stock raiser of Hiawatha township, is of Quaker origin. His ancestors came to Pennsylvania with William Penn, one of them being private secretary to that great philanthropist. Mr. Detwiler was born in Franklin, county, Pa., April 17, 1837, but was reared and educated in Ohio where his parents moved when he was still a small boy. He came to Kansas in the spring of 1875 and that fall purchased the farm where he now resides north of Hiawatha. He has 320 acres all improved and in fine condition, surrounded by a hedge fence and crossed by dividing fences into convenient fields for handling stock. Mr. Detwiler makes a specialty of raising Aberdeen Angus black cattle and keeps an excellent herd of them. This class of cattle leads in all stock shows and commands the highest market price and Mr. Detwiler is enthusiastic in regard to their merits. Mr. Detwiler believes that a farmer should work with his head as well as his hands and that it is profitable for the farmer to get together and relate their experiences and profit by each others mistakes and failures.

SAMUEL DETWILER.

This has made him an enthusiastic worker in the Farmers Institute and the fact that Brown county has today the oldest and best Farmers Institute in Kansas is due largely to his efforts. He has also been interested in the growth and prosperity of the Fair Association and has been President of the Association three times. He was first elected in 1886; again in 1887 and again in 1889. He has been a representative of the Association at the meetings of the State Board of Agriculture at Topeka on numerous occasions. He is a frequent contributor to the leading farm journals of the country. Mr. Detwiler takes little interest in politics. He was nominated and elected county commissioner in 1885. He served the county in this capacity for one term. It was during this time that the court house was built and the poor farm established. Mr. Detwiler has been married twice. The first time in Ohio in 1859 to Miss Anna Hoffman who died in 1862 leaving one daughter, Lizzie. In 1865 he was married to his present wife who was Sarepta G. Lehman, a native of Pennsylvania. They have two children Anna E. and James G. Both Mr. and Mrs. Detwiler are members and active workers in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Hiawatha.

G. Y. Johnson.

G. Y. Johnson, the president of the Brown County Fair Association and the proprietor of Avondale Farm of thoroughbred short horns, was born in Pike County, Illinois. In 1841. When he was 20 years of age he entered the army as a member of Company H, of the 73rd Illinois Infantry. He participated in the battles of Perryville, Stony River, Chickamauga, Atlanta, Franklin, Spring Hill, Nashville and numerous other engagements and was wounded three times while in the service. Mr. Johnson entered the service as a private and was discharged as orderly sergeant of his company. He had charge of his company at the battle of Chickamauga and from that time on until his discharge. After his discharge, which occurred in June 1865 he returned to his Illinois home where he resided until 1869 when he came to Brown County and settled in Mission township on the farm where now he resides. Short horned cattle has been Mr. Johnson's specialty and his herd is recognized as one of the finest in Kansas. It has been bred with care and is composed of Young Mary, Gallata, Rose of Sharon and other popular families. Mr. Johnson has been connected with the Brown County Fair Association for a good many years. In 1896 he was elected president of the Association and has been re-elected at each succeeding election since then.

G. Y. JOHNSON

In politics Mr. Johnson is a Democrat and has been honored by his party a number of times with its nominations. He was its candidate for county commissioner in 1870. In 1882 he was the nominee for the legislature and was beaten by 23 votes. Two years later he was nominated again and this time he was successful, serving through the regular and special session of the legislature that was called the next year. In 1893 he was the Democratic nominee for county treasurer. Mr. Johnson is a member of Hiawatha Post 130 G. A. R. but belongs to no other secret society. He was married in 1863 in Vinton, Iowa, to Miss Kittie Haines, a native of Centre County, Pa. They have one child, a daughter Gracie.

William W. Hildebrand.

Among all of the traveling men who have found it pleasant, convenient and profitable to make their homes in Hiawatha in the last few years none can be called more a self-made man nor more successful in their undertakings than the subject of this sketch—William W. Hildebrand.

Mr. Hildebrand is a Virginian by birth, having been born in the Valley of Virginia, forty-seven years ago, Dec. 10, 1853. Being one of a large family of boys he early learned that self-reliant trait which so marks the footsteps of the successful man. His boyhood was very similar to the other young men of that age. Having removed with his parents to the state of Iowa, Keokuk county, when it was at that time called the "far west" he grew to young boyhood on the broad prairie of a state that has produced and broadened and ennobled so many of her sons. He received for his education what little was given the children of that time in the district schools, but he was further endowed with that education only learned from nature's school. He early learned to look out for himself for while still a young man in his teens he left home to seek his fortune in an untried world. With nothing but industry, energy and perseverance as his capital stock to begin on. His is an example of what the combination of energy and perseverance will do for a young man who resolutely starts out and says "I will" and then proceeds to carry the will into execution.

On April 20, 1878, in Searboro, Iowa he was married to Miss J. Florence Patti. They lived in that vicinity for several years engaging in various pursuits of life very much the same as many other young couples who start out on the voyage of life together, now successful, now unfortunate—but always in the dim distant future, visions of success and hope kept beckoning them on. It was in 1888 that the big house of Fairbanks, Morse & Co., of Chicago needed a man to look after their interests in the Iowa territory. They were fortunate enough to pick on Mr. Hildebrand, who stayed with them in this territory for seven years. It was then overtures were made by a big rival concern to secure his services for they too needed a man in this territory, but these being unsuccessful Mr. Hildebrand was transferred to the Kansas City branch of this firm. It was while working for the Kansas City house he decided to move to Hiawatha where too, Mrs. Hildebrand engaged in the millinery business, not only bulding up a good business but making a large circle of friends.

ALPHEUS BURTON ALLERTON.

Until January 1st, 1901, Mr. Hildebrand worked in this territory for the Kansas City house but in the meantime, having built a fine residence in the city of Des Moines, Iowa only to have it burned out at a great loss of several thousand dollars Rebulding again he decided to reslgn the Kansas City position and remove to Des Moines, which is now known as his permanent home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hildebrand have known what it meant to be sufferers from the elements Besides having their beautiful home in Des Moines destroyed by fire, they were directly in the path of that June 17, 1882 furious cyclone which swept across the state of Iowa and was so disastrous to life and property at Grinnell where they were then living. As though this was not enough, in September of the very next year, 1883, their home was burned to the ground with all its contents. Despite all these misfortunes they have always redoubled their energies and with a spirit that champions success gone to work again determined to overcome the discouragements that beset them. He is now engaged as general agent in Southwestern Iowa and Nebraska selling special machinery for a big Iowa firm.

As has been said in the outset of this history, Mr. Hildebrand has known what the "ups and down" of life really are, but he has always persevered in what he has undertaken with that energy that is characteristic of the successful man and he has set about his task after any failure with a renewed zeal that has always won success.

Col. A. B. Allerton, the Hamlin Township philosopher, is known as a clear thinker and a vigorous writer. He is a frequent contributor to the newspapers and he always has something good to say. He comes from good sturdy Puritan stock being a lineal descendant of Isaac Allerton who played so important a part in the early history of the Plymouth Colony. He was born in Euclid, Ohio Feb. 18, 1831. He was raised and lived until 1879 at Lake Mills, Jefferson county, Wisconsin where he farmed and followed his trade as a bullder. He moved to Brown County in 1879 locating in Hamlin Township where he has resided ever since. He delights in a fast horse and always keeps a few high steppers in his stable. He reads the latest books and keeps in touch with the world as it moves.

Mr. Allerton was married Sept. 8, 1862 to Ellen P. Palmer. Mrs. Allerton was born in Centerville, N Y, in 1835. She commenced to write poetry at the age of thirty and was a frequent contributor to various publications until her death which occurred Aug. 31st, 1893. Rey. and Mrs. W. G. Campbell.

In the Central Christian Advocate for April 17th 1889, Rev. J. K. Miller, the pastor of the Methodist church at Hlawatha wrote:

"Rev. W. G. Campbell was born in Pittsburg, Pa., March 27, 1846, and died March 18, 1889. He had been in attendance at the session of his conference held in Lawrence, Kans., and not feeling well decided to return to his home in Robinson, Kans., but was unable to get farther than Troy where he died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Dr. Myres, surrounded by his family and friends. No serious termination to his sickness was anticipated until a short time before his death. His departure was made amid the most glorious displays of divine grace. Bro. Campbell was converted and joined the church when sixteen years of age, being then a student at Mt. Union College, Ohio. He married January 18, 1872, Miss Lizzie Muse, Pittsburg, Pa. Since then his home has been in Kansas. In 1875 he joined the Kansas conference, and was sent to Donphan. He was appointed in 1876, to Grantville; in 1877, '78 and '79, to Auburn; in 1880, '81 and '82 to Silver Lake. In September of this year he was obliged to give up his work on account of falling health. He moved with his family to Robinson, Brown county, Kansas, where he was active in the local work of the church and Sabbath school until 1887, when his health having improved, he was made effective and at the earnest request of the charge at Robinson was appointed their pastor, where he served until the time of his death. He was held in the highest esteem not only by his own people at the different appointments on his charge but by all who knew him. The funeral services were conducted by the writer assisted by ministers in attendance. He was an eloquent preacher, a man of large sympathy, genial disposition and hearty loyalty to the work of a Methodist preacher. The large place he held in the hearts of the people continues to express itself in the attentions paid to his bereaved family. May the blessed Master who bore him so peacefully to his abode in the heavens be the comforter of the widowed mother, wife and children in their time of trial."

Mrs. Campbell was born in Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, Aug. 28, 1852. She was married to Rev. W. G. Campbell in January, 1872, coming almost immediately to Kansas with her young husband. Her life for the next seventeen years was much the same as all Methodist ministers' wives, having no abiding stay and moving around every two or three years. The death of her husband left her with a family of young children and but scanty means, but the plucky woman determined that her children should have the benefits of an education and she went resolutely at the task of securing it for them. She asked for and secured the appointment of postmistress at Robinson and held the office for a little over four years to the satisfaction of all the patrons of the office. She wrote for the newspapers and became known as a literary woman of ability. Her verses and short stories are especially interesting. After leaving Robinson she spent a year in St. Joe where she continued her literary work. She then moved to Harris, Mo., where she served the government again for another four years as postmistress. She then moved to Garden City, where she now lives with her two youngest sons. Her oldest son, Dr. Wm. G. Campbell, is now a successful practitioner in St. Joseph, Mo. The second son, David, is agent and operator for the Santa Fe road at Garden City. The youngest son, Walter, is still in school.

REV. W. G. CAMPBELL.

The Honer Family.

It would be hard to find a better representative of that sturdy German stock which has contributed so much to all that goes to make up good citizenship, than is found in the Honer family of Robinson township. Andrew Honer, the father of the family was born in Wurtemberg Nov. 30th 1824. Like all German lads of that time he was taught a trade and became a clock maker. He followed this trade in his native land until 1852 when he determined to come to America. There were no ocean liners in that day and it took more than five weeks to make the voyage in the slow going sailing vessel.

On board the ship Mr. Honer met Henrietta Wolf and it was the same old story, love at first sight, an ocean courtship and matrimony as soon as they reached the new world. On the 20th of next October they will celebrate their golden wedding. Mrs. Honer is a native of Speichinger, Germany and is her husband's junior by five years.

Mr. and Mrs. Honer first settled in Philadelphia but soon moved onto a farm near Danville, Pa., where they lived until 1885. Here five sons were born to them, Henry on Oct. 4, 1853, Lewis on Aug. 18, 1858, Franklin on March 26, 1861, George on April 2, 1863 and William on April 14, 1865. Here Mr. Honer found that the trade he had learned in his native land stood him in good stead and he made considerable money traveling through the state of Pennsylvania repairing clocks. Both Mr. and Mrs. Honer are members of the German Lutheran church and their sons were brought up in that faith. They were also given the best education that the schools of that part of Pennsylvania where the family lived afforded.

In 1883 Louis and Frank came to Brown County. They sent home such glowing reports of this favored land that they induced their father and mother to sell out their Pennsylvanla farm and buy in Robinson township. This was in 1885. One by one the boys settled near their parents and now the five Honer farms all join each other making one solid body of land owned by the family. Families usually scatter over several states so this record is rather a remarkable one.

Four of the boys now have families of their own. Henry was married June 23 1880, to Miss Mary James of Danville, Pa. They have no children. Lewis was married Aug. 16, 1888 to Miss Flora Price, of Peoria, Ill., and they have four children. Franklin was married April 6th, 1887 to Miss Maggie Kopp, of Brown county, and they have one son. William was married Nov. 7, 1889 to Miss Susie Young, of Brookfield, Mo., and they have four children. George still lingers under the shadow of the parental roof.

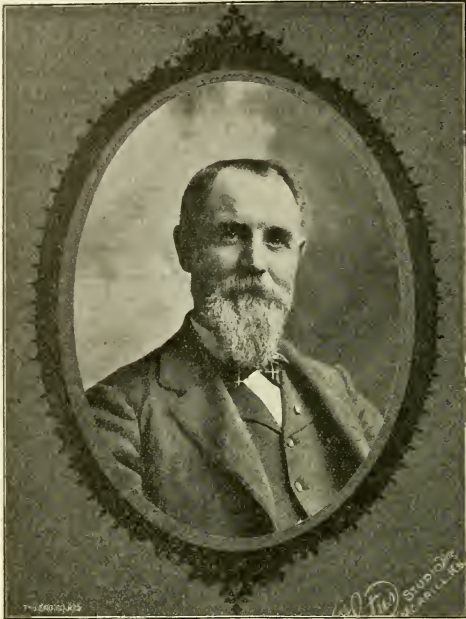

In visiting the Honer farms one is struck with the evidences of thrift and prosperity. Not only are the fields well tilled, but the hedges and orchards are kept trimmed, the buildings painted and in repair and the tools housed when not in use. There is no scrub stock on the farms, but the high grade cattle and hogs in the pastures tell the story of careful selection and intelligent breeding. The women are model housewives and take pride in their well kept parlors and thoroughly scrubbed kitchens.

The Honers are all great readers. The rural delivery route passes their farms and the daily paper finds its way to all five of their homes. In addition to this each one of the families subscribes for a number of weeklies and magazines and the book cases are filled with useful books.

Politically the family are Democrats and the old gentleman is a frequent contributor of political articles to the columns of the DEMOCRAT. None of the family ever ran for office until last year when the Fusionists of Robinson township made Frank Honer their nominee for trustee. The township is strongly Republican but the nomination was such a fitting one that political considerations were forgotten and he was elected by a surprisingly large majority. He has been renominated again this year and his work during the year has been so satisfactory to the people of the township that there is no question about his re-election. Mr. and Mrs. Honer are planning to celebrate their golden wedding next October. Theirs has been an eminently successful life. Possessed of a competency which secures for them every luxury they may desire, they see their sons settled around them successful, respected and esteemed members of the community. What more could any father and mother desire.

Allen W. Lichty.

Allen W. Lichty, the chairman of the board of County Commissioners, was born April 3rd, 1850 in Somerset county, Pa. He is of German descent the family having emigrated from Switzerland to Pennsylvania several generations ago. He was educated in the schools of Pennsylvania and resided in that state until 1868 when he moved to Waterloo, Iowa. In 1872 he moved to Illinois but only resided there for eight months and then moved to Falls City, Nebr. He spent one year here and then moved to Morrill Township settling on the famed Pennsylvania Avenue where he has since made his home. He was raised a Democrat and always affiliated with that party until the Alliance movement reached Kansas when he became a member of the People's Party organization. He was elected trustee of Morrill Township in 1890, reelected in 1893 and elected for a third time in 1894. In 1895 he was the People's Party nominee for County Commissioner and was elected by a handsome majority. Three years later he was reelected. This year he did not want to be a candidate but his friends insisted that he must make the race and he was reelected for the third term, his own township—Morrill—giving him 123 majority. No better evidence of the fact that he has the confidence and esteem of those who know him best could be found. There is a big Republican majority in Morrill township but Mr. Lichty always carries it by a handsome vote because his neighbors know that he is clean and capable and that he will give them good honest services.

Mr. Lichty is a member of the Progressive Brethren church and takes an active interest in the church work. He belongs to the Woodman

JOHN BENGSTON.

Camp at Morrill but has no other lodge affiliations.

On Nov. 28, 1870 Mr. Lichty was married to Miss Evalyne Saylor of Lanark, Pa. Nine children have been born to them. Anna Mary, wife of W. B. Deaver of Sabetha, Jennie, wife of D. Sargent of Falls City, Neb, Cordia, wife of Elmer Lanning of Morrill, Joseph C. who is with the Citizen's Bank at Sabetha, Edward who is in the hardware business at Falls City and John C., Lulu, Homer and Nona who live with their parents.

John Bengston.

Foremost among the many good citizens of Brown county who claim Sweden as the fatherland stands County Commissioner John Bengston of Robinson township. He was born Jan. 19, 1840 and grew to manhood in the old country receiving the advantages of the common schools in his locality. He came to America in 1865 and spent two years in Illinois and Missouri and then located in Robinson township, where he now has three quarter sections of rich land whose fine improvements tell the story of the owners success' and prosperity. He is a member of the Lutheran church and the Masonic lodge at Robinson and an active factor in all public enterprises in his locality. In politics he is a Republican and has been prominent in the party councils for the past twenty years. In 1896 he was elected a member of the board of County Commissioners and reelected in 1899. He is a valuable member of the board looking after the interests of the county with care and fidelity.

Mr. Bengton was married in 1868 to Miss Carrie Erickson of Robinson. They have a family of four children. The eldest daughter, Nellie, is the wife of Chas. Krey a prosperous young farmer of Mission township. The son Albert is a successful farmer of Robinson township. The two youngest daughters, Herminia and Emma reside with their parents.

John P. Davis.

John P. Davis will long be remembered by the people of Brown County with pleasure as one of their most successful and useful citizens. Mr. Davis was born in Ashland County, Ohio Jan. 20th 1839 and was the seventh son in the family. He was educated in the common schools of the Buckeye state and began to teach before he was twenty-one years old. In 1855 he moved to McDonough, Ill., where he lived for eighteen years and engaged in farming and stock raising and shipping. Here he was married in 1858 to Miss Sarah Horrabin, daughter of an influential Illinois farmer and legislator. Mrs. Davis was born in England but came to America with her parents when she was twelve years old. Seven children have been born to them Byron H. Alonzo, Cora, wife of Chas. Colburn; Vie, wife of R. T. Herrick; Myrtle, wife of Dukell Gage, Frank S. and Ivah. Both Mr. and Mrs. Davis have been members of the Methodist church for over fifty years, and have always taken an active part in the various lines of church work.

In the fall of 1872 Mr. and Mrs. Davis came to Brown County and settled two and a half miles east of Hiawatha on a 320 acre farm. Here they lived until 1882 when they moved into the city of Hiawatha. Here Mr. Davis platted the Knapp, Moon & Davis addition to the city building his residence in this tract. In addition to running his farm Mr. Davis dealt in grain and live stock and shipped many thousands of dollars worth of stuff onto the markets. He took an active interest in public affairs. He was one of the moving spirits in the movement to put the fair association onto a business basis and was elected president of the Association five times—in 1876, '78, '79, '80 and '81. In 1887 when the Hiawatha Improvement society was organized he was made its president. One of the movements backed by this Association was the founding of the Academy and Mr. Davis was the head of the soliciting committee which raised the funds. He was elected to the legislature in 1875 and reelected in 1876. His success in the legislature is shown by the fact that at the second session which he attended he introduced five bills of a general nature and succeeded in getting all of them passed. One of these bills was an act for the protection of birds and another was the law now on our statute books requiring a record to be kept in the county clerks office of all transfers of real estate.

About this time Mr. Davis began to study the question of life insurance. He believed that a Kansas company could be organized and successfully managed and he carefully worked out the details of the plan. When he had his plans perfected the company was organized and the Kansas Mutual Life began its struggle for a place among the great insurance companies of the country. Its first policy was written March 4th, 1882. Mr. Davis became president of the company. He gave up all his other business ventures and for nearly twenty years he has devoted his whole energy to making the company grow. In May 1891 it was found necessary to change the plan from an assessment company to one formed on the legal reserve plan and this was done. A deposit of $100,000 was made with the state and a new charter was taken out and the name changed to the Kansas Mutual Life Insurance Company. In February 1892 it was deemed advisable to move the headquarters from Hiawatha to Topeka. This meant the removal of nine families from Hiawatha. Mr. Davis then built a fine commodious up-to-date residence with all the modern conveniences. It is located on Topeka Avenue just a block from the state house grounds.

On going to Topeka Mr. Davis at once took a prominent part in the efforts to build up the city. He was one of the five men who organized the Topeka Commercial Club. He was elected a member of its board of directors and helped set in operation the machinery which has done so much for the betterment of Topeka.

Since the organization of the Kansas Mutual there has been years of drouths and panics but the company has grown steadily increasing its business and its assets until now it ranks with the leading old line insurance companies of the country.

Mr. Davis' life has been an eminently successful one but the Kansas Mutual is his greatest success and will remain as a lasting monument to his executive ability.

John E. Moon.

John E. Moon, under whose direction as Secretary, the superb system of book-keeping of the Kansas Mutual has been built up, was born in Leesburg, Kosciusko County, Ind., March 13, 1846. He was educated at Notre Dame College, Hillisdale College, the Military School at Fulton, Ill., and Eastman's Business College in Chicago. He took the course in the latter school after the war. During the war he enlisted first with the 138 Indiana Infantry where he served as Sergeant of Company K, and then re-enlisted in the 151 Indiana where he served as First Lieutenant of Company B, until the close of the war.

In 1866 he came to Shawnee County Kansas and for four years farmed near Topeka. In 1871 he moved to Hiawatha and for four years clerked for the well known firm of Graves & Barnett. He next purchased a drug business at Sabetha but after a year and a half he sold this out and returned to Hiawatha as the head book-keeper in the Morrill & Janes Bank. In 1879 he was elected County Clerk and re-elected in 1891.

In 1892 the Kansas Mutual was organized the two moving spirits being Mr. J. P. Davis who became president of the company and Mr. Moon who was elected its secretary. This position he has held ever since devoting his whole time and energy to the work of making the Company one of the strong institutions of the country. There have been many efforts to start Kansas insurance companies during the past quarter of a century but the Kansas Mutual is the only one which has weathered the storm and made a success of its undertaking. It has upwards of eleven million dollars worth of insurance in force now and its policy holders are located in practically every state of the union. It requires a large force of clerks to look after this business but it is so systematized that Mr. Moon has the details of the business firmly in his grasp and can furnish any information wanted at the shortest notice.

While a resident of Hiawatha Mr. Moon served five years on the city council and eleven years as city treasurer. He was treasurer of the Brown County Exposition for eleven years and treasurer of the Congregational Church for five years.

Mr. Moon is a "jiner". He is a member of Lincoln Post G. A. R. in Topeka. Orient Lodge No. 40 I. O. O. F. and the various Masonic bodies of Topeka including the lodge, chapter, council and commandry. He is also a Scottish Rite Mason having taken the various degrees up to and including the 32d degree. He is now a Knight Commander of the Court of Honor which is the preliminary step to the 33rd degree to which he has been elected.

Mr. Moon was married April 2, 1867 to Miss Malvina K. Price, of New London, Ohio. They have four children, Helen, a graduate of Chicago University, Francis, a graduate of the State University of Kansas, now wife of Chas. Haines of Sabetha, Mary, a graduate of Washburne, now wife of Rev. Edwards

William M. Welcome.

William M. Welcome, vice president of the Kansas Mutual at Topeka, is claimed by Brown County as one of her leading citizens. He was born in Freeman, Franklin County Maine Nov. 19th, 1838. When he was twelve years old his parents removed to Wisconsin, settling first in Washara County and later in Green Lake County. Here he was employed in farming and lumbering until the breaking out of the rebellion. In 1863 he enlisted with his twin brother in Company H of the 16th Wisconsin and served until the close of the war. The brother was killed at the battle of Atlanta July 21st, 1864.

He returned to Wisconsin at the close of the war and resided there until 1870 when he came to Hiawatha and went into the grain and lumber business first with S. P. Gaskill, and later with J. M. Chase. In 1878 he was elected Clerk of the Court for Brown County. The next year he was elected county treasurer and resigned his office as Clerk of the Court. In 1881 he was reelected treasurer retiring from the office in 1884. He then went with the Kansas Mutual and has been its vice president ever since. In 1892 he moved to Topeka when the headquarters of the company were changed there from Hiawatha. During his twenty-two years residence in Hiawatha Mr. Welcome was closely identified with the business and social interests of the town. He served continuously on the Board of Education or on the council, including one term as mayor of the city.

He was one of the members of the first board of Academy trustees and worked diligently to put that worthy institution onto a prosperous basis.

In 1873 Mr. Welcome was married to Miss Fannie Sellegg, daughter of A. J. Sellegg one of Brown county's pioneer citizens. They have three daughters, Florence, Winifred and Margaret. They had one son, Frank, but he died some years ago. Both Mr. and Mrs. Welcome are active and influential members of the Methodist church. Mr. Welcome is also a member of the Masonic fraternity having joined the order in Wisconsin. For five years he was secretary of the Hiawatha lodge.

Jared I. Jones.

Jared I. Jones, of Bellvue District is a Pennsylvanian by birth. He was born in Loupsburg April 30, 1841 and is the son of John Jones and Elizabeth Cook. The Jones family were Welsh, the grandfather of the subject of this sketch, emigrating from that country to Virginia where John Jones was born. On his mother's side Mr. Jones is descended from Wm. Cook who was a Colonel in the British Army during the Revolution and commanded a regiment under Gen. Wm. Irvine at the battle of the Brandywine in 1778. His son Capt. John Cook, the grandfather of Mr. Jones, must have emigrated to America very soon after the Revolution for in 1792 we find him commanding the Fourth Legion under General Wayne in the Campaign against the Indians. He was with Perry in the battle of Lake Erie and was one of the three men for whom the legislature of Pennsylvania ordered silver medals struck for dis-tingulshed services in that battle. This action of the legislature was not known to him, or to his descendants until recently, and the medal has lain unclaimed in the state house at Harrisburg. Mr. Jones as the oldest male heir, has just filed a claim for it and submitted the necessary proofs of heirship.

Mr. Jones received a good education. He finished the course in the Presbyterian Academy at Loupsburg, attended Bucknell University for a year and a half and then completed a course in the Iron City Business College at Pittsburg. The winter of 1861-2 he taught the Grammar school at East Loupsburg. In the spring of 1862 he moved to Center County, Pa., where his father had purchased a large tract of timber land.

On August 25, 1862, he enlisted as a private in Company A, of the 14th Pennsylvania and served until the close of the war. This regiment was commanded by Col. Beaver and saw all kinds of hard fighting. It was at Chancellorsville, Gettysburg, Bristow Station, Mine Run, Wilderness, Spottsylvania, North Anna Topotomy, Coal Harbor, Petersburg, Strawberry Plains, Deep Bottom, Reams Station and numerous other lesser engagements. The regiment lost twenty-two officers who were either killed outright or died from their wounds and the mortality among the men was so great that it was necessary to fill up the ranks with recruits five times. Mr. Jones went through all these services with his regiment and was wounded three times. From private he was promoted to fifth corporal then to fifth sergeant and then to be Second Lieutenant of his Company. A couple of months before the close of the war he was transferred to Company

C, and made Captain of the company and commanded it until it was mustered out of the service.

After the war Mr. Jones kept books for the lumbering firm of Walden & Jones until 1876. His father going blind Mr. Jones then returned home and took care of him until his death. From 1885 to 1888 he was book-keeper for Jesse Schrack a large lumber dealer of Clinton, County, Pa.

In the spring of 1888 Mr. Jones came to Kansas settling one mile north of Highland. He staid here until the spring of 1890 when he moved onto the farm where he now lives in this county. He is a Presbyterian, a member of the Hiawatha Post 130 G. A. R., Hiawatha Lodge Samuel Earl Friend.

Samuel Earl Friend, the present superintendent of Brown County was born in Somerset, Pa., July 29, 1865 and is the son of George and Priscilla Friend. When he was six months old his people removed to Carroll county, Ill. Here he was educated in the common schools and the Northwestern University. In 1887 he came to Neb. where he homesteaded. He also taught school just across the line in Norton County, Kansas while proving up on his claim. In 1889 he came to Brown County and taught in the schools here until his election to his present position. During the summer vacation he attended Campbell University at Holton and completed the teachers course and received his diploma. In 1900 he was nominated in the Republican primaries for County Superintendent and elected at the ensuing election. He is candidate for reelection this year and the Republican nomination is conceded to him. Mr. Friend was married Jan. 1896 to Louisa Krebs daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Krebs of Hlawatha. They have three sons, Harold, aged 5, and Herbert aged 2, and George. Mr. Friend belongs to the Odd Fellows, the Knights of Pythias, and to the Woodmen and he and his wife are members of the Reformed Church.

Lynn S. Herbert.

Lynn S. Herbert was born in Fayette County, Penn., in 1823. As a lad he worked on his father's farm, but as he grew to manhood and acquired learning he became a teacher, being a graduate of the normal school at California, Pa., and a post graduate of the normal school at California, Pa., and a post graduate of Pennsylvania college. He taught in the schools of Fayette City, Uniontown and Pittsburg. He was at one time in charge of a mercantile enterprise owned by a member of the distinguished Ewing family and he named his only son Ewing in honor of his friend and employer. In 1870 Prof. Herbert left Pennsylvania and settled at Hlawatha, Kansas. His family consisted of his wife, Harriet Jane Herbert, seven daughters and one son, now the editor of the Brown County World and postmaster of Hlawatha, then four years old. Mrs. Herbert was in her young womanhood a teacher and her seven daughters became teachers. She was the daughter of David Roberts of Massachusetts, a graduate of Williams college and later a Virginia physician who was a delegate to the Chicago convention which nominated Abraham Lincoln for president. After coming to Hlawatha Prof. Herbert and his daughters taught in the Hlawatha and Brown County schools for many years. Mr. Herbert was for a time principal of the Hlawatha schools. Mr. Herbert is a man of remarkable health and strength and in youth and in middle age very fond of walking. It was his habit to walk from his home in Hlawatha to his school when he taught in the country and one winter he walked twelve miles from home to and from his school at least thrice a week without being tardy, or feeling the worse for his walk, which was at times made in snow and rough weather. After retiring from school teaching Mr. Herbert held various small offices such as school examiner, justice of the peace, census taker and police judge. He served as justice for Hlawatha city and township more than twenty years. Though eighty years old now he is yet an active man who takes great delight in working about his home being an expert gardner. His mind is clear and at times he serves as clerk in the World office or postoffice and his writing and accounting is quite as good as that of his grandsons or other employes who are younger and proficient in their line. Squire Herbert is known as a great bible student and is now reading his bible through for the sixtieth time. He is a Mason and an Odd Fellow as his father was before him.

John G. Howard.

John G. Howard of Hlawatha, is a splendid example of what thrift, industry and good business judgement can accomplish in Brown County. He was born in Carter County, Ky., in 1842 but only lived in the blue grass state until his second year, when his parents moved to Buchanan Co., Missouri. Here he grew to manhood and when the war broke out he enlisted in Captain Hunter's Company of State Militia, served nine months and was discharged. He then re-enlisted in Capt. Karnes' Company and served two months longer when he was again discharged. In 1862 he came to Kansas settling near Highland in Doniphan County where he resided ten years. He then located in Irving township in this county and improved the Springdale Stock farm. In 1888 he purchased the place where he now resides north of Hiawatha and improved it. He has added to it until now the home farm comprise 560 acres of which 200 acres are in grass. Mr. Howard's residence is a fine two story building 32x58 feet in size. There are three tenant houses and four orchards containing about a thousand trees on the farm. It is also improved with two underground barns 36x38 feet in size each of which holds 14 horses, 20 tons of hay, and 3600 bushels of grain. In addition to this Mr. Howard owns a farm of 210 acres in Padonia township and one of 213 acres lying in Irving and Padonia townships. These two farms are also well improved. On his three farms Mr. Howard raises from sixteen to twenty thousands bushels of corn and from six to eight thousand bushels of wheat each year. He keeps from two to three hundred heads of cattle and several hundred heads of hogs all the time and raises upwards of a hundred calves and several hundred hogs each year. He feeds up all the corn and roughness he raises on his farms and is a heavy buyer of stock and feed from his neighbors. Every year he puts on the market from twelve to twenty cars of cattle and as many cars of hogs. That he is generally successful in his business is evidenced by the fact that the $600.00 worth of capital he brought with him to Kansas forty years ago has grown into an estate which is easily worth $100,000. In addition to this Mr. Howard carries $10,000 worth of old line life insurance and a policy in the Modern Woodmen holding his membership in the Woodmen with Oak Leaf Camp at Hiawatha.

In politics Mr. Howard is a Republican. He is usually a delegate to the conventions of his party and has served as township treasurer of Hiawatha, Kans., township but has never sought political preferment.

Mr. Howard was married at Highland in 1865 to Miss Nancy Jenkins a native of Indiana. She died in 1867 leaving one child which died in infancy. Mr. Howard was married again in 1869 in Buchanan County, Mo., to Miss Anna Eliza Copeland a native of Missouri and a daughter of M. Copeland now a resident of Hiawatha. Five sons and one daughter have been born to them. James M. who lives in Padonia township; Wm. E. a resident of Hiawatha township; Elmira J. wife of Emery D. Vermillion, of Shawnee County; John Wesley a resident of Coffee County; Daniel Otis, deceased and Roy E. of Hiawatha. Mrs. Howard is a member of the Methodist Church at Hiawatha.

John Witschy.

Jno. Witschy, the proprietor of the Spring Valley Fruit and Stock Farm, 1 mile east and 2 miles north of Fairview, is a splendid example of what thrift and industry can accomplish in Brown County. He was born in Bern, Switzerland, January 15th, 1841, and learned the Dairyman's trade. In 1869 he came to America, locating at St. Joe, where he worked as a gardner until 1872 when he moved to Brown County, where he rented land. In 1880 he bought his present farm where he has made a specialty of the fruit and dairy business, in which he has been eminently successful. He handles the Holstein cattle and has one of the finest pedigreed herds to be found in the west. He milks twenty cows, taking the milk to the skimming station at Fairview. He prefers the Holstein breed, because long experience has taught him that they more than make up in quantity what their milk may lack in butter fat. He has a fine bank barn on his farm, 44x55 in size. It will hold ten horses, 25 cows, 100 tons of hay and 2000 bu. of grain, besides furnishing room for farming implements and a work room. In the orchard Mr. Witschy has 1500 apple trees, 600 plums, 600 pears, and 400 peaches, and all of choice varieties. He raises alfalfa extensively as he regards this as one of the best milk producers grown.

Mr. Witschy was married in 1877 to Miss Susan Mehrwein of Penn. They have seven children living. Frederick William born June 16th, 1879, Mina Paulina born Jan. 10th, 1882, Edward Calvin born Nov. 9th, 1884, Lydia Christinia born Dec. 14th, 1886, Ida Matilda born June 1st, 1889, Bertha Elizabeth born July 7th, 1882; Roy born Sept. 27th, 1900. Both Mr. and Mrs. Witschy are members of the Reformed church at Fairview. In politics Mr. Witschy is a Populist and an active party worker.

CHARLES D. LAMME.

HIAWATHA--A YOUNG MAN'S TOWN

From The Kansas Democrat of June 19, 1902

Hiawatha is preeminently a young man's town. Young men are in control of her business industries. They manage her stores, do her banking business, have charge of her schools, fill her pulpits and edit her newspapers. Go into any place of business in Hiawatha and you will find this statement verified. The men who direct the business are young men. Without exception they are a clean capable lot of fellows, cultured, progressive and public spirited. The high character of the men now doing business in this town is indeed one of the desirable features which go to make Hiawatha a good town to live in.

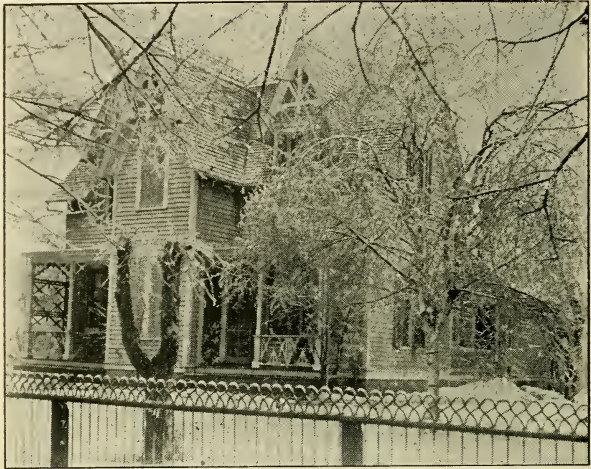

Charles D. Lamme

Foremost among the young business men of Hiawatha stands C. D. Lamme, the vice president of the Morrill & Janes Bank. He was born February 4, 1860 in Clark County Ohio and is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Lamme of Hiawatha. The family came to Kansas in 1870 settling on a farm six miles south of Hiawatha. Mr. Lamme's school advantages were limited and when he was fifteen he went into a mercantile establishment at Springfield, Ohio. Here he staid until 1878 when he returned to Brown County and soon after entered the employ of the Hon. Henry Isely, the county clerk of Brown County. He staid in Mr. Isely's office for about a year and then in January 1880 he entered the Morrill & Janes Bank beginning at the lowest round of the ladder as janitor and general utility man. From this position he rose steadily until he became vice president of the bank.

Gov. Morrill was in Congress and the active management of the bank devolved upon Mr. Charles Janes. He recognized Mr. Lamme's capabilities and when in 1886 Mr. Janes health failed he shifted his burden to Mr. Lamme's young shoulders and he has carried it most successfully ever since. Under this management the bank has grown to be the biggest financial institution in northern Kansas. Its deposits have exceeded a half million dollars, a record only excelled by one state bank doing business in Kansas. It has met every demand of the community and by furnishing adequate banking facilities and plenty of ready capital has proved a very important factor in the development and continued prosperity of Brown County.

Closely allied to a bank are a host of public enterprises which require time and attention. Mr. Lamme has always been a pusher along these lines and has been prominently identified with every business enterprise of a public nature for the past twenty years. He has been a trustee and the treasurer of the Academy for years. He has served as treasurer of the Board of Education. He helped organize the Electric Light Co., and is its treasurer. He was one of the organizers of the Commercial Club and has been a director and its treasurer ever since its organization. He is the executor of the Chas. H. Janes estate, a trustee of the Presbyterian Church, treasurer of the Hlawatha Commandry of Knights Templar and a director in numerous other organizations of a semi public nature.

Mr. Lamme has always been too busy to be a "jiner" and the only lodge organization he is connected with is the Masonic fraternity. He is a member of Hlawatha lodge, Mt. Horeb Chapter R. A. M. and Hlawatha Commandry No. 13 Knights Templar.

Mr. Lamme was married in November 1881 to Miss Emma Anderson of Hlawatha. They have three children—Ethel, who will graduate from the Academy next year, Charles Jr. and Elizabeth. Both Mr. and Mrs. Lamme are members of the Presbyterian church holding their membership with the First Presbyterian Church of Hlawatha.

Samuel Bierer.

Samuel Bierer, the head of the mercantile firm of Bierer, Shadel & Co., was raised in Brown County and for twenty-five years he has been connected with the business interests of the town of Hlawatha. He is a son of Col. and Mrs. E. Bierer of Hlawatha and was born in Uniontown, Pa. in August 1857. The family came to Brown County in 1865 and settled on a farm a mile and a half east of Hlawatha. Here Mr. Bierer grew to manhood, working on the farm summers and attending school winters. He rounded out his education with a course at the Lawrence Business College and in the fall of 1877 entered the employ of S. Hesselberger & Co., Hiawatha merchants. He stayed with them for three years and then went with the firm of Graves and Lawrence, where he remained until January 1882 when he became a partner in the firm of Lawrence, Bierer & Baker. The other partners being Albert Lawrence and Henry C. Baker. This partnership lasted for two years when Mr. Baker retired and the firm became Lawrence & Bierer. Mr. Lawrence retired in 1888 and the firm became Bierer, Lawrence & Co., and later Bierer, Shadel & Co. Mr. Bierer has been the head of the firm fourteen years and during this time the business has grown to be the largest commercial business in northeastern Kansas, employing twenty-five or more clerks at all times of the year. A firm to be successful must be reliable and the fact that this characteristic has been so thoroughly impressed upon this business under Mr. Bierer's management accounts for its steady growth during the last fourteen years.

Mr. Bierer has always been prominently identified with the public interests of Hiawatha. In 1888 when the business interests of the town decidated that it was necessary to elect representatives of the business interests on the Council to straighten out the water works tangle, he was elected as a member of the city council, serving one term. He was again elected on the council in 1900 and again served one term, being chairman of the ways and means committee during that time and also president of the council. He has also served two terms on the board of education, being elected in 1897 and re-elected in 1899.

In 1892 he was elected a member of the board of trustees of the Academy to succeed the late C. D. Lawrence and has served continuously in that capacity ever since. He is a Mason, belonging to the Lodge, Chapter and Commandery in Hiawatha.

Mr. Bierer was married October 20, 1881 to Miss Alfaretta M. Harpster, of Hiawatha. They have a family of six children, four daughters and two sons, Mary, Ida, Marguerite, Samuel, Jr., Blon and Alfaretta. Their fine modern residence at the corner of Seventh and Schilling Avenue is one of the best of the many fine homes of which Hiawatha boasts and Mr. and Mrs. Bierer are recognized as model entertainers by their many friends. Both Mr. and Mrs. Blerer are active and influential workers in the First Congregational Church of this city and for a number of years Mr. Blerer has been one of the deacons of the church.

Geo. H. Adams.

Geo. H. Adams was born October 9, 1852 at Steubenville, Ohio, and was raised on a farm and educated in a country school. He came to Hiawatha in 1876 and went into the hardware business in partnership with W. H. Woods. This partnership lasted for three years when Mr. Adams bought out his partner and continued the business alone. It grew steadily until it became one of the big businesses of Hiawatha. A furniture department was added to it and as this grew, more room was demanded and in 1895 Mr. Adams erected his present fine furniture room. This building is 50x140 feet with three floors, all devoted to the furniture business. It is finished with steel ceilings and equipped with a hydraulic passenger elevator. The splendid opportunity for a display of goods which such a building affords is abundantly utilized and the large stock of furniture, carpets, etc., carried here draws trade to the city for a radius of forty miles. Two years ago Mr. Adams sold the hardware branch of the business to Mr. Frank Daeschner since which time he has given his whole attention to the furniture trade. He has had an able assistant in Mr. John Sherrett, who has been with the business for the past twenty three years.

Mr. Adams has been actively iden-ified with the business interests of Hiawatha and has always been recognized as one of its leading and most enterprising citizens. He was elected upon the first board of directors of the Academy and has served continuously in that capacity ever since. For six years he was a director in the Kansas Mutual Life Insurance Company. He helped organize the Commercial club and is one of its trustees.

He was interested in the organization of the Hiawatha Electric Light Company and is the president of the company. For a number of years he has been a director in the Morrill & Janes bank. He is a member of the Masonic Fraternity, belonging to the Lodge, Chapter and Commandry and has served for three terms as Eminent Commander, of Hiawatha Commandry, No. 13, K. T.

C. W. Wellcome.

C. W. Wellcome, the president of the Hiawatha Commercial club, has been a resident of Hiawatha for over thirty years. He was born in

RESIDENCE OF C. W. WELLCOME

Franklin Co. Maine, March 31, 1850. When he was six years old the family moved to Washara County, Wisconsin and later to Green Lake County. Here he grew to manhood on the farm. In 1870 in company with his brother, William, and two other young men, set out in a covered wagon to see the country. The party finally landed in Brown County and Mr. Wellcome went to work on a farm near old Fairview. Soon after this Mr. Wellcome came to Hiawatha and secured employment in the Gaskill elevator. In 1874 he went to Kansas City and completed the course in the Spaulding Business College. He then went to work for Graves & Macey in their lumber yard. In 1880 he was made manager for the Henry, Barker & Co. lumber Co. and later with the Henry & Coatsworth Co. and had a general supervision over the other Brown County yards.

In 1887 he formed a partnership with J. D. Blair and the firm of Wellcome & Blair continued in the lumber business until 1898 when Mr. Wellcome bought out Mr Blair's interest. He sold the lumber business in 1900 and was out of business for a year. He then purchased a hardware business in Hiawatha which he ran for a year. Selling this business he purchased the lumber yard and is again doing business at the old stand.

Mr. Wellcome has been city clerk of Hiawatha and for six consecutive years he served on the city council being president of that body. He has been an Odd Fellow for nearly a quarter of a century and will receive the veterans badge next spring. He helped organize the Hiawatha Electric Light Co., and has been its vice president for seven years. He helped organize the Northeastern Kansas Telephone Co., and was the first president of the corporation. He is a stockholder, a director and the vice president of the Brown County Fair Association. He was one of the organizers of the Commercial club and is serving his third year as president of the club.

Mr. Wellcome was married in 1884 to Miss Lou Herbert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Herbert. Both Mr. and Mrs. Wellcome are members of the First Presbyterian church of Hiawatha.

Frank Daeschner.

Frank Daeschner, the enterprising hardware merchant of Hiawatha, was born July 19, 1858, in Cain County, Ill. He was a successful farmer and stock raiser building up a fine herd of Poland China swine and other fancy stock.

In June 1900 Mr. Daeschner purchased the George H. Adams stock of hardware in Hiawatha and has devoted his energies for the past two years to making this business a success. Mr. Daeschner found a happy companion in the person of Miss Kate Schable of Falls City, Nebr. They were married Feb. 23, 1888 and are now the proud parents of four children named Esther, Wesley, Ruth and Frank, Jr.

Dr. E. J. Leigh.

Dr. E. J. Leigh is a native Kansas and the youngest son of Dr. J. Leigh, one of the pioneer physicians of Kansas. He was born July 31, 1860 at Iowa Point at that time the principal distributing point on the Missouri River for the entire country west of St. Louis. Dr. Leigh was one of the founders and promoters of the Life and Annuity Association having been its Medical Director since it was first organized under the name of the Pyramid Builders. The standing and financial condition of this Association is second to none in the state and the present excellent showing is generally conceded to be largely the result of his fidelity to its interests and excellent judgment in the selection of risks.

C. H. Munsell.

C. H. Munsell, the General Manager of the Northeast Kansas Telephone Co., was born in West Mansfield, Logan County, Ohio August 9, 1855. When he was twelve years old the family moved to Cameron, Mo., and here he grew to manhood. He was in business in Cameron from 1886 to 1889 when he moved to Belleville, Kansas where he was in business until 1893. Becoming interested in the telephone business he procured franchises for a number of Missouri towns Cameron being among them and began to devote his time to this line of work. In the fall of 1895 he came to Hiawatha and being favorably impressed with its surroundings, educational features and other advantages decided to move here. He applied for and secured a telephone franchise and at once commenced work upon an exchange.

The demand for telephone connection had not been felt yet. Mr. Munsell was a pioneer in the field and he found many discouragements in his way, but he pushed resolutely ahead and soon had things in good working order.

The exchange opened for business Jan. 1 1896 with about sixty subscribers. Its growth was rapid. Connection was secured with all the neighboring towns and new subscribers were constantly added. Mr. Munsell built the first toll line in this part of the country operated independent of the Bell company. There were many obstacles in the way, but by the energy and hustle that characterized him he overcame them and put the business onto a profitable basis. Hiawatha offered splendid advantages as the central office for an extended telephone system and so the business was merged into the Northeast Kansas Telephone Company Feb. 14, 1900, a corporation with a capital stock of $60,000 with Mr. Munsell as General Manager.

The business of this corporation now covers Brown and Doniphan Counties completely and reaches into Atchison County and over into Richardson County, Nebraska. It has nine exchanges and offices in twenty-eight towns and connections with all of the surrounding Kansas, Missouri, and Nebraska towns. The business is all handled from Hiawatha and the exchange at this place is one that in completeness, up to date equipments and other facilities would reflect credit on any city in the country.

Mr. Munsell was married at Cameron, Mo. Nov. 7, 1877 to Miss Ida B. Cline. They have eight children: Lula May, wife of Marcy L. Baker, of Horton, Pearl, Clyde E., Frank E., Clyde H. Gladys, Teresa, and Dana. Mr. Munsell is an Odd Fellow, a K. P. and a Woodman.

ness in Chicago until 1878 when he sold out and came to Kansas locating first in Marshall county where he ran a lumber yard and coal business for a couple of years. He then moved to St. Joe where he spent a year with the John Deere Plow Company. In January 1882 he bought out the implement business of E. Jerrett and moved to Hiawatha. Later he was joined in the business by his brother Fred T. Hill and the firm of Hill Bros., did business in Hiawatha until February 1900 when they sold out and retired from business. This firm did a big business in Hiawatha carrying a large line of hardware and musical goods and handling a complete line of farming implements.

An active man like Mr. Hill could not stay out of business long and recognizing in the telephone business an opportunity for profitable investment he purchased an interest in the Northeast Kansas Telephone Company. He was made president of the company and to the persistency with which he has pushed its interests is due largely its rapid extension into the neighboring towns of Northeastern Kansas.

couple of years and then moved to Illinois. His parents dying while he was yet a boy he was thrown upon his own resources while quite young. When he was sixteen he rented land farmed it for three years, saved his money and then went to Gardner, Ill., to attend school. Here he became interested in a cooperative coal company, put his small savings into stock and saw them disappear before he had reached his majority. He then went to Chicago where he secured a job as a book-keeper. In 1870 he formed a partnership with another young man and they began a coal business in Chicago. It was growing rapidly when the panic of 1873 struck the country and although the firm weathered the storm nicely the panic had swept away many of their best customers and so it was decided to dissolve the partnership. Mr. Hill continued in the coal business. Mr. Hill is one of the "joiners." He is a Mason, belonging to the Lodge and Chapter in Hiawatha, and in 1898 and 1899 he was the Worshipful Master of Hiawatha Lodge No. 35. would be a good thing for Hiawatha and he became one of its active and enthusiastic workers. He was made National Secretary of the organization in 1896 and has been re-elected twice at the ensuing National election. As secretary he has carefully systematized the business of the Association and the thorough and complete manner in which the books of the Association are kept has been a matter of favorable comment by the examiners of the State Insurance department.

Mr. Hill was married October 20, 1870 to Miss Jessie Duncan Crooks of Gardner, Ill. They have seven children, five of whom are living: Anna Bathia, deceased; Charles, who conducts the jewelry business of A. J. Hill & Son, of this city; Jessie, Florence and Agnes, graduates of the Hiawatha High School and now students at the State University at Lawrence; Winifred, a student in the Hiawatha City School, and Alfred deceased. Brown County real estate has been in demand during the last five years and Mr. Heimlich has sold thousands of acres of it during this time. He is recognized as a hustler and has built up a good business here by being prompt, reliable and not afraid of work. He is always willing to answer correspondence and invites outside parties to write him for any Atchison. He continued in this service until the Fall of 1861 having his full share of exciting experiences with buffalos, Indians and Road Agents during this time. Resigning his position in the Fall of 1861 he purchased a stock of goods at Julesburg on the South Platte but soon disposing of this he located at Granada in Nemaha County, where he engaged extensively in merchandising and farming and stock raising until the town of Horton was laid out when he located there. He is recognized everywhere as one of Horton's leading citizens and most substantial business men. He was elected Mayor in May 1897, declined re-election in 1899 and was elected again for a second time in 1901. Mrs. Letson died November 6, 1899 esteemed, respected and sincerely mourned by all who knew her. Mr. Letson's sons like their father are successful business men. Ed T. is one of the largest stock shippers of Northeastern Kansas. He was married in 1890 to Miss Meta Pohl of Horton. Frank H. is the cashier of the Bank of Enid and is married to Miss Clara Wilson of that city. Wil-miles north of Fairview. His farm consists of 240 acres, of which 160 acres are in bluegrass and timothy, as experience has taught him that this is the most valuable crop a Brown county farmer can raise. He has two fine barns, one 20x40 with a 20 foot shed, and the other 32x42. These two barns have a storage capacity of seventy-five tons of hay and 3,000 bushels of grain. He buys thousands of bushels of grain every year, and is one of the most extensive feeders of cattle, hogs and sheep in the county, as well as one of the most successful ones. He has just completed a fine two-story eleven-room house, which is considered one of the best farm residences in Brown county, being heated by a hot air furnace, lighted with acetylene gas, and supplied with all the modern conveniences.

In politics Mr. Okeson is a Republican and always takes an active interest in the party's affairs. His personal popularity is evidenced by the fact that although Walnut township has a good-sized Fusion majority, he was elected trustee in 1895 and re-elected in 1896.

Mr. Okeson was married in 1885 to Miss Grace A. Peek, of Newark, N. Y. They have a family of six children, Bertha E., George B., Helen F., Vera M., Winslow P. and Rexford D. Both Mr. and Mrs. Okeson are members of the Baptist church at Fairview.

In 1898 he was nominated by the Free Silver County Convention for Representative and made an active canvass of the County, during the campaign, demonstrating that he was a campaigner of force and ability. Mr. Keller takes an active interest in the Farmer's Institute, and for a number of years has been one of its most active workers.

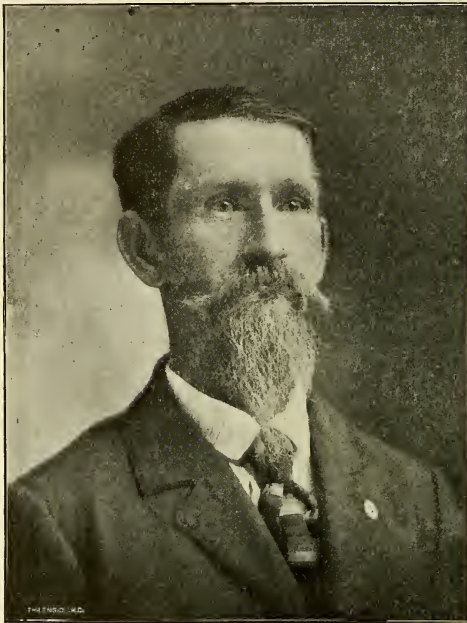

J. M. Schenklerberger.

The best improved farm in Walnut Township is that of Mr. J. M. Schenklerberger, one mile east and three and a half miles north of Fairview. There are four hundred acres, a good portion of which is in grass. There are thirteen thousand feet under roof in the barns, sheds and hog pens, and all are paved with rock. One bank barn is 60x60, with 32 foot posts; it holds 100 tons of hay, 600 bushels of grain and 75 head of cattle and is so arranged that the stock can be fed and watered without being taken out of the barn. A second barn is 40x76 and holds 16 horses, 50 tons of hay and 2000 bushels of grain. In addition to this there is a corn crib 28x30, a chicken house 16x20, milk house, wood house, and additional granaries, corn cribs and numerous other buildings. Mr. Schenklerberger keeps a herd of from 75 to 100 head of Short-horn Cattle all eligible to register; raises from 100 to 150 thorough-bred Poland China hogs every year and feeds cattle and hogs extensively every season. He has never sold a bushel of corn since he has been farming but feeds up all he raises to his stock.

Mr. Schenklerberger was born May 16, 1845 in Holmes County, Ohio and comes of good thrifty German stock, his father and mother both being natives of the Fatherland. He was educated in the common schools of Holmes County, and learned the stone-mason's trade, at which he worked for six years. In November 1870 he came to Kansas on a prospecting tour and purchased a part of the farm where he now resides. He did not move to Brown County, however until 1879. His place was then raw prairie and all of the improvements of which it now boasts have been placed there by him since that date. He has added to his holdings from time to time until he now owns 400 acres in one body.

Mr. Schenklerberger was married to Miss Martha Purdy in Ohio Sept. 17, 1874 who was also a native of Holmes County. They have five children, Clara and Carrie born Sept. 17, 1876, Peter Charles born Nov. 2, 1878, Julia born March 10, 1881, and William L., born Oct. 3, 1883. Clara is an artist of rare ability and the Schenklerberger home is adorned with many fine specimens of her skill. Her pictures have been on exhibition at various places and have always attracted attention. Carrie is a graduate of the Normal Course at Lindsborg College, Class of '97. She is also a musician and artist. Peter Charles graduated with honors from the Still Osteopath College Des Moines, Iowa January 1902 and is now in Chicago taking a medical course at Hanamann College. Mr. Macho is a public spirited citizen and believes in education. He is a great reader and student and is one of the liberal contributors to the Hiawatha Academy. He used to be a Republican but was one of the leaders in the Alliance movement since which time

He has never sought office and has always declined the nominations tendered him. He belongs to no religious organizations and aside from a membership in the Knights and Ladies of Security of which he is a leading and active member at Horton, he has no lodge affiliations. 1866 he left his native country and came to Chicago where he worked for three years at the carpenter trade and then moved to Benton Harbor, Michigan, where he lived for three years more. In 1872 he came to Brown County and settled on 80 acres of his present farm. This he has added to and improved from year to year until now he has 480 acres all under the highest state of cultivation. Two hundred acres are in blue grass and the four barns on the farm will hold 150 tons of hay and 6000 bushels of corn. There is living water in every field on the farm and the farm takes its name from the fine large spring near the McCoy's residence.

Among the other fine improvements that Mr. McCoy has added to his farm is a fine residence, one of the best in the country. It is large and roomy well furnished in modern style, heat with a furnace and equipped with many conveniences.

Mr. McCoy bought his first short-horn twenty-five years ago from the J.G. Cowen herd. It was the produce of "London Duke" VI, the famous bull that cost Mr. Cowen $3,000. He has bred up his herd into Scotch top families through and through. He breeds to secure thick, beefy cattle and turns out an average annual crop of about thirty head.

His herd is so well known that there is a constant demand for all that he can produce and he claims that there are more bulls of his raising at the head of herds than from the farm of any other short horn breeder in the state of Kansas. Mr. McCoy is a member of and stock holder in the American Short Horn Breeders Association. He is also a Director of the Farmer's

JACOB LICHTY

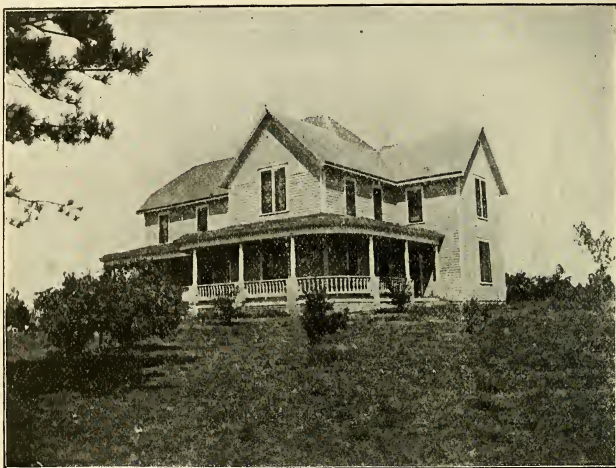

Bank of Morrill. When the Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Company was organized he was one of the first Board of Directors and for nine years served on its Finance Committee. In politics he is a Republican.

Mr. McCoy was married in March 1870 to Miss Victoria C. Nowlen at Benton Harbor, Michigan. They have three children, Jessie, a graduate of the Hiawatha Academy and Ira and Edward, both of whom have taken courses in the State Agricultural College at Manhattan, Kansas. Both Mr. and Mrs. McCoy and children are members of the Congregational church at Sabetha, Kansas.

Jacob Lichty

Jacob Lichty, the president of the Brown County Farmer's Mutual Insurance Company, is one of the largest farmers, feeders and stock raisers of Brown County. His fine farm in Morrill Township consists of eleven hundred acres. He raises about three hundred and fifty acres of corn a year, one hundred and fifty acres of small grain and has six hundred acres of pasture land in blue grass, timothy and clover. There is not a smoother body of land in Brown County, and there are not twenty-five acres of waste land in the entire body. He raises an average of fifteen hundred hogs a year and usually feeds from six to eighth hundred cattle. The farm is well improved in every respect. There are six houses, four barns and six large granaries on the place. The barns and granaries have a storage capacity of seventy-five thousand bushels of corn and three hundred tons of hay and they are often filled to their full capacity. The Lichty residence is one of the best in the county, consisting of thirteen rooms, all well supplied with hot and cold water and heated with a furnace. The various places on the farm are connected with a telephone, so that Mr.

Lichty can call up any part of his farm from the residence.

Mr. Lichty was born December 6, 1848 in Somerset County, Pa. The family is of Swiss stock and emigrated to Lancaster County, Pa., about the year 1719. Mr. Lichty lived in his native state until 1863, when the family moved to Illinois. Here he resided until 1870, when he came to Kansas and located in Morrill Township. Here he married Miss Emma Heikes, a daughter of Jacob Heikes. Nine children have been born to them. Nora, 1878, now Mrs. Bert Butterfield; John, 1880; David, 1881; Ezra, 1883; Louise, 1885; Millard, 1888; Neva, 1892; Florence, 1895 and Warren D. 1898.

Mr. Lichty was elected County Commissioner in 1893. He served one term, declining a re-election.

RESIDENCE OF FRED ISELY, FAIRVIEW.

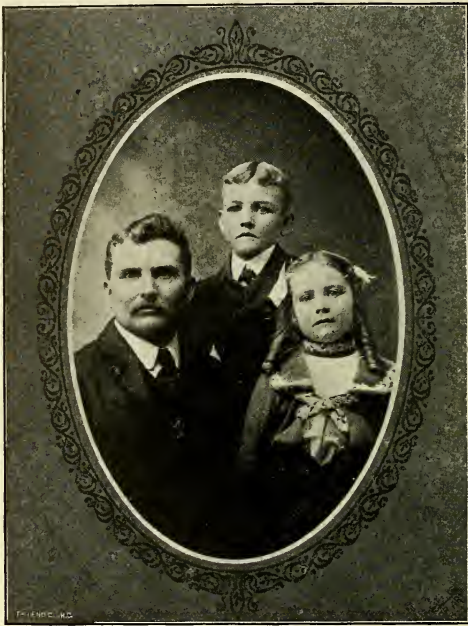

This is the only public office he has ever held, although he has been an active politician and has taken a prominent part in Republican politics in the county ever since he has been a resident here.

Four years ago Mr. Lichty was elected president of the Brown County Farmers Mutual Insurance Company and has been re-elected every year since then. He has done good faithful work for this organization which he considers one of the most creditable organizations we have in this county. Mr. Lichty is a Mason, belonging to the Hamlin Lodge and Mount Horeb Chapter at Hiawatha but he has no other lodge affiliations.

Frederick Isely.

Fred Isely, of Fairview, Kansas, was born November 18, 1831, in Holmes county, Ohio. He lived in his native county until September, 1872. He landed in Brown county September 17 of said year. He started on the prairie to open his Walnut township farm, hence is one of the pioneers of the township. He kept adding to the buildings and otherwise improving the farm until it is one of the best farms in the county. It consists of 240 acres of fine up-land and is enclosed with substantial fences, has a fine orchard and is in a high state of cultivation. It is abundantly watered by spring, creek, fine springs and excellent wells. The residence is 18x32 with an ell 16x26. It is two stories high and contains ten rooms and cost something over $2,500. Mr. Isely was the first man in the township to build a bank barn. It is 40x64 feet with room for ten horses, fifty head of cattle, eighty tons of hay and 1500 bushels of grain. Also the usual out-buildings such as corn cribs, granary, implement house, etc. He has gone through the trying ordeals of fires. In April, 1874 his first stable with new wagon and new farm machinery was burned and in 1887 his residence was burned to the ground.

In 1892 he built a fine residence in Fairview to which he removed and resided there as a retired farmer to enjoy the fruits of his labors. But he still continues to look after his farm and directs its management. He was married November 3, 1859, to Miss Pauline Geiger, who was born in Holmes county, Ohio, April 21, 1839. They have had one child, a son born in 1861, who died when he was six years old. Mr. and Mrs. Isely are very active and constant members of the Reformed church at Fairview. Mr. Isely has been one of the elders since 1873, when the congregation was organized. He has attended as a delegate many of the meetings of the district and general Synods and is in thorough touch with its work, ber, 1862, for nine months. He reported at camp Mansfield and was there quite awhile. He being the last one to take care of the old homestead and the aged parents, it was inevitable that he should return, hence he paid for a substitute to take his place. This inability to defend his country has ever since caused him much regret. In politics he is a life long Democrat. In Holmes county he held the following offices: Township trustee, land appraiser and member of the school board. In Brown county he was elected treasurer of Walnut township four times. He has served as a member of the city council of Fairview and as treasurer of the city schools. All his public trusts were filled with credit to himself and his electors. He is held in high esteem in the community. He is a public spirited man and is always ready to help with his counsel and his purse in the advancement of any public enterprise.

C. F. Lucas.

The lumber trade of Robinson and vicinity is well handled by C. F. Lucas who keeps a good stock and who makes and keeps customers by his affability and courteous treatment. Mr. Lucas is a Marylander, being born in Queen Ann county, November 20, 1866. He inherited his politics from a long line of Democratic ancestors. He was educated in the Maryland public schools and came fresh from them to Huron, Kansas, in 1889 where he engaged in the lumber business. Here he staid until 1893 when he took charge of the Robinson yards. He has been mayor of Robinson, Master of the Robinson Masonic lodge and Venerable

E. B. LEWIS

Consul of the Woodmen at Robinson. He is a member of the Royal Arch Chapter R. A. M. at Hiawatha and also a member of the Hoo Hooes in which all the good fellows in the lumber trade are supposed to belong.

Mr. Lucas was married in 1890 to Miss Laura V Willis, a native of Talbot county, Md. They have three children, Lawrence aged nine, Edith aged six and Howard Franklin not yet one year old. They have one of the most pleasant homes in Robinson and are noted for their good cheer and generous hospitality. Both Mr.

and Mrs. Lucas are members of the Episcopal church and hold their membership with St. John's Parish in Hiawatha.

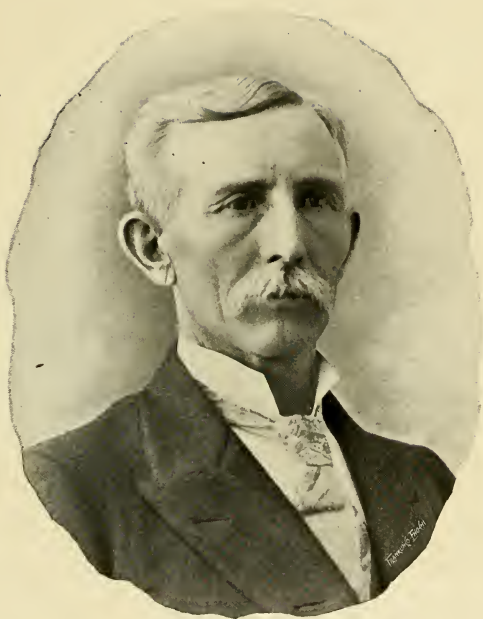

Eugene B. Lewis.

Eugene B. Lewis, of Irving township, is one of the most prosperous farmers of the county. He has made money out of Brown county soil. He was born in Andrew county, Mo. September 15, 1856, and is a son of Captain Wm. Lewis, late of Irving township. He received his education in Andrew county, Mo., where he remained until 1880 when he moved to Brown county, locating in Padonia township. In 1885 he bought the farm where he now resides in Irving township and last year added another one to it one mile south of his home place. This makes him 304 acres of good land, all improved with good houses and barns, orchards and other improvements. Mr. Lewis was married April 15, 1885, to Miss Lulu Dickinson, daughter of John C. Dickinson, of Irving township. Their family consists of five boys and two daughters. They are: Chas W., Grace, Geo. Dickinson, Catharine Dickinson, Robt Raymond Hall, Bryan and Philip Sydney, Mr. Lewis has been a lifelong Democrat and looks forward to the time when his five boys will help wipe out the Republican majority in Irving township. He is a Mason and belongs to Hiawatha Lodge No. 13.

Wm. H. Jones.

There is one unique character who figured in the early history of Brown county whose name ought not to be lost to fame. He was christened William H. Jones but was familiarly known as "Nigger Bill Jones" or "Abolition Jones." Mr. Jones was born in 1815 near Louisville, Kentucky, of pro slavery parents. When a boy he attended a slave sale and the spectacle of children torn from their parents and husbands and wives separated from each other, made such an impression on him that he swore eternal hostility to the institution of slavery.

Kentucky was not a good field for exploiting this doctrine and he moved into Indiana and later, in 1840, on into the forests of Michigan where he settled near Cassopolis. Here he hewed out a farm, grew rich and raised a family. Between times he ran trains on the underground railway and no distance was too long or night too dark for him to help along a run-away fugitive on his way to Canada.

In 1847 a posse of Kentucky slave owners camped for the night near Mr. Jones' place with a party of thirteen recaptured slaves. Mr. Jones raised a party and liberated the slaves. A Michigan county history in telling the story says:

"The leading spirit in this re encounter was Nigger Bill Jones who, after disarming one of the raiders, who drew a revolver on him, and forcing the Rev. Stevens to carry the picanniny and another of the party to relinquish his horse in favor of a wench, was shackled at his own request with a slave and so remained until after the party reached Cassopolis."

A law suit followed and eventually found its way up to Chief Justice Taney for adjudication. It was finally dropped from the docket, but in dragging its weary way through the courts it had eaten up Mr. Jones' fortune and left him dead broke.

This was in 1857. and then he determined to come to Kansas. An ox team, a wagon, a couple of cows, some household goods and a big family of children comprised his worldly possessions. Reaching Brown county he settled on what is now the Geo. Kelly farm northwest of Hiawatha. Here he at once laid out an underground railway from Missouri to the Quaker settlement at Pawnee, Neb. How many passengers were taken over this route will never be known, but his son Chet estimates the number at from 200 to 400. The story of one of these trains is told in the Annals of Brown County, page 28.

When the war broke out Mr. Jones was one of the first to advocate the raising of a colored regiment, and as soon as the state had determined to enlist the colored man he began active work as a recruiting officer. In Sol Miller's paper, the White Cloud

Chief, under date of August 21, 1862, is the following item:

"W. H. Jones, of Hiawatha, is recruiting for the contraband regiment and requests us to announce that he is paying two dollars per head for buck niggers—that is for every negro man brought over from Missouri, he will pay two dollars to the persons bringing him over.

Mr. Jones' recruits were mustered in as Company C of the contraband regiment and at the close of the war many of them settled down in Brown county.

In 1866 Mr. Jones moved to Jasper county, Mo. He soon moved to Southern California where he died in 1890. Mr. Jones was married in Anderson, Indiana in 1839 to Katherine Messick. Their family consisted of one daughter and five sons: Sarah, who died in infancy, Chester G. of Brown county, DeWitt Clinton, a farmer at Dewey, Ind. Ter., Wilberforce, an Attorney at Joplin, Mo., James Monroe, a farmer near San Francisco, Cal., and Orlando Ellis, deceased.

Chester G. Jones, the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones, is the superintendent of the Brown County Poor Farm. He was a small boy when the journey was made from Michigan to Kansas and walked the whole distance driving the cows behind the wagon. He enlisted in Company A of the 9th Kansas Cavalry and was appointed a corporal. He served four years and then re-enlisted. After the war he returned to Brown county where he has since resided. He is a member of Hiawatha Post 130 G. A. R. He has served as city marshal of Hiawatha and as superintendent of the poor farm since 1902. Mr. Jones was married Dec. 12, 1867 to Mary A. Carey, a daughter of R. B. Carey. They have two sons Charles C. of Hamlin and

Eli Zimmerman.

Eli Zimmerman, of Fairview, the well known auctioneer and breeder of Poland China swine, was born November 13, 1836, in Tuscarawas county, Ohio. The family were Swiss and came to Ohio in an early day. Mr. Zimmerman lived in Ohio until 1865 when he moved to Benton county, Iowa. Here he resided until 1874 when he moved to Brown county, settling three miles west of Hiawatha. Here he resided until 1897 when he sold his farm and bought again one mile south of Fairview.

Mr. Zimmerman began to raise Poland China hogs in the spring of 1875. The next year he started his herd which was the first herd of registered hogs in the county. He originated the Sunset strain of stock so well known to all breeders of fine stock and from his herd has come some of the most noted prize winners of the country. He turns off an annual crop of about 100 head, all of them of the Sunset, Black U S Wilkes, Chief Tecumseh 2nd and Tom Corwin 2nd families. Mr. Zimmerman is a stockholder in the Standard Poland China Hog Breeders Association and is connected with a number of the best live stock and agricultural papers. As an auctioneer Mr. Zimmerman has called more sales than any man in the county and his record of $9,580 for a single day's work has never been equalled. He called his first sale in 1857 when he was 21 years old.

Mr. Zimmerman was married March 11, 1860, in Ohio to Miss Anna Blotter. They have six children: Otto, born August 18, 1864, a resident of Oak Hill, Kansas, and a minister in the Free Methodist church; Dora, born Oct. 19, 1866, wife of Samuel Bowen, of Oskaloosa, Kan.; Mary, born March 15, 1869, wife of Tom Davis, of Oskaloosa, Kan.; Mattie, born Oct. 3, 1871, wife of Dr. W. A. McKee, of Fairview; Clinton, born Jan. 23, 1874, now of Arlington, Colo. and Lottie, born May 22, 1877, wife of Clinton Miller, of Atchison, Kan. Both Mr. and Mrs. Zimmerman are members of the Reformed church at Fairview.

David Evans.

A splendid specimen of that sturdy Welch stock which has contributed so well to the building up of this western country is found in David Evans, of Padonia township. Mr. Evans was born in Carmarthen county, Wales, May 30, 1819, and although he has passed the four score year mark, thanks to a vigorous constitution and excellent habits, he is today as hale and hearty as many men who cannot count half as many years. Mr. Evans was brought up on a farm and received the advantages of a common school education, and one year at a boarding school. He continued to reside in Wales until 1869 when he came to Kansas, locating in Brown county. Here he was founder of what is known as the Welch settlement. This settlement consists of many of the best citizens and most substantial farmers of the county who were induced to locate here through the influence of Mr. Evans. Mr. Evans has always taken a prominent part in public enterprises and is justly regarded as one of the most enterprising and progressive citizens of the county. He has a fine farm of 280 acres well improved with a fine residence, good barns, handsome lawns and fine shady groves. The rural route brings him the daily mail and he says he would not think for a moment of surrendering these advantages for a life in town. In politics Mr. Evans is a strong Democrat. He is a great reader and keeps thoroughly posted on the issues of the day and his political affiliations are the result of conviction and not of chance. Mr. Evans was married in 1848 to Miss Ann Bowen, also a native of Wales. Ten children were born to them, Sarah, William, Jane, Letetia, wife of James Joslin, John, Margaret, Mary Ann, wife of Edward Rice of Butler county, Ellen, David and Frances, wife of Rev. A. J. Haggett of Hiawatha. Mrs. Evans died in 1897, loved, respected and esteemed by all who knew her. Mr. Evans is an earnest member of the Baptist church to which he has belonged since 1854. For many years he was a member of the church at Hiawatha but when the new Bethel church was organized near his home he transferred his membership to that place. Here he holds the office of deacon. Believing firmly in the doctrines taught by the Master he has sought by a long life of usefulness to put them into practice in his daily walk and as he nears the end of the journey of life he might well say with the prophet of old that he has fought the good fight. Brown county has been bettered by his residence in it and she needs more good citizens like David Evans

William E. Tiffany.

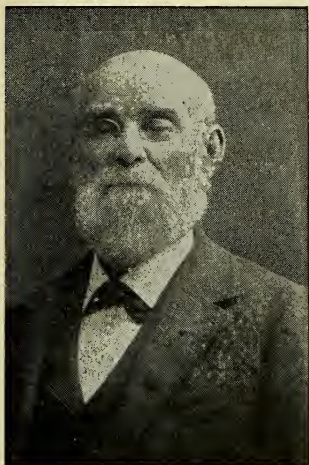

William E. Tiffany was born at Tupper's Plains, Meigs county, Ohio, August 3, 1858, and came from good old Puritan stock. He was educated at the Tupper's Plains seminary and in 1883 completed the teacher's course at Campbell University at Holton, Kansas. He came to Kansas March 10, 1881, settling first in Jackson county, but in the following January he moved to Brown county, Kansas, since which time he has been a resident here. He owns a fine, well improved quarter section of land, four miles northwest of Horton, which he runs successfully in addition to the school work which he does. He has been a teacher for twenty-seven years, has held a first grade certificate since 1884 and enjoys the distinction of being the longest in continuous service of any teacher in Brown county. He has announced that he will ask for the Republican nomination for County Superintendent at the next primaries of that party and with his extensive acquaintance and long record of successful services, ought to prove an easy winner. Mr. Tiffany has been a member of the M. E. church since 1876. For fifteen years he has been Sunday school superintendent and a good worker in Sunday school affairs. He has been one of the strong supporters of the Brown County S. S. Association and was elected its president at the annual meeting in 1901. Mr. Tiffany was married December 21, 1893, to Miss Mary Denton of Doniphan county. They have three children, Inez, born 1894, Fern, in 1896, and Emil born in 1901.

MR. AND MRS. M. C. WILLIS

Robert M Miller.

Robert M. Miller who has served Irving township three times as its trustee, is a Marylander by birth. He was born in Allegany county, December 6, 1863. When he was thirteen he came to Brown county with his parents who located in Robinson township. He received a common school education and worked on the farm until he was of age when he started out for himself. In 1891 he bought the quarter section where he now resides which he has improved and made one of the best farms in Irving township. He also rents an adjoining quarter and farms that in connection with his own place. In 1898 he was nominated and elected trustee of Irving township. Re-elected in '99 and again in 1900. He is recognized as one of the leading Republicans of Irving township and that party doubtless has more honors in store for him should he turn his attention to politics. Mr. Miller was married June 10, 1884, to Miss Carrie Gibson of Irving township. They have five children. Harry, Roy, Mary, Leslie and Cordie.

David S. Jones.

David S. Jones, one of the prosperous farmers of Brown county, was born in Pittsburg, Pa., January 10, 1853, but was raised in Ohio. Here he was educated in Ewington Academy. In 1877 he came to Brown county and located in the northern part of Padonia township where he resided until 1901 when he moved to the farm which he purchased one mile north of Hiawatha. Mr. Jones is a Democrat and has been one of the workers of the party during the more than twenty years that he has resided in the county. He has been township clerk, township treasurer and member of the school board in Padonia for a number of years. He was married in 1879 to Miss Mabel Fry of Brown county, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Fry. They have one son, Freeman, who has just reached his majority and who, like his father, votes the Democratic ticket.

Martin C. Willis.

No history of Brown county would be complete which did not contain a sketch of M. C. Willis, one of the pioneer settlers of Mission township. Mr. Willis was born in Clarborne county, Tennessee, July 20, 1830. In December, 1855, he located in Doniphan county but the next year he moved to Brown county, locating one mile north of Kennekuk. His farm which was known as Locust Grove, eventually embraced 720 acres and was noted for its fine improvements. Mr. Willis dealt extensively in stock and was a most successful business man.

Mr. Willis always took a prominent part in all public affairs of the county and was universally recognized as one of her most influential citizens. In 1863 he was elected county commissioner and reelected in 1865. When the Price raid threatened the state he served as captain in the 19th Kansas regiment of the state militia. He was elected to the state legislature in 1866 and elected a second time in 1875. In 1883 he went to California where he continued to reside until his death, January 6, 1902. The remains were brought back to Horton where they were interred. The funeral services were conducted by the members of Hiawatha lodge No. 35 A. F. & A. M. of which Mr. Willis had been a member for many years, assisted by Rev. Mr. Mayor of the Methodist church of Horton of which denomination Mr. Willis had been a member for many years.

Mr Willis was married in 1852 in Union county, Tenn., to Miss Elizabeth Carter. Five children born to them are still living: Frank L., a member of the present board of county commissioners of Brown county; Christopher C., of Brown county; William D., of California; Susan Mary, wife of William R. Honnell of Horton; and John D., of Oklahoma. Mrs. Willis died in 1880 and Mr. Willis was married again in 1886 to Mrs. Sarah Tarr, who still survives him.

Henry Isely. Page 493

Henry Isely, of Fairview, was born in Holmes county, Ohio, Sept. 1st, 1841, and is the youngest son of Christian and Barbara Isely, natives of Switzerland who immigrated to this country in 1831. Mr. Isely obtained his first schooling in one of the old-fashioned log-cabin school houses. Later he attended the high schools of Massillon and Berlin, Ohio. Here he fitted himself for teaching and taught in his native state until September, 1862, when he enlisted in Co. C. of the 67th Ohio Volunteer Infantry. This regiment is quoted as one of the three hundred fighting regiments in "Fox's Regimental Losses." Its loss during the service was 142 killed and 151 who died from wounds or disease. Mr. Isely participated in the sieges and capture of Morris Island, Charleston, Fort Sumpter and other noted strongholds, and was in the bloody charge on Fort Wagoner, July 18, 1863. After this charge he was sent to the hospital, where he was sick six weeks of typhoid fever. In 1864 the regiment entered as a veteran regiment and was placed in the Army of the James under General Butler. Mr. Isely saw pretty steady fighting from that to the close of the war. May 10, 1864, he was in the battle of Chester station; May 20 he he was at Weir Bottom Church, and again in the engagements over the same ground on June 16, 17 and 18. In the following September the regiment spent a whole month under fire near Petersburg in front of the celebrated rebel fortification Fort Hell, which had previously been mined and with its occupants, a South Carolina regiment, blown up but was again rebuilt. On Sept. 29 he was in the battle of Signal Hill and Chapin's farm, and on Oct. 1 in an action against the rebel forces under Ben Hill. On Oct. 13 his command stormed the enemy's works at Darbytown Road. On Oct. 27 and 28 they fought in the battle of Charles City Road. On the 2nd of April Mr. Isely took part in the storming of Petersburg. His command took Ft. Gregg which was manned by picked men and ordered by Gen. Lee to be held at all hazards. His command followed close on Lee's retreat and engaged him at Jetersville on April 6 and at High Bridge the next day, and were present on the 9th at the surrender at Appomattox. Here Mr. Isely was wounded by the bursting of a shell. He did provost

Mr. Isely is an enthusiastic member of the Grand Army. He is Commander of Sabetha Post and one of the active workers in the state encampment. He feels that the boys in blue are a little nearer and dearer than any other class of men and has demonstrated on many occasions his loyalty to his old comrades,

On his return from the army Mr. Isely took a course in Bryant & Stratton's Business College at Cleveland and again taught school in Ohio until 1867, when he came west. He located first near St. Joe, Mo., where he taught school for three years. In September, 1870, he located in Brown county and began to improve his farm. For three successive winters he taught the Fairview district school.

When the Grange movement started Mr. Isely joined in the work. When the Farmers' Convention met in Hiawatha in the fall of 1873 to select a county ticket Mr. Isely was nominated for county clerk and was elected by a handsome majority. Two years later he was nominated by the Democratic and Independent Republican conventions and again elected. In 1877 he had no opposition in any party and was elected for a third time, a record that has never been equalled in this county. During his six years' residence in Hiawatha he also served two terms on the city council.

In 1882, over his protest, he was nominated for the legislature by the Democrats. The district had a strong Republican majority but Mr. Isely was elected by a majority of 60. His intimate knowledge of assessment and taxation gained during six years' experience as county clerk being known to the Speaker, gave him a place on the important committee of Asses-ment and Taxation, where he did some good work for the people of the state. Later when the Alliance was organized Mr. Isely was one of its supporters and he has been one of the leading and most influential members of the Peoples Party ever since its organization

Mr. Isely owns one of the finest farms in Walnut township. It consists of 480 acres, all well improved. About 290 acres are in meadow and grass land. His large bank barn, built in 1890, is 44x66 feet and will hold 150 tons of hay, 2000 bushels of grain, twelve head of horses and sixty head of cattle His residence was built in 1871 and remodeled in 1884. It has twelve rooms and all the modern conveniences. All the other improvements are in keeping with these.

Mr. Isely is also interested in several other ventures. He has been a director and president of the Fair-view state bank since 1889. He was also president of the Sabetha Milling and Elevator company ten years.

MR. AND MRS. JACOB MEISENHEIMER

He was one of the promoters and served as president and manager of the Fairview Telephone company. In fact he has been prominently connected with every public enterprise in his locality since he has been a citizen of the county.

Mr. Isely was married August 24, 1871, to Miss Sophia Hochstetler, of Holmes county, Ohio. They have but one child living, Wm. F. who was born July 13, 1873. He was married March 7, 1895, to Miss Maude E. Jones, of Brown county and they have one daughter; Beatrice, aged 3 years. Both Mr. and Mrs. Isely are members of the Reformed church at Fairview.

The Meisenheimer Family.

It was a cosmopolitan crowd that settled Kansas. Every state in the Union was represented and every European country as well. The settlers were mostly young men but among those who came to Brown county was a member of the old guard who had marched with the great Napoleon to Moscow and shined in his crushing defeat at Waterloo. His name was Martin Meisenheimer and he was born at Heppenheim, Germany, on the Rhine, in 1788. He emigrated to America in 1835, settling near Mansfield, Ohio. From there he moved to Andrew county, Missouri, where he resided until 1857 when he came to Brown county. His family consisted of nine children, four sons and five daughters. All of them settled in Brown county and three of the sons and four of the daughters married and raised families so that the descendants of the soldier of Napoleon are numerous in Brown county.

The oldest daughter, Catherine, was the wife of John Maglott of Hiawatha recently deceased. She still lives in Hiawatha. Four daughters and one son were born to them all of whom are residents of Hiawatha and vicinity.

The second daughter Marle was the wife of Jacob Engelhart, the first settler in Hiawatha township. She has been dead a good many years.

Barbara, the third daughter, was the wife of Rudolph Zimmerman who also settled in Hiawatha township in 1855. Her son William was one of the first white children born in Brown county. She died in 1872.

The fourth daughter, Susan, is the wife of Captain John Schilling of Hiawatha. The youngest daughter, Leone, and the third son, Daniel, were never married.

Three sons of Martin Meisenheimer, John, Jacob and Conrad, have raised families in Brown county. John died several years ago, leaving three sons, William and J. B. Meisenheimer of this city and Daniel Meisenheimer of Cawker City, Kan., and six daughters. Conrad, the youngest son served in the war in the 13th Kansas. After the war he returned to Hiawatha and engaged in the mercantile business which he followed a good many years. He was married to Miss Katherine Schilling of Hiawatha. They have two children, Nettie, wife of H. A. Fairchild of Hiawatha, and Lamar, also of Hiawatha.

Jacob, the second son of Martin Meisenheimer, was born in 1827. He was married to Susan Moser, a daughter of Peter Moser of Andrew county, Missouri. Eleven children were born to them of whom nine grew to manhood and womanhood. Four of Jacob Meisenheimer's sons, Martin, George, Aaron and Rolyn are successful Hiawatha township farmers and all except Rolyn have homes and families of their own. The fifth son, J. Frank has served Brown county for four years as county treasurer and he is now with the First National bank of Hiawatha.

The four daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Meisenheimer are all married. Sarah, the oldest daughter, is the wife of B. M. Drelsback, of Swineburn, Kan. Elizabeth is the wife of John Babb, of Centralia, Kansas. Mary is the wife of J. G. Goodrich, of Dresden, Kansas. Ora, now deceased, was the wife of Herbert Jenkins of Seneca, Kansas.

The Meisenheimer family is one of prominence in the county. Its members are all good citizens, ever ready to aid any public enterprise for the good of the community or the better development of the country.

G. C. Schupbach.

G. C. Schupbach, the Democrat's Fairview correspondent, was born in Bern Switzerland, July 27, 1850. When he was two years old the family moved to Holmes county, Ohio.

F. A. Gue

Here he lived until 1871 when he moved to Falls City, Neb. In 1874 he settled in Brown county. In 1883 he bought his present farm near Sun Springs in Walnut township. Mr. Schupbach was married in 1883 to Miss Martha Gernhart, of Washington county, Iowa. They have a family of six children: Nelson, born July 25, 1887; Charlie, born September 13, 1889; Gertrude, born August 22, 1890; Edna born, December 18, 1895; Annie, born July 16, 1897; Rubie, born May 5, 1901. Mr. and Mrs Schupbach are members of the Reformed church at Fairview. In politics Mr. Schupback is a populist. He also belongs to the Workman lodge at Fairview and is one of its most enthusiastic workers.

F. A. Gue.

F. A. Gue, the enterprising proprietor of Sun Springs, was born in Fayette county, Pa, October 10, 1839. His grandfather was a French Huguenot and had to leave France to save his life at the close of one of the Huguenot rebellions. His mother came from Germany. Mr. Gue resided in his native state and received the advantages offered by her common schools until 1859 when he moved to Clinton county, Ind. He enlisted in the 86th Indiana infantry and served thirty-four months. He was taken a prisoner on the last day of the battle of Perryville and spent 526 days in southern prisons, being transferred from Libby to Pemberton, Danville, Andersonville, Charleston and Florence from which latter place he was liberated March 1, 1865.

In 1866 he came to the territory of Nebraska and the next year was elected a county commissioner of Johnson county and served six years. In 1888 he became paralyzed in the arm and shoulder as a gentle reminder of his army prison experience. Hearing of the medicinal qualities of the waters at Sycamore Springs he bought the place and improved it. Four years later he sold his interest and in 1898 bought Sun Springs which he has developed until it is known as the finest resort in this section of the country. He is constantly adding to improvements and making the place more attractive each season. Mr. Gue is a member of the Knights of Pythias and the Grand Army. He was married in 1860 to Miss Mary A. Parls of Clinton county, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Gue have no children. They have traveled extensively and have visited many quarters of the world together. They are the most hospitable of people and entertain their friends right royally at the Springs.

Eldred Harrington.

Eldred Harrington, of Baker, is recognized as one of the most progressive, public spirited and successful citizens of the county. He was born in Walworth county, Wisconsin, October 23, 1842, and is the son of Perry G. Harrington, one of the early settlers in that county. He was raised on the farm and received the advantages of a common school education which was supplemented by a course at Milton Academy. Leaving school to enter the army he enlisted in Battery L of the First Wisconsin Heavy Artillery and served in the army of the Potomac until the close of the war. After his discharge from the army he returned to Walworth county where he farmed until 1867 when he came west to find a home. The Kickapoo Reservation in this county had just been thrown open to settlement and in 1868 he bought a piece of raw prairie land, seven miles south of Hiawatha, and began to improve it. Achison was the nearest market for a good many years. He lived on this farm until the town of Baker was laid out in 1882 when he moved to it and commenced to deal in grain and live stock and later he added a lumber yard and coal business. In addition to his extensive business in Baker Mr. Harrington has two farms in the vicinity, which he farms himself. Both are well improved with good barns and extensive sheds, a complete system of water works and the other conveniences necessary for the successful handling of stock. Much of the land is in grass and he makes a practice of feeding up everything that is grown on the farms. Every year he turns off from one to two hundred head of fat cattle and several car loads of hogs.

In public affairs Mr. Harrington has always been prominently identified with every movement tending to the development of the county. He has been one of the strongest supporters of the County Fair Association, and for six years, from 1890 to 1895 he was the president of the Association. He helped to organize the Farmers Institute in the county and has been president of the organization. For a dozen or more years he has represented Brown county at the state board of agriculture and has been vice president of the body. He helped to organize the Kansas Live Stock Breeders Association, now the largest state association in the Union, and was elected president of the organization at the annual meeting in 1902. He has always encouraged education and has given his children every advantage in that direction, one son having graduated at the Kansas State University and another at the Leland Stanford University.

In politics Mr. Harrington has always been a Democrat. His first vote was cast while in the service and it was for George B. McClellan for president. In 1874 he was a delegate from Brown county to the Reform convention at Topeka. Here he was nominated for lieutenant governor and made an active canvass of the state, establishing a reputation as a campaign orator of ability. In 1884 he was the party nominee for state senator against Sol Miller in the district composed of Brown and Doniphan counties. In this race he polled 850 more votes than did the head of the ticket Mr. Cleveland. Two years later he was the party nominee for the legislature and although he led the ticket by a handsome vote the Republican majority was too large to overcome. He has attended many conventions of the party in the state and has had an active part in shaping the party politics for years. He is a member and senior elder of the Christian church at Baker and a member of

Mr. Harrington was married in 1864 to Miss Amorette Powers, a daughter of Soldon Powers also one of the pioneer citizens of Walworth county. Three sons and one daughter have been born to them: Grant W., the editor and proprietor of the Democrat at Hiawatha; Wynne P., a successful stock raiser of Gove county, Kansas; Jessie O. and Roscoe E. who are still at home with their parents.

E. L. Yoder

Eli Lorenzo Yoder, of Morrill township, was born in Mifflin county, Pennsylvania, August 11, 1842. His parents were members of the Amish Mennonite church. His ancestors were of German Swiss stock and came to America before the Revolutionary war. When Mr Yoder was fifteen the family moved to Ohio. He returned to Pennsylvania six years later and enlisted in the 101st Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry and served until the close of the war. In 1866 he returned to Ohio and united with the German Baptist church. In 1869 he was elected to the ministry and soon became a recognized leader among the progressive element in the church. He was instrumental in the introduction of Sunday school song books and helped plan and introduce the first Sunday school convention in the state. He favored higher education in the state and helped raise the funds for Ashland college and was made one of its trustees and the president of the board. In January 1885 he became one of the purchasers of the Brethren Evangelist and moving it to Ashland became business manager of the paper. He was compelled to quit this work on account of ill health and in the fall of 1885 moved to Lockwood, Mo. In October, 1886, he moved to Falls City, Neb., where he served the Brethren church for two years as pastor. In 1888 he moved to his present residence, two and one-half miles north of Morrill. Here he served the church for four years as pastor. Mr. Yoder was married in August, 1866 to Nannie Secrist of Mifflin county, Pennsylvania. Mrs. Yoder died in 1886 and in 1888 Mr. Yoder was married to Annie Forney of Berlin, Pa. Eight children have been born to Mr. Yoder. Horace M. is the advertising solicitor of the Wallace Farmer at Des Moines, Iowa. He attended college at Ashland, Ohio. Clarence W. is a Senior at the state university of Nebraska. Cora is the wife of Jacob Warner at Morrill. Charles Francis graduated at the Hiawatha Academy in 1894, winning the class scholarship, took the degree of A. B. from Chicago

University in 1899 and B. D. in 1902 and is now a professor in Ashland college. Franklin B. graduated from the Hiawatha Academy and Ashland college and now has charge of a church at South Bend, Ind. Olive, wife of Nelson Schoch of Morrill, was educated in the Hiawatha Academy. Bertha, Blaine, Amos and Lester are at home with their parents.

From this record it will be readily seen that Mr. Yoder is a patron of education and believes in giving his children all the advantages possible. Mr. Yoder is a good farmer and keeps fully abreast with the times. He has been dealing in sheep quite extensively of late and is the only man in his vicinity to handle this kind of stock. He is one of the working members of the Farmers Institute and helps materially to make its annual sessions profitable. In politics he is a Republican and before coming to Kansas served as land assessor in Ohio one year.
